upon his own data, apply to Ireland; it runs thus: in former wars, to offer terms of peace to his adver- should be cancelled. That surplus may be employ-(stat. 41, Geo. III. c. 52, s. 2.) "And be it further sary. enacted, that from and after the passing of this act, The evacuation of the Morea is expected to take debt. The Report concludes thus :all persons disabled from, or incapable of, being place immediately, if it has not already occurred. elected, or sitting and voting in the House of Com- The Turks have published a declaration in ans- view of the important subjects to which, in this mons of any Parliament of Ireland, shall be dis- wer to the Russian Manifesto. It consists chiefly Report, they have drawn the attention of the House, abled from, and be incapable of, being elected, or sit- of a denial of the accusations brought by Russia have only to add, that while they are deeply impressting and voting in the House of Commons of any Par- against the Porte, which are notified in their order, ed with the conviction, that in the present state of liament of the United Kingdom, as knights, citizens, and a special answer given to each. The declara- the Public Finances, a severe economy in every or burgesses, for any county, city, borough, town tion concludes with throwing the responsibility on branch of the National Expenditure is imposed as or place in that part of the United Kingdom called Russia, of an event which, it is added, may shake a sacred duty upon the Government and upon Par-Ireland."-This statute evidently creates what Mr. the tranquility of the whole world. O'Connell argues was omitted in the 4th article of Mr. Stratford Canning is anxiously expected at est confidence in the resources of the country, to ful-Parliament of Ireland, and Mr. O'Connell admits that not, have arrived, to concert proper measures to be all Roman Catholics were in that situation. It cer- adopted under the present circumstances. tainly enacts no penalty, and points out no precise method of execution; but it is too definite to allow Two more Bulletins (the 6th and 7th) of the ope- The brig Catherine and Hannah, of and from the stage of the House of Commons of the United since our last. They detail the continued, although bour on Thursday night, and we have been put in Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. LINCOLN'S INN, July 10.

SEAT OF WAR.

news from Europe, and before which there was an by land and sea. miles N. W. from Constantinople.

stantinople.

ent

en-

man

ı is.

ited

law.

I. c.

s. i.

nem-

st its

opish

r as,

ecute

ilita-

arlia-

d for-

nion;

nt for

nave a

which

is sin-

ect to

e first

admits

Parlia-

Danube, and of the important post of Kustendji on desperate. the Black Sea, by means of which their rear on the right and left flanks will be rendered seeure; for cessful, must arouse the Sultan to a true sense of are also of opinion, that all funded debt redeemed be ground as they are wanted; and the flour, which the Union-a disability; it disables all persons who Corfu, where Admirals de Rigny and Codrington, fil all its engagements, and to maintain, unimpaired, were excluded from the House of Commons of any the Lord High Commissioner, and Count Guillemi- its high station in the world."

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

force estimated at 30,000 strong, had sent orders of the Sinking Fund by nearly seven millions. The being washed to leeward against them. It is to be to the troops forming the garrison at Kustendji to four great branches of the Revenue, viz. Customs, hoped that Captain Kean remained on board the defend themselves to the last extremety; but the Excise, Assessed Taxes, and Stamps, are also stat-schr. and lives to give a more detailed account, and order was intercepted by the vigilance of the Cos- ed for the last five years, and the gross pro- that we shall hear of the safety of those on board sucks, and the place carried almost without loss, duce mentioned, as if no change of duties had been the Superb. The Emperor Nicholas is at Karassou, where, it is made. From this produce the amount of duties said, he will remain till the movements of concen-repealed during the time is deducted, and compartration are completed. These are evidently prepa- ing the total amount of the Revenue after this deratory to a combined attacked, which will probably duction with the actual produce, it appears that the Potatoes.—Mr. Parmentier's Improved method of decide the fate of the campaign. It is now surmistincrease on each year by increased consumption, preserving Potatoes.—To preserve a quantity of ed that the Russians will not attempt to force the has been progressive, that of 1827 exceeding the these roots sufficient to last till the next crop, it is more difficult passes of the Balkam, but, altering progress of 1824 by above two millions and a half. necessary they should first be partly thressed; and their line of march, will turn towards the coast, to The Committee enter largely into a view of the after they have been peeled, sliced and dried in a be nearer their supplies; whence, masking or cap- Public Debt and Sinking Fund, and propose that stove or oven, they acquire the transparency, hardturing the towns of Bazargik and Varna, they will the sum of three millions be annually applied to the ness, and dryness of horn; they break clean and the cross the Balkam at its eastern and more practica- Sinking Fund, but that of the eventual annual sur- fracture has a glassy appearance. Some in this ble extremity, and descend at once into the plain plus should not amount to three millions, the defi-state have been sent to the East Indies. When of Adrianople. This bold plan of operations, if suc-sciency ought not to be supplied by borrowing. They these Potatoes, thus prepared, are dried, they may

ment; and this law being after the Union, must, his danger, and will in all probability lead him, as by the application of the real surplus of revenue ed in the extinction of unfunded as well as of funded

> "The Committee having thus submitted their liament, they derive from their inquires the strong-

> > HORRIBLE SPECTACLE.

Melancholy and distressing Shipwreck. of Mr. O'Connell's even strutting his hour upon rations of the Russian army, have been received Sunderland, Captain Lumsden, arrived in our harnot very rapid, advance of the Emperor's troops, and possession of the following distressing particulars, the taking of two fortresses-Anapa, on the Black which tend to recall, in their narration, the horrible Sea, and Tuleza, on the south side of the Danube, tragedy which had so recently taken place. The opposite to Ismeal. The former sustained a seige Captain states that on the 4th May, in lat. 45, 11, The average distance from Constantinople of of 40 days, and made a vigorous defence; but its N. 56, 0 W. at one r. m. he picked up a boat bethe principal points of operation on the Danube, is surrender became inevitable, owing to the destruc-longing to the Superb, of and from Bristol for Quefrom three hundred to three hundred and fifty miles tion of the Turkish flotilla, and the superiority of bec, which ran foul of an Iceberg, on the 21st of in a north-west, north north west, and northerly di- the Russian fleet in the Black Sea-one conse- April, which stove her forward. This unfortunate rection. The Danube is so considerable a stream quence of the "untoward event" at Navarin. occurrence obliged all hands to take to the pumps, that ships of war might engage on it in some parts The Emperor extending his right and lest wings, at which they continued without intermission for of its course. Its length is not less than 1800 miles, has taken Mangalia on the coast (on the left of his two days and a night, when a schr. hove in sight, and it becomes navigable as high up as Ulm in position,) which gives him another port for the re- and the Captain proceeded in the jolly boat, to treat Wirtemburg; and as it rises in the Alps, and has ceiving supplies by sea, and Kouzgoud on his right, with them to take the crew. While the Captain its course in about the latitude of 45 deg. it would which clears his right wing. His varguard, as will was so engaged, the vessel being quite in a sinking necessarily be high at the season of the commence- be seen by a reference to the Map, has left Tarjan's state, the crew left the pumps to get the boat out ment of hostilities. This river running through Wall in its rear, and is in full march for Bazargik. to leave her. They succeeded in getting a boat, Wirtemburg, Bavaria, Austria, and Hungary, and Thither the Turkish troops had been sent from Si- (the one subsequently picked up) and seven men many of the great towns of the Austrian empire and listria and Choumla; and there the first grand bat- got into her, on which they unhooked the tackle, Vienna itself, being seated on its banks; its import- tle with the Russian army was expected. slipped the ship, but could not regain her, and it ance to that power must necessarily be great. The Two additional bulletins have since been receiv- coming on thick, they could not find the schr. and course of the Russian army, passing southwardly, ed. The 8th details some particulars relative to the unfortunate men were left to the mercy of an all near the coast of the Black Sea, would take it thro' the seige of Brailow, in which the loss of the Rus- wise God-without provisions, water, masts, sails, the country to which the poet Ovid was exiled by sians is stated at 3,000 men. The ninth bulletin, or any thing that would enable them to struggle for Augustus, and where he died. The poet consider- dated on the 5th, informs us, that on the next day, existence, save and except two oars! In this state. ed that a most inhospitable part of the world, which the head-quarters of the Russian main army were they were buffeted about eleven days, not knowing is now reckoned one of its finest in point of natural to be moved, and to proceed by forced marches in what direction they were moving, and with feeladvantages. In point of the barbarism of its inha- towards Bazargik, on account of the scarcity of ings it is totally impossible to describe—when they bitants, there is a little change. Adrianople, where water. The main army consists of fifty-four batta- were fallen in with by the Catherine and Hannah, Turks are wont to assemble their forces, is a city lions, forty-eight squadrons, six regiments of Cos- and the scene that presented itself was sufficient to with a population of 120,000: Anapa, or Annapi, the sacks, with two hundred and fifty pieces of cannon. appal the stoutest heart—as it had already struck bombardment of which was announced in the late Ample supplies of provisions arrive regularly both the crew with horror! Of the seven men only two were alive. Two of them died about twenty-four. engagement between the Russian and Turkish flo- What force the Turks have to meet this Northern hours after leaving the ship, from their previous tillas, is a town of Circassia, on the north-eastern horde, we know not; but the Sultan seems at sufferings, and on their bodies the others subsisted and Asiatic side of the Black Sea, distant 5 or 600 length roused to a sense of the danger that mena- for some time. Three others were also dead in the ces his throne. The standard of the Prophet has boat whose blood afforded drink, and their bodies The impression has been that the Russians, in- been unfurled; and a firman issued, calling to arms sustenance to the wretched men who lived to narstead of laying seige to the Turkish fortresses, all true Mussulmen, from the ages of 16 to 60. rate the heart rending tale-in a word, they were would leave them in the rear, and push on to Con- The van of this enormous levy, 100,000 strong, has endeavouring to prolong a wretched existence by already left Constantinople; and the Turkish fleet eating and drinking each other's blood !!! and to Another bulletin of the Russian army, dated from is about to sail, in order to endeavour to regain the add to their misery they had all been dreadfully the camp at Karassou, June 24th, has been receiv- mastery of the Black Sea. The grand struggle is frost bitten before death had terminated their suffered, and communicates intelligence of fresh succes- therefore approaching; and from the organization ings. Captain Lumsden instantly took the living ses. Since the capture of Brailow and Matschin, and discipline of the one party, and enthusiastic men on board, but one of them only survived about this army had made itself master of Hirsova on the bravery of the other, it cannot be otherwise than twenty-four hours. The other survivor is so much frost-bitten, that it is thought his legs must be amputated, and from all he has suffered his recovery is considered doubtful. It seems that his being whilst the possession of Hirsova will facilitate the The fourth report of the Finance Committee has able to sustain himself longer than his companions movements of concentration presently in progress, been printed, and occupies 133 folio pages. In in misery, was owing to tobacco. He states that the occupation of Kustendji will enable the Russians stating the surplus income for the last five years, the mate, second mate, and eight of the crew were to receive, without the least obstruction, supplies and comparing it with the sums applied toward the left on board the Superb, and when they parted of ammunition and provisions from Odess i. Hus- reduction of the national debt for the same period, her the carpenter was engaged in cutting away the seim Pacha, who was at Schumla at the head of a it appears that the surplus income has fallen short stanchions to get the long boat over the side—it

Domestic.