RULES OF COMPETITION.

- I. The decision of the Judges appointed to award the Prizes, to be final.
 - II. The owner of any Animal for which a premium shall be claimed, must give information in writing to the Secretary, what breed the Animal is of, and where bred.
 - III. To entitle any claimant to the premium for the best, or the second best fat Ox, it is further required, that he not only exhibit a statement of the mode of fattening, but prove that the Animal has been kept within this Province for at least twelve months prior to the day of exhibition.
 - IV. Claimants for premiums for the best, and second best working Oxen, must prove that each pair has been worked together at least six months before the day of exhibition.
 - V. The quantity and quality of the Butter, for which premiums must be claimed, and the number of Cows from which the same shall have been made, together with the mode of feeding the Cows, to be proved by the Affidavit of the Claimant, confirmed by two respectable neighbours.
 - VI. Persons claiming premiums upon imported Animals, shall be obliged to keep the same within the Province.
 - VII. No Animal for which one premium shall have been awarded to any owner, shall be considered a subject for any further premium of the Society, except it be for qualities different from those for which the first premium was awarded. No premiums will be awarded to any person who shall not be a Member of the Central Society, or of some one of the County Agricultural Societies, in this Province.
- Any attempts to obtain premiums by unfair practices, will be punished by a forfeiture of the premium, should it be awarded before a discovery, and will also preclude the offender from competing for premiums in future. Premiums not demanded within six months after they are awarded, shall be considered as having been generously given in aid of the funds of the Society.

RICHARD SIMONDS, SECRETARY.

MANIFESTO OF THE EMPEROR OF THE RUSSIAS.

By the Grace of God We, Nicholas I, Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russias, &c.

The Treaty of Bucharest, concluded in the year 1812, with the Ottoman Porte, after having been for 16 years the subject of reiterated disputes, now no longer subsists, in spite of all our exertions to maintain it and to preserve it from all attacks. The Porte not satisfied with having destroyed the basis of that Treaty, now defies Russia, and prepares to wage against it a bellum ad internecionem; it summons its people in a mass to arm; accuses Russia of being its irreconcilable enemy; and tramples under foot the Convention of Akerman, and with that, all preceding Treaties. Lastly the Porte does not hesitate to declare that it accepted the conditions of this peace only as a mask to conceal its intentions and its preparations for a new war. Scarcely is this remarkable confession made, when the rights of the Russian flag are violated, the vessels which it covers detained, and the cargoes made a prey of a rapacious and arbitrary Government.—Our subjects found themselves compelled to break their oath, or to leave without delay a hostile country. The Bosphorus is closed—our trade annihilated. Our Southern provinces deprived of the only channel for the exportation of their produce, are threatened with incalculable injury. Nay, more: at the moment when the negotiations between Russia and Persia are nearly concluded, a sudden change on the part of the Persian Government checks the course of them. It soon appears that the Ottoman Porte exerts itself to make Persia waver, by promising powerful aid, arming in haste the troops in the adjoining provinces, and preparing to support by a threatening attack, this treacherous hostile language. This is the series of injuries of which Turkey has been guilty, from the conclusion of the treaty of Akerman, up to this day; and this is, unhappily, the fruit of the sacrifices and the generous exertions by which Russia has incessantly endeavoured
