Burope.

ed this forenoon, we have been furnished with Lon- summoned. - Adj. don dates to the 15th July .- The following Sum-MARY is all that we can find room for :- St. John Observer.

From the N. York Journal of Commerce, Aug. 25.

ture of Brailow, two other important fortresses had oaths. One of his first acts would be, to seek a re- pension was granted until his death, he received no tendji, on the Black Sea. By the possession of the Mr. Lawless says, that when O'Connel is elected March 29, 1825. Mr. Goulburn, 2,000l., dated former of these places, the Russians have secured for Clare, he will be up for Galway, and that Shiel May 7, 1825. Mr. Goulburn ceased to receive any the rear on their right and left flanks, whilst that of will also start for some popular county.—Dublin part of this pension, under his appointment to be the latter will enable them to receive, with the great- Morn. Post. est facility, supplies of provisions and stores from Devonport, July 12.—The Catholic Associa- dated July 15, 1825. Mr. Croker, 1,500l., dated tify his destruction of the Janissaries. He has their robes and with crucifixes in their hands, led ed July 28, 1827. Mr. Planta, 1,000l., dated Auof good neighbourhood towards Russia. He reca- would suppose that some unaccountable error had eminent London Merchant, after making a very cellor of the Exchequer in reply to a question from of the zealots and the passions of the mob. He will won by the King's Filly, Maria. Mr. Stewart, who asked whether Government in- present himself to the Irish as a martyr to their tended to take the subject of the American Tariff cause, and he will sit in the Association (or Mock died lately in France leaving a large fortune. He into consideration during the recess, with a view, if Parliament) wearing an additional dignity in his was descended from the Poet Congreve. possible, of applying some remedy, said, that his own eyes, and persuading his infatuated followers The Duke and Dutchess of Sr. Albans are se-bassador to Lisbon, has arrived with his suite. In to the people as their only true representatives, and Battle of Waterloo, the Lord High Admiral give a the same packet, the Magnet, came the Count in all probability, sit, vote, and legislate to the fur-splendid regatta on the Thames, to 400 of the no-Bombelles, the Austrian ambassador to Lisbon, and ther destruction of their unhappy country. Such a bility and gentry. The Duke of Wellington was his suite. The Russian and Danish ambassadors prospect is fearful to look on, but we have the great- received with cheers by the multitude, and was had left Lisbon before the Magnet sailed. The est confidence in the nerve and decision of the Duke rowed from the Lord High Admiral's Barge by six French, Prussian, and Dutch ambassadors were to of Wellington. We may be assured that he will not young Noblemen. take their departure immediately on board a French be frightened into impolitic and humilitating conces- Sir John Byng's appointment to the Chief comfrigate. The Swedish and Neapolitan ministers sions, extorted by all but absolute rebellion; but if mand in Ireland has been notified to the Vice Regal The regular Spanish minister had left Lisbon.

Very little business was done in domestic stock they will be adopted .- Telegraph. to day. Consols opened at 88, and closed at 881 to 1. The fluctuation in foreign stock was greater. Portuguese Bonds, which left on Saturday at 574, noble duke in his place who was at the head of his out for the purpose of defending it against the Maje ty's government, he would take that opportu- threatened invasion of Spain. nity of asking whether it was the intention of ministers to ask for any vote of credit, or to propose any at Cadiz, sailed from that port about the first for measures arising out of the foreign relations of this the Mediterranean, and passed Gibraltar previous shocking manner on one of the stakes of his cart country. He also wished to know whether it was to the 11th. They were embarked in transports There was only one person with him at the time who intended to afford any explanation as to relations be- which came from Toulon and Marseilles. The tween Russia and France, respecting the treaty for other two divisions were to sail in a short time for the pacification of Greece, and more particularly the Mediterranean. whether it was intended to afford any information Liverpool paper 3d July.—It was generally said this untimely fate.—Montreal Courant. as to the relations of this country with Portugal, that Parliament would be prorogued about the 22d The Duke of Wellington said his Majesty's govern- July, and it was expected that his Majesty would do ment had no intention of asking for any vote of cre- so in person. dit, nor did he intend to bring forward any motion The Duke of Wellington's horse fell, the 1st or 2d respecting our foreign relations. Lord Holland said, July, and the Duke's head came very near being he was not a little disappointed at the answer of crushed by a waggon which was passing. -This is he noble Duke, after which their Lordships, per- the second accident that has happened with him that while he was at the City of Lima, on the 300 aps, would not consider that they were taken too since he became Premier.

forward a motion on this subject. Considering the house have been called to the Privy Council. late period of the session he would propose Wed- Lord Stuart de Rothesay is appointed Ambassador nesday next for the motion for information, for to Spain. The Earl of Westmoreland is appointed Latest from England.—By the Western mail arriv- which day he should move that their Lordships be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northampton.

A man of the name of Courts has

IRELAND. on Saturday, when the Assessor declared Mr. two stone during the performance. By the ship Wm. Thomson, arrived on Saturday Daniel O'Connell duly elected by a majority of 1075. evening from Liverpool, we have received Liver- Mr. O'C. addressed the electors in a conciliatory The following is a return of all Pensions granted tone. If he had spoken any thing harsh of his op- under the Acts 57 Geo. III. c. 66 and Geo. IV 99 The efforts of the Constitutionalists in Portugal ponent, he wished it were forgotten. He declared stating the name of the persons, the amount grant. have terminated in defeat. Oporto has surrender- himself a radical reformer, thanked the people for ed, and the date on which granted :-Lord Sid. ed to Den Miguel, and the force which opposed his their good behaviour during the progress of his mouth, 3,000l., dated Dec. 15, 1821. Mr Ward. election, which was the more creditable, as there 1,000% dated May 14, 1822. Mr. Ward holding an The last accounts from the East are to the 24th had been 50,000 persons congregated in the streets. office of less annual value than twice the amount of ult, ; the Russians, who had removed their camp It was his thorough conviction that he was entitled the pension, receives one-half of the pension only. on Karassou, were proceeding in an almost unin- to sit and vote in the House of Commons, without Mr. Canning, 3,000l., dated Feb. 6, 1823. Mr. terrupted course of victory. In addition to the cap- incurring any penalty or being obliged to take the Canning having been in office from the time the

Odessa. In both places considerable quantities of tion has triumphed, Mr. O'Connell was on Saturday May 10, 1826. Mr. Courtenay 1000l., dated July artillery and ammunition as well as military stores returned for Clare by a majority of 1,075; the total 26, 1825. Mr. Courtena and Mr. Croker do fell into the hards of the Russians. The Porte it numbers polled being, for Mr. O'Connell, 2,057, not receive any part of these pensions, as they hold is said has made preposals to the Court of London for Mr. Vessey Fitzgerald, 982. Men who ob- offices, the salaries of which are equal to twice the and Paris, and hopes they will interfere in his be- served the arts of the agitators were prepared for amount of the pensions. Mr. Huskisson, 3,0001. half. The Sultan has published a pamphlet to just the result of this struggle. The Priests, dressed in dated July 27, 1827. Mr. Hobhouse, 1,000l., dat. slso published an answer to the manifesto of Russia, on the freeholders of Clare in droves to the poll. gust 1, 1827.—Pension not received; Mr. Planta which we find at length in the latest London pa- They have returned a man who cannot sit in Par- holding an office, the salary of which is more than pers. He begins by laying down one or two very liament, and excluded one who had always been equal to twice the amount of the pension. Lord sound general principles, and then goes on to say their friend, and had invariably supported the cause Bexley, 3,000l., dated Feb. 5, 1828. that the Porte has constantly exercised the greatest by his vote. They hear Mr. O'Connell talk of sit- Munificent Bequest.—The late J. Dick, Esq., of care in performing all the obligations of treaties and ting in Parliament without taking the oaths, one Finsbury square, and upwards of foxty years an pitulates the causes of war as stated in the Russian been discovered in the laws affecting the Catholics, handsome provision for his family, has left about manifesto, upon which he puts a different counten- but no error or ambiguity exists save in the imagi- 166,000l. to trustees, for the purposes of the interest ance. The Porte complains that Russia counten- nations of Mr. O'Connell and Mr. Butler. In truth being distributed annually in equal shares among all anced the movements of Ypsilanti, and afterwards we do not believe that Mr. O'Connell entertains the the Parochial School-masters of the counties of protected him and other refugees, against the faith least hope of sitting in the British House of Com- Aberdeen, Banff, and Moray. This will add about of treaties, complains of the Russian interference mons, but his object is accomplished without cn- 40l. per annum to their income. in the affairs of Greece and of several other matters, during the weight of such an honour. He will pre- The second Meeting at Ascot has been held with and "finally of the fatal event of Navarin." sent himself-be rejected-return to Ireland, and great success. His Majesty was on the ground In the House of Commons, July 8th .- The Chan- find, in his situation, new food for exciting the fury both days. On the first, the Windsor Stakes were right honourable friend, the President of the Board that he is the most injured of men; others equally verely handled in the Times and other papers, for a of Trade, would, no doubt give the subject his best ambitious of notoriety will seek a similar fate, and Fete given at Holly Grove, the seat given to her these being excluded from the Imperial Parliament by Mr. Coutts, while his first wife was alive. London, July 15 .- Sir Frederick Lamb, our am- will collect together in Ireland, hold themselves out On the 18th of June, in commemoration of the were to embark on board the Duke of York steamer, means can be found to dissolve the Association, Government. and circumscribe the Elective Franchise in Ireland,

Summary.

guese government stands indebted to England that occasion; and the Fete was most splendid, House of Lords.-Lord Holland said, seeing the 132,531l. for the expenses of the armament sent

The first of the three divisions of French troops nue bui

doi

wer

mer

the

ap

Ca

fou

Th

the

the

ger

bui

wh

cer

effe

for

Br

las

shi

did

alo

CO

bo

the

ins

bis

ed

wo

an

ve be an

flo di th

cr

A man of the name of Coores has completed 1,250 miles in 1,000 consecutive hours, at the Green Man tea gardens, Kent-road ; this elipses Capt CLARE ELECTION.—The Poll was finally closed Barclay's once unequalled match. Cootes has lost part of his pension. Mr. Lushington, 1,500l., dated

On the Anniversary of Waterloo, the Duke of Wellington gave his customary dinner to about 40 distinguished officers who were present on that day. His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and fell in consequence of the news to-day, to 54, and By an account laid before Parliament, the Portus sented to His Grace by different Princes, was used on

> YAMASKA MOUNTAIN, AUGUST !. Shocking Occurrence -On Tuesday the 29th ult. as Andre Bangle, a respectable farmer of this place. was attempting to descend from his hay-mow, his after several attempts, succeeded in lifting him from he stake in a state too horrible to describe. He has left a wife and three young children to lament

United States.

NEW-YORK, July 31. EARTHQUAKE IN LIMA.

ach by surprise, if, on some early day, he brought! Lord Francis L. Gower and Mr. Henry Hob- quake was experienced at that place, which come