ORDER IN COUNCIL TO SUPPRESS GREEK PIRACIES.

At the Court of St. James's, the 16th day of November, 1827, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas, the depredations which have for some time been committed upon the commerce of his Majesty's subjects in the Mediterranean Seas by armed vessels, piratically cruising under the Greek flag, have of late greatly increased, and have been accompanied with acts of cruelty and barbarity, which have rendered the navigation of those seas highly perilous; and his Majesty has in vain applied for the prevention of these outrages to the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece, who, however willing, are unable effectually to repress such excesses, owing to the disturbed state of the country, and the disorder prevailing in several islands of the Great Archipelago; and his Majesty is thereby laid under the necessity of providing for the same.

To that end it has appeared to his Majesty that the most efficacious means by which the persons and lawful commerce of His Majesty's subjects in the Mediterranean seas can be adequately protected, until some Government shall be established in Greece competent to put a stop to all irregularities of the nature complained of, will be to prevent, so far as possible, any armed vessel, bearing the Greek flag, from putting to sea, such ships of war only excepted, as are belonging to or acting under the orders of the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece.

For this purpose, His Majesty is pleased to order and declare, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that instructions be issued forthwith to His Majesty's naval forces in the Mediterranean, authorising and directing them to seize and send into some port belonging to (or being under the power and protection of) His Majesty, every armed vessel which they shall meet with at sea under the Greek flag, or fitting out and armed at any Greek port, such ships of war only excepted as are belonging to, or acting under the orders of the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece; and that they shall duly provide, that all such vessels with their crews, shall be safely detained in the ports to which they may be sent, until His Majesty's further pleasure respecting them shall be made known.

And with a view to prevent, as much as possible, any hardships or inconveniences that may arise in the execution of this Order, as it may affect any Greek cruiser which, being at sea at the time when this order will take effect in the Mediterranean, may not receive immediate notification thereof, it is further ordered that the Commanders of his Majesty's ships, who may be charged with the execution of this Order, shall, in the event of their meeting with any armed vessels at sea, bearing the Greek flag, that may be liable to the operation of this Order, between the day upon which the Order shall be notified to the persons exercising the authorities of Government in Greece, and 15 days from the date thereof, furnish them with certified copies of this Order, and warn them to proceed forthwith to their respective ports; and that such armed vessels shall not be detained until the expiration of the said fifteen days, unless it shall appear that after such notification of the Order and warning they shall not have complied therewith, or shall have been guilty of plundering or searching any trading vessel under the British flag.

And the Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appear.

C. C. GREVILLE.
