HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, TEB. 13, 1827.

of the Province of New-Brunswick. &c. &c. &c. THE HUMBLE ADDRESS OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency,

AHE Speech which your Excellency was pleased to make, have found steady employment upon these works. at the opening of this, the last Session of the present Legislature, demands the cordial thanks of the House of Assembly, Public Credit, and it is to be regretted that any disadvantageous and will have the effect of powerfully exciting their best exer. circumstances should have existed in the payments into the tions in advancing the Public Interests.

The House of Assembly, in common with the Loyal People recent calamities was also so deeply indebted.

The intimate Connection between this Province and the That the advancement of Literature is a real blessing to manseverely felt here; but it must at the same time be admitted, glect of this most important object, are sufficiently manifested that a great measure of our distress has been produced by the in the present condition of certain parts of Europe: We will same causes which so greatly contributed to the sufferings at continue to give every encouragement to our Institutions of Home, namely, excessive speculations in Trade; Speculations far beyond what the Commercial capital of the Province could, under ordinary circumstances, have warranted; the pernicious consequences of which, will no doubt have a salutary effect in cor- of the Public Roads, are highly satisfactory: This great object, recting our future enterprizes, and in pointing to the propriety of depending more upon the natural resources of the Country.

The Housewere, from the Commercial embarrassments of the country, prepared to hear of deficiencies in the Revenue compared with several preceding years: They have great satis- vince, the House indulged the hope that they were promoting faction in learning from your Excellency, that the decrease the best interests of the Colony; that hope has now ripened into is not so great as might have been expected from the operation certainty; and we are sanguine, in believing that those meaof causes not within the controul of this Province, and that a sures, if steadily pursued, will ultimately lead us through all articles of import.

The recent measures which have been adopted by His Majesty's Government for regulating the Trade to the West India mend from time to time, by Special message, shall have our Colonies, will, if persevered in, soon restore the Commerce of early, and distinct attention. this Province to a state of prosperity equal to that of any former period, and will give an immediate excitement to several branches of Industry, and especially to our Fisheries, to the prosecution of which, we may safely direct the energies of a portion of our population, with certainty of ultimate benefit.

We thank your Excellency for directing the Treasurer's Accounts to be laid before us, and we have great pleasure in the as-this Address. surance, that the state of the Treasury will enable us to provide Your steady support of the measures which I recommended several subjects which gave rise to the joint Address of both affectionate solicitude for the public welfare, the course I have branches of the Legislature to His Majesty, at the last Session, hitherto taken, I shall continue to rely on the cordial and liberal is of the nost gratifying nature; and we beg leave to express to aid of the House of Assembly. your Excellency, our full and firm reliance, that His Majesty's Government will not compromise the just and undoubted rights of this Province; and we take this opportunity to convey to your Excellency, the high sense which we entertain of the eminent services which your Excellency has rendered to this Colony, in placing this long disputed question of Boundary in its true light, a question which had hitherto not been much investigated, or understood, even in this Province, where the highly important nature of the disputed points, had been generally overlooked:

Comparing the past with the present, we feel deeply, that we have most abundant cause to be thankful to the Giver o All Good, for his merciful interpositions: The labours of the liberations of the present Session.
