that the legal right of appropriating the revenues dies, that the majority of their members should not pose of these lands. A corporation has been formed arising from the Act of 1774, is vested in the Crown, consist of persons holding offices at the pleasure of within the Province, consisting of the Ciergy of the they are prepared to say that the real interests of the Crown, and they are of opinion, that any other Church of England, who have been empowered to the Provinces would be best promoted by placing measures that may tend to connect more intimately grant leases of those lands for a term not exceeding the receipt and expenditure of the whole public re- this branch of the Constitution with the interest of 21 years. It appears that, in the lower Province onvenue under the superintendance and controul of the colonies would be attended with the greatest ly, the total quantity of Clergy Reserves, is 488,594 the House of Assembly.

commending such a concession on the part of the on particular occasions, might be necessary, your acres, 8 bushels of wheat or 25s. per annum shall be Crown, are strongly impressed with the advantage of Committee entertain no doubt that they had better paid for the first 7 years, 16 bushels, or 50s. per anrendering the Governor, the Members of the Execu- not be involved in the political business of the House. num, shall be paid for the next 7 years, and 24 tive Council, and the Judges, independent of the Upon similar points it appears to your Committee bushels, or 75s. per annum, for the last 7 years.

respective salaries.

ol-

he

he

Sir

ac-

on,

ere

its.

ce,

lhe

led

ind

all

len

ect

re-

e a

er-

es,

ble

en-

Da-

ver.

ım-

and

cial

the

und

uir-

and

are

e a-

evy

un-

e to

s of

ned

na-

vil-

ada,

our-

ned

lave

ates

lthe

ria-

a of

sion

airs

arly

the

are-

nue

ined

bled

een

ites.

ence

or a

hese-

have

their

ean-

look

-to

and

pow-

fthe

offi-

tions in principle, which may be fairly raised principle, which, in their judgment, should be ap-annum. The great difference between the nominal against the practice of voting permanent salaries to plied to any alterations in the constitution of the and the net receipt is to be accounted for by the Judges who are removable, at the pleasure of the Canadas, which was imparted to them under the great difficulty of collecting rents, and by tenants Crown; but being convinced that it would be inex- formal act of the British Legislature of 1791. absconding. We are informed also, that the resident pedient that the Crown should be deprived of that That principle is to limit the alterations which it Clergy act as local agents, in collecting the rents; power of removal, and having well considered the may be desirable to make by any future British act, that a sum of 1751. had been deducted for the expublic inconvenience which might result from their as far as possible, to such points as from the relation penses of management; and that, at the date of the being left in dependence upon an annual vote of the between the Mother Country and the Canadas, can last communication on this subject, 2501. remained Assembly, they have decided to make the recom- only be disposed of by the paramount authority of in the hands of the Receiver-General-being the mendation, in their instruce, of a permanent vote of the British Legislature, and they are of opinion, gross produce of the whole revenue of an estate of Salary.

grant of permanent salaries has been recommended amicable communication with the local government. tate by sale. The Canada Company established by to a much greater number of persons connected with Upon the great question of the two the 6, Geo. IV. cap. 75, agreed to purchase a large the Executive Government, than they have includ- Canadas, your Committee have received much evi- portion of these reserves at a price to be fixed by ed in their recommendation, they have no hesita- dence, to which they desire to call the attention of ry to include so large a number, and if the officers feeling that appears to prevail in these Colonies on pressed on the part of the Church to dispose of the above enumerated, are placed on the footing re- this momentous subject, your Committee are not Lands. commended, they are of opinion that all the reven- prepared under present circumstances to recommend ues of the Province, (except territorial and heredi- that measure. and direction of the Legislative Assembly.

on this branch of their enquiry without calling the fected between the two Canadas with regard to the year. attention of the House to the important circum- imposition and distribution of the customs collected stance, that in the progress of these disputes the in the St. Lawrence. They trust, however, when reservation of these Lands in Mortmain is a serious Local Government has thought it necessary through the heats which so unfortunately exist shall have obstacle to the improvement of the Colony, they a long series of years, to have recourse to a mea- subsided, that such an arrangement may be amica- think every proper exertion should be made to place sure, (which nothing but the most extreme necessity bly effected. could justify,) of annually appropriating, by its own | It now remains for us to lay before the House the them the duties of settlement, and bring them geneauthority, large sums of the money of the Province, result of our enquiries into the Clergy Reserves, rally into cultivation. amounting to no less a sum than 140,000l., without which appear, by the statements of the petitioners the consent of the representatives of the people un- from Upper Canada, to be the cause of much anvieder whose control the appropriation of these monies ty and dissatisfaction in that Province. is placed by the Constitution.

been made to Parliament on the subject.

by the House of Assembly-no acquittal could be granted. traced from the Treasury of a later date than 1814 The instructions thus given have been strictly car- ry for the religious wants of the community in those -though some balances were stated up to 1819, and ried into effect, and the result is, that the separate Provinces, by other means than by a reservation of it appeared by documents then produced that the portions of land which have been thus reserved, are one-seventh of the Land, according to the enactment fact of his deficiency was known for a considerable scattered over the whole of the districts already of the Act of 1791. They would also observe that time before he was suspended.

steps sould be taken by efficient securities, and by act that, as the other six parts of the land granted nefit of the Crown, and doubtless the time must arrive a regular audit of the accounts, to prevent the re- were improved and cultivated, the reserved part when these reserved Lands will have acquired a

Provinces.

Sheriffs, as it appears that within a few years two by all the information the Committee could obtain of national wealth. Your Committee are of opinion, instances of the insolvency, of these officers have on this subject, they entertain no doubt that these therefore, that it may be well for the Government to occurred while possessed, in virtue of their office, of reserved lands, as they are at present distributed consider whether these Lands cannot be permanlarge sums of money deposited in their hands.

longed to the Jesuits, your Committee lament that they do in detatched portions in each township, and be demanded,) to arise after the first 10 or 15 years they have not more full information, but it appears intervening between the occupations of actual set- of occupation. They are not prepared to do more to them to be desirable that the proceeds should be tlers who have no means of cutting roads through than offer this suggestion, which appears to them to applied to the purposes of general education.

the manner in which these assemblies have answer- to those settlers than the improvement of their al- posed of.

cers of the Crown, your Committee must conclude independant character should be given to those bo- sults of the attempts which have been made to disadvantage. With respect to the Judges, with the acres, of which 75,639 acres are granted on leases, On the other hand, your Committee, while re- exception only of the Chief Justice, whose presence, the terms of which are, that for every lot of 200 annual votes of the House of Assembly, for their that it is not desirable that judges should hold seats Under these circumstances, the nominal rent of the in the Executive Council.

that all other changes should, if possible, be carried 488,594 acres. Although your Committee are aware that the into effect by the local legislatures themselves, in

By the act of 1791, the Governor is directed to gret that there is no prospect as far as a present and Your Committee cannot but express their deep make, from and out of the lands of the crown with- succeeding generation is concerned, of their proregret that such a state of things should have been in such provinces, such allotment and appropriation duce being sufficient for that object in a country allowed to exist for so many years in a British Colo- of lands for the support and maintenance of a Pro- where wholly unimproved Land is granted in fee for ny, without any communication or reference having testant Clergy within the same, as may bear a due almost nothing to persons willing to settle on it-it proportion to the amount of such lands within the is hardly to be expected, that with the exception of Upon the several points referred to your Commit- same, as have at any time been granted by or under some favored allotments responsible tenants will be tee connected with the Office of Receiver-General, any authority of his Majesty. And it is further pro- found who will hold on lease, or that purchasers of the Sheriffs, and of the Jesuit's Estates, your vided, that such lands so allotted and appropriated of such Land will be found at more than a nominal Committee proceeded to examine evidence upon shall be, as nearly as the circumstance and nature price. each. The facts of the case as regards the Re- of the case will admit, of the like quality as the Your Committee, however, are happy to find that ceiver-General, Mr. Caldwell, are detailed in Mr. lands in respect of which the same are so allotted the principle of the progressive sale of these Lands Nelson's evidence.-Mr. Caldwell was a defaulter and appropriated, and shall be as nearly as the same has already been sanctioned by an Act of the Imperial in 1823 for 96,000l. of the public money of the may be estimated at the time of making such grant, Parliament. They cannot avoid recommending in Province.—Upon our examination of the accounts equal in value to the seventh part of the lands so the strongest manner the propriety of securing for the granted.

Your Committee strongly recommend that a more serve; this we think must be apparent from the re-tive, it appears that there are numerous claimants.

Clergy Reserves is 930l. per annum; the actual re-Your Committee are fully aware of the object Your Committee are desirous of recording the ceipt for the last three years has been only 50l. per

An attempt has been made to dispose of this Es-Commissioners, 3s. 6d. per acre was the price estion in expressing their opinion that it is unnecessa- the House. With reference to the state of public timated, and at this sum an unwillingness was ex-

The Government therefore have made arrangements with the Company, and an Act has since been tary revenues,) should be placed under the control. Your Committee, nevertheless, think it highly de- passed authorizing the sale of these lands to any sirable that some satisfactory arrangement, (and, if person desiring to purchase them, provided the Your Committee cannot close their observations possible, one of a permanent nature,) should be ef- quantity sold, does not exceed 100,000 acres each

> As your Committee entertain no doubt that the them in the hands of persons who will perform upon

That their value, whatever it may be, must be applied to the maintenance of a Protestant Clergy, there can be no doubt .- And your Committee re-

future any provision which may be deemed necessaequal objections exist to the reservation of that seventh Your Committee recommend for the future, that It was no doubt expected by the framers of this which in practice appears to be reserved for the becurrence of similar losses and inconveniences to the would produce a rent, and that out of the profits considerable value from the circumstance of their thus realized an ample fund might be established being surrounded by settled districts-but that value As connected with this branch of the enquiry, for the maintenance of a Protestant Clergy. These will have been acquired at the expense of the real your Committee recommend that precautions of the anticipations, however, have not as yet been, and interests of the Province, and will operate to retard the same nature should be adopted with regard to the do not appear to be soon, realized; judging, indeed, course of general improvement which is the source over the country, retard more than any other cir- ently alienated, subject to some fixed moderate re-With respect to the Estates which formerly be- cumstance the improvement of the Country, lying as served payment, (either in money or grain, as may the woods and morasses, which thus separate them be worthy of more careful investigation than it is in One of the most important subjects to which their from their neighbours ; the allotment of those por- their power to give to it : but in this or in some such enquiries have been directed, has been the state of tions of reserved wilderness has, in fact, done much mode, they are fully persuaded, the Lands thus rethe legislative councils in both the Canadas, and more to diminish the value of the six parts granted served, ought, without delay, to be permanently dis-

ed the purposes for which they were instituted. loments has done to encrease the value of the re- To a property at once so large and so unproduc-