These ships are all bound to the East Indies.

The Samarang, 28; Captain Dunn, is lying here, with the Southworth transport, lading condemned stores, for England.

Commodore Christian, in the Owen Glendower, and the Helicon, Captain Acland, are gone to visit the islands of Mauritius and Madagascar. The Helicon lately went on a cruise to Port Natal, and found Mr. Farewell, R. N. and party, all well. King Chakka was very kind to them and to the English in general. They are engaged in the ivory trade. The crew of the brig Mary were building a sloop, of about 40 tons, for the purposes of the trade.

The Sir Edward Paget left Calcutta fourteen days before the Sir Thomas Grenville, which arrived on the 8th ult., consequently does not bring any news. She did not touch at Madras, but at Musuliptam on the 5th of March.

Yesterday the Blonde frigate, Capt. Lord Byron, sailed for Bermuda, with Lieutenant-Colonel Fanshawe, Royal Engineers, who is to inspect into the state of the expensive alterations carrying on at that island, return to the Blonde, and make a report to the Colonial Department. His departure was very sudden.

The officers promoted are, Lieutenants David A. Gibbons, David James Ballingal, Richard Farmer, Hen. Timpson, Ben. Bruce, Cer. James Stevens, John Campbell, Robert John Little, John Hewes, Alex. Twenty Captains were called into service from the Reserved Half pay List, but eighteen of them having proved their inability to serve, the vacancies were filled up by promotion of First Lieutenants. The vacancies occasioned in the First Lieutenant's list now remain open.

On Tuesday arrived the Roxburgh Castle, from Quebec, in 25 days, and landed the Hon. J. Sewell, Chief Justice and Speaker of the Council in Upper Canada, and twelve other passengers. This ship commenced the new trade of importing Teas (on the East India Company's account) direct from China into Canada, and has brought thence a cargo of timber and potash (on the owner's account) to England, but to a low bad market. The tea adventure is considered a good one. The ship sailed the next day for the river.
