MISCELLANEOUS.

M. Kossuth.-Mr. Walter Savage Landor proposed a subscription for M. Kossuth. The appeal of the warm-hearted and impulsive author did not meet with a very cordial response; a few dribbling subscriptions came in here and there, but no combined effort was made: no organization for the purpose was attempted. This was very likely owing, among other eauses, to the doubt whether this movement met the approbation of the distinguished object of the charity. The doubt was put an end to the other day by M. Kossuth himself coming forward and begging that the matter might cease, as the idea of a subscription is altogether rupugnant to his feelings. He has lately, as I mentioned, taken to lecturing. Of the tens of thousands who a few years ago growded to hear him, there is probably a fair per centage who would still be willing to invite him to lecture to them upon subjects of general interest, an arrangement which might be mutually agreeable to all parties.

GENERAL WILLIAMS .- A letter from the Crimea dated March 12th, states that a staffsurgeon has been ordered to proceed forthwith to Trebizonde, and thence to Tiflis, to attend Brigadier-General Williams, the defender of Kars. Mr. Buckley has been appointed by Sir John Hall to accompany the surgeon as his assistant.
