FIRE AT MIRAMICHI,
AND OTHER PLACES IN THE BRITISH COLONY OF NEW-BRUNSWICK.

London Tavern, Nov. 11, 1825.
A meeting held this day, pursuant to public advertisement, to take into consideration the most effectual means of affording early relief to the sufferers in the above calamity:

JOHN BAINBRIDGE, Esq. Agent for the Province, in the Chair.

Resolved.—That it appears to this meeting that most extensive and destructive Fires have recently occurred in the Province of New-Brunswick, at Fredericton, and particularly on the North Bank of the River Miramichi, where a large tract of Country has been laid desolate; the town of Newcastle, Douglastown and the other settlements in that District, almost totally destroyed, with an afflictive loss of human life, and the surviving inhabitants, amounting to several thousands, left at the commencement of winter, in an inclement region, destitute of shelter, clothing and sustenance, with which it is not possible for them to be wholly supplied by the unassisted exertions of the neighboring Settlements.

That to afford relief to those who, by this unlooked for event, have been maimed or mutilated, and to the numerous individuals and families who have been suddenly reduced from comparative comfort to houseless beggary, a Subscription be immediately opened.

The following Gentlemen form a Committee, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions and directing the application of the same, with liberty to add to their number:

Edward Ellice, Esq. M. P. John Bainbridge, Esq. Andrew Belcher, Esq. Geo. Shedden, Esq. Robert Gillespie, Esquire. Nathaniel Gould, Esq. J. D. Powles Esq. A. W. Powles Esq. Thomas Brookelbank, Esq. John Fraser, Esq. Henry Bliss, Esq. William Bowman, Esq. John Chapman, Esq. James Young Esq. Christopher Stainbank, Esq. Matthias Jaquet, Esq. Robert Carter, Esq.

North and South American Coffee-House, November 16, 1825.

The Committee most earnestly appeal to all classes of the community for assistance. The calamity has been so extensive—the interests connected with the Province are so confined,—that it will be utterly impossible for them to afford adequate relief unless they receive general support in their exertions: and surely no case can be more deserving of the consideration of a benevolent public than the present—the sufferers are numrous—they are utterly destitute of present support, except from the limited, assistance of their neighbors;—of future hope, except from the sympathies of their fellow subjects in the mother country. Above all, the Committee would impress upon those who are desirous of lending their aid, the necessity of not delaying an hour;—to be efficient, it must be immediate, or it may find the thousands on whose behalf this appeal is made, beyond the reach of human succour—they may have perished miserably from want of the common necessaries of life.

The Committee have already placed the sum of £2000 at the disposal of SIR HOWARD DOUGLAS, Governor of the Province, for the immediate relief of the distressed.

Subscriptions will continue to be received by the Chairman, JOHN BAINBRIDGE, Esq. No. 45, Broad Street; at Lloyd's, and the North and South American Coffee Houses; at the following Banking Houses, viz.

Messrs. Davison, Magens & Co. Barclay, Trolton & Co. Smith, Payne & Co. M. Sterman, Peters & Co. Fris and Chapman. Barnetts, Hoare & Co. Grote. Prescott & Co. Sikes, Smith & Co. Moore, (Fleet Street.) Sir William Kay & Co. Sir Claude Scott & Co. And by Robert Carter, Hon. Sec. No. 3, George Yard, Lombard Street.
