THE ROYAL GAZETTE.

Asia, and America.

ket.

What we have stated as to Indigo is an answer to the objected inferiority of Indian cotton. Indian cotton may be carried to the same degree of perfecit must always remain, like the Indigo above de- box, they then gave the verdict of "Not Guilty, scribed, in its coarse, rude, and imperfect condition. having committed the act when labouring under ago.

n

18

:8

10

13:

18

g-

ıg

1g

13

he li-

ch

ma

ill

an

ed

vi-

de

of

-00

of

ci-

er-

ind.

ly,

ler

of

Ird.

ind

ral

ming

ind.

soil

the

ing

the

hat

the

the

in

tu-

rith.

ex-

mo

WO

nat

fit,

of

ita-

in-

vas.

hat

and

pa-

not

this

one

been received and used by tour-fifths of Europe, body fell near the front doors on the floor of the rescue, and a shudder ran over the whole body of barn. A vast quantity of blood issued from the spectators.

Meanwhile the Indians look on but do not follow wound, and ran on to the floor and through the cre- We heard not a shrick, but many of the ladies us. They are stationary, and bigotted to their old vices. Having determined to bury the body in the were in tears of silent agony. It was hardly supmethods, and cannot even imitate us to any advan- barn, (about two hours after she was dead,) I went posed possible that his physical powers could longtage, with so many examples before them. The and borrowed the spade of Mrs. Stowe ; but before er sustain him. Still he held on, sometimes ap-European process is daily haunting them, but they I went there I dragged the body from the barn into parently by his feet, and sometimes by one hand, neglect it for the old native mode of proce ding, the chaff house, and locked up the barn. I return- grasping at any and every thing with the other. At which is coarse, slovenly, and unproductive, -- yield- ed again to the barn and began to dig the hole, but length he caught the rope, and by a powerful effort, ing an article which, when even re-manufactured the spade being a bad one, and the earth firm and and one of the most dextrous movements that we ever in Europe, is still a very inferior commodity. A hard, I was obliged to go home for a pick-axe and a beheld, he cleared himself from the car and the enproperty worth above two millions sterling per an- better spade, with which I dug the hole, and then tanglement of the cords, and was seen suspended num has thus been solely created by the skill, capi- buried the body. I think I dragged the body by by one hand. A burst of applause cheered him for tal, and enterprise of British born subjects living the hankerchief that was tied round her neck-it an instant, and until he caught the rope with his in India on sufferance. A new and valuable com- was dark when I finished covering up the body. I other hand, when he descended forty or fiftyfeet with modity has been supplied to our markets, which has went the next day and washed the blood from off the great velocity, and fell the remainder of the distance, become the means of an improved manufacture, and barn floor. I declare to Almighty God I had no but was caught by the people below. He was soon the source of new commercial wealth, -a commodi- sharp instrument about me, and that no other wound upon his feet, and appeared upon the terrace of the ty which, half a century ago, had no existence,- but the one made by the pistol was inflicted by me. Garden, where he was received by repeated and and which, before Europeans undertook its culture I have been guilty of great idleness, and at times hearty cheers. and manufacture, was unsaleable in a foreign mar- led a dissolute life, but I hope, through the mercy of After receiving the congratulations of his friends,

God, to be forgiven. "W. CORDER."

the intrepid aeronaut retired to a private apartment, where his hands, which had been blistered and somewhat excoriated by the cords and the rope in

At the Cork Assizes, on the 4th of August, Cap- his descent, were dressed. He also lost one of his tion as Indian Indigo. Let this article only meet tain William Stewart, of the Mary Russell, who it front teeth, by having seized a cord in his mouth, with a due encouragement, and be submitted to the may be remembered, killed seven persons on board as he threw himself from the car. He was no othercare, skill, and capital of European growers, and it of his brig, when on his homeward voyage, was wise injured, and we left him last evening in a cheerwill soon rival the cofton of the rest of the world. tried for the murder of one of the individuals, Cap- ful mood. During the whole of this fearful and try-It will not only compete with, but thurst out the tain Raynes. After a trial which lasted upwards of ing scene, his presence of mind did not forsake him produce of Carolina and Georgia. Its present in- eight hours, the Jury retired, and in an hour and a for an instant. The flag-staff never should have feriority is owing to two causes; the monopoly of half returned into Court with a verdict of "Guil- been placed without the walls, and we are told that Government, and the unassisted cultivation of the ty, but we consider him to have been in an insane Mr. R. requested its removal. It is computed that natives. So long as East Indian cotton is left to state of mind at the time." On their verdict being 2000 spectators were in the Garden, and 15,000 the rude and slovenly industry of the native inhabi- read, the Court would not receive it, and directed without. The balloon was taken down before dark, tants,-so long as no attempt is made to improve it, the Jury to rectify it. Without retiring from the but it is ruined.

Let British born subjects engage in the culture of cotton, in the same manner in which they engaged in the culture and manufacture of indigo, and we shall soon be independant of the raw produce of the United States.

The following anecdote is related of the late Adjutant-General Sir Henry Torrens :-- On the 2d THE BALLOON. of October, 1799, a severe action was fought near Alkmaar, in Holland, and some of our officers, PERILOUS ESCAPE OF MR. ROSERTSON. amongst whom was Sir Henry Torrens, imagining New-York, Sept. 19. racter of Mr. Hamilton Merritt .- Albion, Sept. 27. that they had purchased security for a few days, rode A large concourse of people assembled yesterday into that town, for the purpose of viewing the place afternoon in the Castle Garden, to witness the asand enjoying the rarity of a good dinner. While THE SUBSCRIBERS cent of Mr. Robertson-and many thousands were this dinner was in preparation, Sir Henry Torrens ESPECTFULLY inform their friends and the of course upon the battery. The day was uncomsat down in the coffee-room to make some notes in I, public, that they have this day entered into Comonly beautiful, the wind blowing moderately from his Journal, but seeing Major Kempt, the Aide-de-'artne iship, under the Firm of the North. The process of inflating the balloon Camp to Sir Ralph Abererombie, ride hastily into BALLOCH & ENGLISH. was not completed until about 6 o'clock, when Mr. the town, he started from his unfinished task to ask The business of the said Co Partnership will be conducted R. entered the car, which was handsomely decorathe news. From Major Kempt he learned that the ted for the occasion. Ilis attendants having let go French had made an unexpected advance upon the the cords, the balloon rose gracefully to the height Messrs P. & E. where the Subscribers will keep on hand English troops, and that the division to which he of upwards of a hundred feet before the wind had was attached was under orders for immediate action. floated it beyond the circumference of the castle hey will dispose of upon the most reasonable terms for cash. Without waiting to return for his papers, and his walls. Mr. Robertson stood erect in the car, flour-JAMES BALLOCH, pocket book, containing between 401. and 501. ishing the banners in his hands, and facing and bow-RICHARD ENGLISH. which he had left on the table, he mounted his horse ing to the spectators. Unfortunately the balloon N. B. - No Notes of Hand, given by either of the aand in a moment was at full speed. He arrived in had been let off directly to the windward of the flagnove Firm, exceeding Fifty Pounds, will be valid unless time to place himself at the head of his company, staff, with which it came violently in contract; in just before the commencement of that, action in they are sign d by J. B. & R. E., Individually. consequence of which the netting not only became which he was dreadfully wounded. A considerable Fredericion, August 5, 1828. entangled with the staff, but the car was turned neartime afterwards he revisited Alkmaar, and calling at ly upside down, Mr. Robertson, having his back the Inn he had so abruptly left, received his papers EMOVAL. The Subscriber respectfully informs his Friends to the flag-staff, had not time to prevent this colliand his purse, which had been with scrupulous honsion, which he might otherwise have done with esty preserved .- Globe, August 25. pole. He had expressed a wish beforehand that the GOODS and GROCERIES; Which he offers for sale for Cash staff might be taken down. CONFESSION of W. Corder, who was recently executed in Eng down, with his feet uppermost in the car, clinging hitherto afforded him. land for the Murder of Maria Marten. JAMES BALLOCH. by the frail netting which attached it to the balloon, Fredericton, 29th April, 1828 "Bury Gaol, Aug. 10, 1828 Condemned Cell, he remained suspended at the height of near a hun-Sunday evening half-past 11. dred feet from the ground, vibrating in every direc-TO BE SOLD "I acknowledge Leing guilty of the death of tion, while a general shudder ran through the crowd. Or to Lease for a term of years, poor Maria Marten, by shooting her with a pistol. At this instant, a large rent was made in the balloon, The particulars are as follow :-- When we left her and he gradually descended about fitteen feet. The father's house we began quarrelling about the buri- spectators cried out to him, is functish, to take hold letiable Dwelling House and a large Barn. al of the child, she apprehended that the place of the halliard of the flag-staff. Though nearly wherein it was deposited would be found out. The black in the face, from his position, Mr. Robertson quarrel continued for about three quarters of an way perfectly collected. At this moment a man further particulars apply on the premises, to JOHN D. GAULT. hour upon this and about other subjects. A scufile, climbed the rope for his relief, amid the cheers of ensued, and during the scuffle, and at the time I think the spectators, but was unable to ascend nearer Fredericton, August 9, 1828. that she had hold of me, I took the pistol from the side than within some fifteen feet of Mr. R. when his RAGS! RAGS! RAGS! pocket of my velveteen jacket, and fired. She fell, strength failed, and he was obliged to descend. and died in an instant. I never saw even a struggle. The anxiety of the spectators was now increased to FOR CLEAN LINEN AND COTTOM CASH GIVEN I was overwhelmed with agitation and dismay-the intensity, and but little hope was entertained of his RAGS AT THIS OFFICE.

Bridewell, was then ordered to be discharged.

has been received to transmit this unfortunate inbe confined for life.-Limerick Chronicle. The second second Mitted States.

Mr Hamilton Merritt, of the Welland Canal, ar-The cotton grown in India is prepared and brought mental derangement." The boy Rickards, who had rived from Liverpool in the Napoleon, having fully to market, as it was 300, or perhaps 3,000 years assisted Capt. Stewart and who had been confined in and completely succeeded in the object of his mission. the obtaining of assistance from his Majesty's Government, to complete the great national work, CAPTAIN STEWART. -- We understand that an order of connecting Lakes Erie and Ontario. The Canal will in a few months be finally completed, and it dividual to the Lunatic Asylum in Dublin, there to would now be, injustice to withhold from Mr Merritt the praise justly due him for the constant and unwearied exertions he has made to bring the work to a fortunate conclusion. Much has been done, and great as have been the exertions of many patribtie gentlemen in Upper Canada, it must be conceded, that the Welland Canal owes its existence to the persevering exertions and the energy of chaat WOODSTOCK in the Store lately occupied by a constant supply of goods suitable to the Country, which

and the Public, that he has removed his Business from his late Store in Queen street to his new Stand at the team Boat Land. ing, where he has on hand a large and general assortment of DRY on the most reasonable terms; and hopes from his convenience to In this perilous situation, with his head hanging both Town and Country, still to receive that liberal patronage VALUABLE Farm in the Parish of Wzh field, en which are about 80 Acress cleared ; a com-POSSESSION will be given early next Spring ; for