NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY.

MR. VAUGHAN TO MR. CLAY.

The Hon. Henry Clay, &c. &c. The undersigned, His Britannic majesty's En- vertilient, as he had asserted.

voy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, viction upon his mind, justified by the frequent repunishment has not been inflicted since the reign of has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the monstrances which he has been called upon to make, Amurath IV. note of the Secretary of State of the U. States, since the summer of 1825, against proceedings of dated the 17th inst., in which, in order to guard agents of the State of Maine, authorized to sell lemin," which signifies " persons professing the against any misrepresentation of his silence, he lands and lay out roads and townships in the same doctrine of Mahomet. has taken occasion to express his decided dissent District. from the principles and opinions advanced by the With regard to the arrest of Baker, the Secretary ed by a golden ball, form the military ensign of the Brunswick.

mit to the consideration of His Majesty's Govern- of the latter. ment the correspondence which has taken place The undersigned has only to refer the Secretary ed territory.

When he received the complaints against the con- land newly brought into cultivation. duct of the Lieutenant-Governor of New-Brunswick, he thought it his duty to suggest the grounds found himself under the necessity of making the aglio. upon which that conduct might be justified, and the foregoing observations; and he cannot conclude distinction made by Mr. Clay, between the actual sion relative to the boundary on the north eastern —with the Euxine on its East, the natural current and constructive possession of the disputed territory frontier of the United States. previously to the conclusion of the treaty of 1783. Though a part of that territory was uninhabited, to renew to Mr. Clay the assurance of his distinand in a state of waste, so far from neither party guished consideration. having the actual possession, the Sovereignty and possession of the entire Province of Nova Scotia was vested indisputably, in His Britannic Majesty, and it is the received opinion that the Plenipotentiaries engaged in concluding the treaty of 1783, did intend and agree to leave untouched the rights of his Majesty over the Province of Nova Scotia.

The boundary from the mouth of the river St. Croix to its source, is clearly defined : the right continuation of the line entirely depends upon the the middle ages, as a general title of honour to all sent a view worthy of all admiration. The castle position of the north west angle of Nova Scotia, the nations composing the two principal branches of the Seven Towers is used as an honorable prison. which the British Commissioners of Boundary, un- of Tartar and Mogul. The word "Turk," as an A square tower stands in the sea, memorable as the der the fifth article of the Treaty of Ghent, have adjective, signifies "sublime and pre-eminent" prison of Belisarius. Near this are a great many placed at Mars Hill, and the American Commissio- as a substantive, it means "a governor." ners have placed at a great distance to the north- THE DIVAN-This state Council meets twice a trance of the port and the Seraglio.

ing to avoid any discussion of the claims of the re- or High Treasurer, the Reis Effendi, the Commis- are several watch towers, where guard is kept by spective Governments: but he has ventured to sioners of the Exchequer, and the military leaders night and day. The principal gate is of marble, point out the very great difference between the (the Agas), compose the Divan. The Sultan does and is called The Ports. The gardens are very Commissioners of Boundary; as he conceives that, not enter the room, but from an adjoining chamber extensive; the buildings are of white stone, are until that difference shall be reconciled, jurisdic- he hears all that passes. tion must continue to be exercised within the dis- On great occasions a General Council is conven- in surpassing splendour. puted limits, by the original possessors. A joint ed; all the leading persons of the empire are sumas it must prove impracticable.

The undersigned cannot acquiesce in the opinion attend. Such a Divan is called "Ajak Divini." given by Mr Clay, that the issuing of legal pro- THE GRAND VIZIER. This officer receives his cesses, within the last few years, in the settlement appointment from the Sultan. He has the care of Here is the tomb of the Emperor Constanting. upon the river Aroostook, formed originally in an the whole empire; he manages the revenue, adminunauthorized manner by stragglers from other dis- isters justice (both in civil and criminal affairs) and richest and rarest productions of the East are daily tricts, is to be considered an infringement of the commands the armies. Upon his appointment, the engagement of the Lieutenant Governor of New- Saltan puts into his hands the seal of the empire, numerous mosques, the thirty churches of the Brunswick to preserve the disputed territory in the which is the badge of his office, and which he always Greeks, and these of the Armenians, the many pri-State in which it was at the conclusion of the Trea- wears on his breast. His income amounts to six vate palaces and public buildings, and you have ty of Ghent. The settlements were established pre- hundred thousand dollars a year, exclusive of pre- some idea of the opulence and splendor of the Caviously to the Government of New-Brunswick being sents and other perquisites. confided to Sir Howard Douglas; and the under- THE VIZIERS OF THE BENCH are stilled Bashaws signed conceives that it was not optional with His of three horse-tails; three horse-tails being carried Excellency to exercise, or not, jurisdiction within before them when they march. the limits of this Province.

Proceedings in a tract of land upon the river several Provinces under his command. Madawaska, in which a settlement was established PACHAS. A Pacha (Bashaw) is a Governor unsoon after the treaty of 1783, by the French Aca- der a Begler-Beg; a Sangiac is a Deputed Goverdians, have furnished, repeatedly, cause of remon- nor. strance to both Governments. From the date of The Reis Effendi is the Lord Chancellor and England, from one extremity to the other, Le could 1786, the laws by which those settlers have been Secretary of State; the name signifies " Chief of not have found a man better qualified than Sir governed, and the Magistrates by whom those laws the Writers." have been executed, have been derived from N. The TE-TERDAR is the High Treasurer. Brunswick. Whether any, and what, part of that public Treasury is never touched, even by the Sul- Sir George has not himself personally visited, of settlement belongs to the United States depends tan, except in cases of the utmost emergency. The with the affairs and local circumstances of which he upon the provisions of 1783. Until the two Go- Sultan has his private Treasury, which he uses at does not possess an intimate acquaintance. With vernments can agree upon the true intent of that will. Some idea may be formed of the enormous the West Indies in particular he is conversant, and invalidate the jurisdiction, when the Marshal of the thirteen millions and a half of rix dollars were an unfortunate an irritation, a Minister should be appeared to the color State of Maine sent an agent to enumerate the po- nually returned to the two Treasuries. pulation of that settlement, under a law enacted by The Murri is the Chief-Ecclesiastic.

the General Government of the United States. signifies "an expounder of the law, he is consult-The undersigned learns, with regret, that there is ed on all emergencies. Should be commit treason, no record in the Department of State of a remon- he is punished in a curious manner; he is put into strance against that proceeding by the British Go- a mortar, in one of the Seven Towers, and there The undersigned, His Britannic Majesty's Envernment, as he had asserted. Such was the contract the law-expounder is pounded to death, Such a undersigned, in justification of certain acts of of State, in his last note, seems to think that as he jurisdiction which have been exercised in the dis-committed the outrage for which he was taken up, puted territory by the Provincial authorities of New- under a conviction that he was upon territory belonging to the United States, a representation should cut off a horse's tail, and elevated it on the point of between the Secretary of State of the U. States and of State to his note, dated 27th Feb., where it is shown himself, he is not disposed to prolong the discussion that Baker was perfectly aware of his residing withrespecting the exercise of jurisdiction in the disput- in the jurisdiction of N. Brunswick, as he had received the Provincial bounty for corn raised upon nent geographer of the last century, says that it irritation might be migitated which was likely to without expressing his earnest wish that the refer- genally known with regard to this magnificent city. ence to arbitration may relieve the Secretary of Its situation is the most delightful in the world. The undersigned is at a loss to understand the State and the undersigned from any further discus- With a harbour affording room for a thousand ships

The undersigned avails himself of this occasion

CHAS. R. VAUGHAN. Washington, March, 25, 1823.

United States.

STATISTICS OF TURKEY.

ward, and not far from the right bank of the river St. week, in the Emperor's Palace, on Sundays and The Seraglio.—This words signifies "a pa-Thursdays. The Grand Vizier is the presiding lace." It is a collection of palaces, a mile and a The undersigned agrees with Mr. Clay in wish- officer; the six Viziers of the bench, the Te-terdar half in compass, closed by a strong wall, on which jurisdiction appears to the undersigned inadmissible, moned—the Clergy, the Military and other officers, and even the old and most experienced soldiers,

Begler-Beg is a Viceroy, with treaty, possession and actual jurisdiction remains wealth in the Public Treasury, which has been it may therefore be regarded as a most fortunate accumulating under forty Sultans, from a statement event, that, at a moment when there exists in these It is true, that, in 1820, there was an attempt to of Prince Cantimir. He says that, in his time, important dependencies of the British Empire so

The Horse-Tails. Three horse tails, surmout-Ottomans. Its origin was as follows :- One of their Generals was at a loss how to rally his men, their standards having been lost in a fierce conflict. He As it is the intention of the undersigned to sub- have been made of the offence to the Government spear. His troops renewed the fight and came of conquerors.

The Sublime Porte. Constantinople is styled "The Sublime Porte; the Porte of justice, majesty and felicity." There have been various disputes about the origin of this appellation. Payne, an emiis derived from the magnificent gate built by The undersigned regrets that he should have MAHOMET II. at the principal entrance of the Ser-

CONSTANTINOPLE. It is wonderful how little is of the wealth of Asia is through the Bospherus; and with Marmora on its south and west, the productions of Arabia, Egypt and Europe, are at the command of its commerce. In the hands of a commercial nation it would soon become the centre of the commercial world. It is encompassed by walls, which have twenty-two gates-six towards the land, six along the port, and ten on the Marmora; there have stairs and landing places.

Constantinople, like Rome, is an "urbs septicollis." Its seven hills rise from the shore in the form of an amphitheatre; gardens, cypress groves, pala-The appellation of "Turk," was first adopted in |ces and mosques, rise one above the other, and precannon, level with the water, and guarding the en-

crowded with glided turrets and spires, and shining

ST. SOPHIA. - The Church of St. Sophia (Divine Wisdom) was built by Justinian, in the 6th century. The dome is 113 feet in diameter, resting on arches, supported by immense marble pillars, and the staircase and pavement are also marble.

The exchanges are splendid buildings, and the sold in them in large quantities. Add to those, the pital of the Ottoman Empire.

Paiscellaneous Articles

The New Colonial Minister. - We have reason to believe (and in saying this we do not merely echowhat has been stated in the Papers, but speak from the private sources which we have of knowing the fact,) George Murray to discharge the duties of the Copointed who knows the real condition of the colo-His name nists, and who, it is therefore but reasonable to as sume With fesse ment tinen whic then, Fore T

tholic

a ton

previ readi Cath sion testa is no licsw the w pries Laity the a Pries alone cour the t multi rece the ( land Irela fuses most whic Cath Week E more tion Wel Josit

but o

Sulta

dition assur that, day, Russ passa know ing a the d the F them that by the > of pr waite they very M like t migh territ ed, a sult. ken i

Powe

Four board pecte Passe Cour An

Persi

custo 15 a which Taur to its crysta teral, cruste spout murm chand Over the w diamo bedet