father had resolved to send her to Paris, where she the various causes which have determined the pre-the superiority of Russia, which saw herself bound hoped to see the only man she ever loved, and marry sent course of Russia, and the conditions upon which solely by the wish of preserving the general peace. him. The credulous fool still believed that all was she will lay down her arms. The following are its and to try her patience to the utmost. real, and asked his friend, the Captain, to accompa- principal points :ny him ; but the latter spoke of the expense ; and said, that upon such an occasion they ought to have at their command at least 1,000l. Meredith had al- a neighbouring nation have proved vain. Sixteen antee, no positive obligation, incorporated the fate ready overdrawn at his bankers; but, at the sug- years have passed since the peace of Bucharest, of the Ottoman empire, with the conciliatory stipugestion of his friend, he accepted bills to that a- and for the same period we have seen the Porte lations of 1814 and 1815, under the protection of mount, and handed to the Captain, who proposed to act contrary to the stipulations of the treaty, evade which civilized and Christian Europe reposed after go at once to France, and said that the money its promises or indefinitely delay the fulfil- its long dissention, and the Governments found should follow them; as his friends, who discounted ment of them. But too many proofs, which the Im- themselvs united by the recollections of common them, had promised to forward the amount to Paris. perial Cabinet will adduce, irrefragably prove this glory, and a happy coincidence in principles and The advice was adopted, but no girl was to be found, infatuated hostile tendency of the policy of the Di- views. After five years well meant endeavours. and no money was forthcoming. The Captain then van. On more than one occasion, particularly in supported by the Representatives of Russia, and said he would return to ascertain the cause of the 1821, the Porte assumed, with respect to Russia, a equally long evasions and delays on the part of the delay, but Meredith was not long by himself when character of defiance and open hostility. For these Porte—after several points of the negotiation relahe learned that his disinterested friend had got the three months past, it has again assumed this cha-tive to the execution of the treaty of Bucharest bills cashed and determined to keep the produce for racter, by formal acts and measures which are seemed to be already settled-A general insurrecthe trouble he had been at in aiding the acceptor in his known to all Europe. project of a noble connection. At the same moment "On the same day that the Ambassadors of the chief of a party, unfaithful to his duty, excited in for the information, that the Captain's letters and of breaking it. than 1,700l.

LONDON, MAY 13.

RUSSIA.

DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST TURKEY.

received, and the future course of the Emperor Nicholas remains no longer a subject for political speand taken those steps for a summary vengeance, which was to oblige us to make new efforts. which the blind infatuation of Turkey has for so Pruth, the Rubicon of their territories, was passed, engagements. An amnesty was promised to the Turkey, according to the rights and the interests of will now be claimed from the minarets of their capi- Servians; instead of that an invasion took place, his Empire. tal. Accounts from Bucharest, to the end of April, and a dreadful massacre. The privileges of Mol- "A new Reign began, and furnished a farther confirm this opinion, for they state that the occupation davia and Wallachia were guaranteed, but a system proof of that love of peace which the former Goof the Principalities has ceased to be the object of of plunder completed the ruin of those unhappy, pro- verament had left as a fair inheritance. Scarcely the Russians—that they were to march to Constan- vinces. The incursion of the tribes which inhabit had the Emperor Nicholas ascended to the Throne, tinople, and that whilst they crossed the Danube at the left bank of Kuban were to be prevented by the when he commenced negotiations with the Porte, Galatz and Ishmael, their fleet would land 10,000 care of the Porte; but Turkey, not contented with to settle various differences which concerned only men at Burgas. The campaign, it is added, will be raising pretentions to several fortresses absolutely Russia; and on the 23d of March and 4th April, soon terminated, for the means of defence were very necessary for the security of our Asiatic possessions, [1323], laid down, in common with His Majesty the insignificant, and that the most important events the weakness of which it had itself recognized by King of Great Britain, the basis of a mediation which were at hand. The declaration of war is a docu-the Convention of Akermann, made them still weak- the general good peremptorily called for. ment of great moment at the present period. It is er by favouring, on the coast of the Black Sea, and preceeded by a manifesto, in which the Emperor even in our vicinity, the Slave Trade, pillage, and mann were opened. The result of them was, the complains of the violation of the treaty of Bucharest disorders of all kinds. of the law of nations.

DECLARATION.

in 1812, and of the subsequent treaty of Ackerman " Nay more: then, as now, ships bearing the ty of Bucharest, the terms of which bear the stamp -of the illegal siezure of Russian vessels and their Russian flag were detained in the Bosphorus, their of that deliberate moderation, which, subjecting cargoes—of the closing of the passage of the Bos- cargoes sequestrated, and the stipulations of the every demand to the immediate principles of strict phorus to the great injury of the Russian commerce commercial treaty of 1783 openly violated. This justice calculates neither the advantages of situation to the Black Sea-of the intrigues of the Porte with took place at the very moment when the purest glo-nor the superiority of strength, nor the fac-Persia to prevent her coming to an amicable ac- ry and victory in a sacred cause crowned the arms lility of success. The sending of a permanent miscommodation, and of the want of faith in the con- of His Majesty the Emperor Alexander, of immor- sion to Constantinople soon followed this concesduct of the Divan for the last 16 years. All these tal memory. Nothing hindered him from turning sion on which the Porte could not sufficiently congrievances loudly demand redress, Russia has inces- his arms against the Ottoman Empire. But that gratulate itself, and the Treaty of the 6th July, 1827, santly endeavoured to maintain peace, but patience Monarch, a pacific conqueror, superior to every soon confirmed in the face of the world, the disinterhas its limits, and the honour of the Russian name, feeling of enmity, avoided even the justest occasion ested principles proclaimed by the Protocol of 4th the dignity of the empire, the inviolability of its to punish the insults offered him, and would not a April. rights, and the national glory, have marked out its gain interrupt the peace restored to Europe by gen- "Confidential overtures, which unfolded to it all bounds to the Emperor. He therefore orders his erous exertions, and with noble intentions, immedi- the plans of the three Courts, informed it, at the army to advance under the divine protection against ately after it had been consolidated. For five years time, that in case of refusal the united fleets of an enemy, who violates the most sacred obligations together the Divan was unmoved by the conciliatory these three Courts would be obliged to put an end evertures of the Emperor Alexander, and endea- to a contest which was no longer compatible The declaration enters into a more extensive view voured to try out his patience—to dispute his rights with the security of the seas, the necessities of

"And yet a war with Turkey would not in any way have embarrassed the relations of Russia with "The wishes of Russia to remain at peace with her other Allies. No convention containing a guartion in the Morea, and the hostile invasion of the that he received this disheartening intelligence, a three Powers, who, by a Convention free from all the Turkish government and nation all the emotions letter arrived from the lady, dated London, and re-self interestedness, are united in a cause which is of a blind hatred against the Christians in it, withcalling her lover from France. At length he sus- no other than that of religion and of suffering hu- out distinction between the guilty and the innocent, pected that he was tricked, and upon his return to manity, expressed, at their departure from Constan-Russia did not hesitate a moment to testify its dis-England he dispatched a friend to the Nobleman, tinople, an ardent wish that peace might be preserv- approbation of the enterprise of Prince Ypsilanti. with the whole of the correspondence, which was at ed, it summoned all nations professing the Mahome- at the same time insisting on the necessity of not once declared to be nothing but a hoax, by His tan Faith, to arm against Russia, denouncing her confounding the innocent part of the population with Lordship; who said that his daughters had been in as the implacable enemy of Islamism, accusing her the seditions, who were to be disarmed and punish-Hampshire all the time Mr. Meredith was wandering of a design to overthrow the Ottoman Empire; and ed. These counsels were rejected, the representaabout on his Quixotic expedition. So blind was the while it announces its resolution to negotiate for the tive of His Imperial Majesty was insulted in his unfortunate Meredith, and so completely imposed sole purpose of gaining time for arming, but never own residence, the chief Greek Clergy, with the upon by the Captain, that although the latter scarce- intending to fulfil the essential articles of the treaty Patriarch at their head, were subjected to an infaly took the trouble to disguise his hand-writing, of Akermann, it declares, at the same time, that it mous capital punishment, amidst the solemnities of Meredith was indebted to the Post-Office Inspector concluded that treaty with no other design than that our holy religion. All the Christians, without any distinction, were seized, plundered, and massacred the love-letters were all in the writing of the same "Scarcely had the Sultan spoken with the vas- without trial; the remainder fled. The flame of person. The next step the poor dupe took was, af- sals of his Crown, when the privileges of the Rus- insurrection, far from abating, spread meantime on ter his acceptances; but his worthy friend had ob-sian flag were already violated, the ships covered every side. In vain did the Russian Ambassador tained their value, and Meredith was compelled to by it detained, their cargoes sequestrated, the Com- endeavour to render the Porte a last service. In take them up. The robbery thus effected upon the manders of the ships obliged to dispose of them at vain did he show, by his note of 6th of July 1827, a wretched subject of this article, within four months, prices arbitrarily fixed, the amount of an incomplete way to safety and reconciliation. After he had proby the Captain and his servant, who was no other and tardy payment reduced to one half, and the tested against the crimes and ebullitions of rage, than the Captain's half-brother, amounted to no less subjects of His Majesty the Emperor compelled unparalleled in history, he found himself obliged to either to descend into the class of Rayas, or to obey the commands of His Sovereign, and to leave leave in a body the dominions of the Ottoman Go- Constantinople. The situation of the Divan, notvernment. General Paskewitch, after the conclu- withstanding the exemplary fidelity of the Servians, sion of a glorious campaign, was negotiating a trea- became from day to day more hostile towards them: ty of peace with Persia, the conditions of which and the occupation of Moldavia and Wallachia was were already accepted by the Court of Teheran protracted, notwithstanding the solemn promises On a sudden, lukewarmness succeeded to the eager-made to the representatives of Great-Britain, and At length conjecture has ceased to confuse, and ness which had hitherto been shown for the conclu-even netwithstanding the manifest willingness of rumour to baffle. Authentic intelligence has been sion of a convention which was already approved by Russia, as soon as those promises were given, to reboth parties in all its particulars. These delays store its former relations with the Porte. So many were followed by difficulties, authentic information hostile measures could not fail in the end to exhaust culation. Russia has, at last, assumed that attitude revealed the secret of the promise of a diversion the patience of the Emperor Alexander. In the month of October, 1825, he caused an energetic "Scarcely was the peace of 1812 signed, when protest to be presented to the Ottoman Ministry; many months left the world to expect. The sword the Porte thought that the difficult but eventful cir- and when a premature death snatched him away is not only now drawn, but the scabbard is flung cumstances in which Russia then was, might he from the love of his people, he had just made the away, and the justice which was denied before the used with impunity to redouble the violation of its declaration that he would regulate the relations with

"Under such auspices the conferences of Akerconclusion of an additional convention to the Trea-of the conduct of the Porte, and at great length cites to call in question his good intentions—to defy commerce, and the civilization of the rest of Europe

By fore or eircum of the affords matter exciter be sup

In o teresti

elud

had the !

suli

batti

to e gene

to e

shou

white

nefi

decl

afier

noth

Caus

Bro

maki

susta

takir

cons

obse

sity

merc

it wi

geou

birio

her la

of he

sons.

July

tions

Russ

decid

sensit

to ac

of L

recon

do bo

uation

6th J

obtair

expec

tice,

Imperi Cathol dett's in a Co The Season varying mirka af erno threate y succ est Inh before on the y impe