

The Nova Scotia Bank may be considered the most ornamental building in Halifax. Its eight handsome Corinthian columns, which are now fully shewn, exhibit a style of Architecture altogether new in this country.

DESERTION.—We regret to learn that desertions are very frequent from this Garrison. On Sunday night last the whole guard at the Royal Engineers' Yard, the corporal in charge excepted, deserted in a body.

A CORONER'S INQUEST was held at Bridgewater, on Monday the 1st Inst., before Aaron Morse, Esq., Coroner, upon view of the body of James Mailman, (son of Frederick), who came to his death by drowning, while under the influence of Intoxicating Liquors.—Communication.

ACCIDENT BY FIRE.—On Thursday night, the 11th Inst., several persons on their way from Pleasant River, Q. C., to Bridgewater, with lumber for market, were overtaken by a storm of rain. Being near a Saw Mill owned by Mr. William Newcomb, situated about five miles from Bridgewater, they took shelter there, and made a fire to warm and dry themselves, but unfortunately did not wholly extinguish the fire on leaving the mill.

The young men have very honorably obligated themselves to satisfy Mr. Newcomb, for the damage sustained. The accident is a severe loss to them and we trust a benevolent community will aid them in bearing it.—Communicated.

Flour made from new wheat, the growth of the present year, has made its appearance in the markets of South Carolina and Georgia, and the crops in that quarter are reported good.

Mr. SPURGEON'S congregation last Sunday morning, (May 31), included the Duchess of Sutherland, Lady Truro, Lady Peel, Lord and Lady Blantyre, Mrs. Beecher Stowe, Lord Grosvenor, Lord Bolton, Lord Calthorpe, Lord Shirley, Sir J. Paxton, Mr. Peel, Admiral Wm. Dundas, Mr. Massey, and many other members of the aristocracy.

AN IMPORTANT FACT.—The worst burn or scald may be reduced, the inflammation and pain taken out by Redding's Russia Salve, in a few hours. Burns that fester, Chilblains that torment you, tetter itch and bruises that are excruciating and painful, may all be cured by a simple investment in a 25 cent box—a small and really insignificant sum, compared with the real merits of the Salve—which is sold generally by all the Doctors.
