INSTALLATION OF THE BISHOP OF QUEBEC.

The following account of the Installation of the Lord Bishop of Quebec, together with the affectionate address of the Archdeacon and Clergy of that Diocese, and His Lordship's dignified answer thereto; will be read with much interest by every well wisher to the Apostolic Church of Christ; and in a much greater degree, no doubt, when they are informed that the exalted Individual "the subject of these distinctions," is, in the truest sense "an approved and laborious servant of the gospel."

If any man may be said to have "left all and followed Him" the Holy Founder of the Church he is now called to adorn, it is the Honourable & Reverend Charles James Stewart. Of noble parentage and connexions, with the certain prospect of honor and preferment in his native land, in that singleness of heart and purpose so conspicuous in all his actions, he resigned family, fortune and friends, to "preach the glad tidings of the Gospel" to his benighted brethren in the wilderness.

The exertions of Dr. Stewart in Christianizing the Indian tribes in Canada, and administering, with heart and hand also, to the necessities of all; are too well known to be expatiated upon here--and if the Almighty ever signifies his approbation of human endeavours in his service, by conferring the good will of man upon the agent, the Bishop of Quebec enjoys it in the most extended and refined degree.

On Sunday the Lord Bishop of this Diocese was Installed in the Cathedral Church with the usual formalities, adapted in some points to local necessity. As this ceremony, which is partly a legal form, and partly an ecclesiastical solemnity, is a novelty to many persons in this country, it may not be uninteresting to describe it. The Christian Religion is ordained to pass through different stages, and subject by the appointment of Providence to great varieties of outward circumstance. The Church of Christ, as well as her ministers individually, ought to "know how to be abased and how to abound." In such a condition as is enjoyed by that branch of the Church which is in connexion with the British Empire, it is suitable in itself, and subservient so a general reverence for religion, that particular occasions should be marked by a certain degree of Form and State, and it is believed that the distinctions with which the new Bishop was received in the Cathedral were regarded with interest and satisfaction by the whole of a crowded congregation. An interest, however, and a satisfaction which derived their highest zest from the feeling universally entertained that the subject of these distinctions is an approved and laborious servant of the Gospel.

His Lordship having arrived at the principal entrance of the Church, and having descended from his carriage with his attendants, his Chaplain knocked for admission at the door. The Clergy and inferior Church officers being assembled within, it was demanded who was there? in answer to which, the Bishop of Quebec was announced. The doors were then opened, and while a voluntary was played by the Organist, the procession moved up the centre aisle in the following order; (the Clergy attached to the Cathedral Establishment wearing their surplices with the distinctions of their respective Clerical rank, or academical degree; and those who attended upon the Bishop being in their robes the Choir and inferior Church Officers also wearing their respective habits.)

- The Sexton, The boys of the Choir two and two. The men of the Choir two and two. The Church Clerk. The Assistant Minister of Quebec, and the Minister of the Chapel of Ease, (being a dependency of the Cathedral,) abreast. The Evening Lecturer of the Cathedral. The Archdeacon. The Bishop's domestic Chaplain and acting Chaplain for the occasion--abreast.
