THE Proprietor of the Royal Gazette with unfeigned gratitude, returns thanks to those of the Subscribers for that paper who have assisted its support by punctuality in their payments, and will always feel the greatest satisfaction in supplying them with it--but is extremely sorry that he is compelled, from the backwardness in payment of the greater number of those who are regularly served with the Gazette, to adopt a new method for the preservation of means for its future support.

The practice (too general in this country) of sending Newspapers through the Province to Subscribers for years, without receiving the smallest compensation for them, having proved detrimental that a new arrangement has become inevitably necessary. The addition recently made to his office has cost him nearly £300--the Gazette will be enlarged, and for its future published in Quarto, to commence on the first Tuesday in June next. The size will be about that of the Albion, published in New York (a paper well known in this Province) the price of which will be sixteen shillings per annum; the whole amount must be paid upon application for the paper. No pains will be spared to make it useful and interesting. Those of our present Subscribers who may feel desirous of continuing the Gazette at its advanced price, are requested to send their names to either of the undermentioned Gentlemen or to this office (observing the conditions above mentioned) before the first Tuesday in June next, and they may depend upon every exertion being made, and care taken to forward it to them. Those persons who require their papers to be conveyed to them through the Post Office, will have to pay four shillings per annum postage, which must be deposited with the Subscription money. Notice of the expiration of the year will be published for two months previous, and all those whose subscriptions for a new term are not deposited within that period, will be considered withdrawn from the list of Subscribers. Subscriptions will be taken for any number of months previous to June in each year by paying the amount for that month, and if a further continuance is required, the money must be paid as above mentioned. Advertisements sent to this Office must be accompanied with the Cash, and the number of insertions will be regulated according to the amount received.

PROSPECTUS OF A Weekly Newspaper, TO BE CALLED THE "Newcastle Herald." And to be published by E. A. MOODY, at Newcastle, every Monday morning.

IN common with the rest of the Inhabitants of Newcastle and the vicinity, the proposer suffered losses from the disastrous Conflagration, which disabled him from proceeding in the establishment of a Weekly Paper; for which he had settled there, and embarked all his little capital and resources--Having been the first to project the accomplishment of an object so useful to the public of Miramichi, in the County Town; and having experienced the liberality and kindness of the inhabitants of Newcastle, Chatham, and other neighbouring places, in the readiness with which they then subscribed to the undertaking, he confidently trusts that the remembrance of his exertions, well-meant however as they are, and the recollection of their common sufferings, will be inducements of some weight in favour of his present views.

A very respectable journal having since been set on foot at Chatham, it might be argued that this circumstance had entirely superseded the necessity and utility of another paper in the same district; but while hopes exist of re-edifying Newcastle, and restoring it to its previous importance, the best mode of effecting the desired end, will be to encourage the institution of those establishments which characterize a flourishing town, and to give every facility to the diffusion of commercial and agricultural information. At the same time, much of the business of the country around must centre in it; and all the natural advantages of situation forbid the indulgence of gloomy and unhappy anticipations as to the future prospects of Miramichi. Besides these reasons, competition, which is the soul of every business, laudable and generous emulation is as conducive to the public interest as it is instrumental in compelling individuals to the fullest development of their energies, and the most unremitting application of their talents. The increase of Journals gives more room for the free discussion of the wants and habits of society, and secures a more candid and unbiased conduct in the editorial demeanour of those who are entrusted with their management. In this instance, as the proposer will publish on a different day of the week from that on which the Mercury appears, the independence of every description will be transmitted with greater rapidity to the community than it can be while but one weekly paper is distributed in the County.

In requesting of those, whose hospitality and generous public spirit led them to patronize the publisher in his first essay, to renew the same disposition towards him he cannot omit the opportunity of thanking them in the most heartfelt manner for the invariable kindness, which, (though a stranger and a native of another province,) he experienced from them. As he is at this moment procuring by every exertion the materials required for re-establishing his press, and depending chiefly for the success of his plan on the number of subscriptions which he may receive, he can never forget the kind treatment he met with at Miramichi; and his regret, at the sufferings he encountered here, is augmented by the circumstance of his present separation from friends so sincere.

The HERALD will consist of selected matter from foreign and colonial journals, magazines &c. &c. and such original communications, remarks, &c. as shall not contravene the rules of decorum, or infringe on the laws. The greatest possible care will be taken to avoid any thing offensive to religious and moral feeling, and every attention devoted, to give such useful and interesting contents as will render it a vehicle both of information and amusement--He expects soon to be at Newcastle, and contemplates the commencement of his Paper to take place on or about the first of July next, it should be encouraged to go on. In the mean while subscriptions will be received by the following gentlemen--

At Newcastle, by Mr. T. C. Allen; at Chatham, by Mr. Caleb McCulley; at Richibucto, by Mr. Winckworth Allen; at Bay Verte, by Captain Crane; at Saint John, by Mr. Henry Chubb; at Fredericton, by Mr. Roberts; at Bay Chaleur, by ; at Bathurst, by ; at Charlotte Town, P. E. Island, by Dr. Dalrymple; at Halifax, by Mr. P. J. Holland; and at Pictou, by Wm. Romans, Esq.

The Terms will be 4 dollars per annum, payable in advance, on the receipt of the first number;--advertisements will be inserted at the usual prices. Halifax, April 19, 1826.
