BIBLICAL COMMENTARY ON THE NEW TESTAMENT. By DR. HERMANN OLSHAUSEN, continued after his death by Dr. John Henry Augustus Ebrard and Lic. Augustus Wiesinger...

The present volume extends from Ephesians to Titus inclusive. Olshausen's work was carried through Thessalonians, when it was arrested by his death.

THE TECNOBAPTIST: A Discourse, wherein an honest Baptist, by a course of argument to which no honest Baptist can object, is convinced that infant Christians are proper objects of Christian Baptism.

This work has excited no little attention, and has caused no little embarrassment among Pedobaptist writers who have been called upon to Review it. Its author is Judge Mayes of Yazoo city, Miss., himself not connected with any denomination of Christians...

It appears that the story of Jessie Brown and the slogan of the Highlanders at Havelock's relief of Lucknow, is a pure invention.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S ROSEMARY

This great and popular preparation is decidedly one of the nicest and best articles in the world for the HAIR!

It imparts a richness and brilliancy, cleans, ornaments, invigorates, unbellishes, removes dandruff, and relieves headache.

ABRAM A. TRUAX, Esq., Rotterdam, N. Y., writes—"Am 75 years of age—and was bald 35 years—have used two bottles of your Rosemary, and my hair is now two inches long."

REV. SYLVANUS COBB, Boston, Mass. "We had rather pay for it than have other preparations for nothing."

MRS. DANIEL B. CONNOR, Boston, Mass.—"Eight months ago I was bald—my hair is now long and healthy—I know your Rosemary has forced it to grow."

OSSIAN E. DODGE, Esq., vocalist, now of Cleveland, Ohio—"It gives a rapid growth, and dark glossy texture, and does not soil the hat or pillow in the least; I know of nothing so valuable for the hair."

RANDIS ADAMS, Esq., Boston, Mass.—"It is the best thing for children's hair—the ladies are delighted with it."

REV. C. W. DENNISON, Buffalo, N. Y.—"I find it excellent for the hair."

MRS. L. SWFENY, Boston, Mass.—"It restored my hair to bald head, and from grey to black color."

HON. C. HUNT, Lowell, Mass.—"To remove dandruff, and keep the hair moist and glossy we have never found anything so good."

M. HOFFMAN, Esq. (Editor German Weekly) Boston, Mass. and his wife Eva say—"It causes hair to grow vigorous—gives beauty and splendor—is better than European articles."

C. H. STOCKING, Esq. (Trinity College) Hartford, Conn.—"By using it my hair turned from a sandy to brown color; it was naturally dry, but is now moist."

A. E. WOOD, Chemist, New Haven, Conn.—"I saw a fair head of very dark hair on a man that six weeks ago was bald. He had used nothing but your Rosemary."

THE publishers of this volume, believing that Christians in other parts of the country will be glad to enjoy some of that truth which God has so peculiarly owned and blessed as preached in the great metropolis, have requested these pastors of different denominations to furnish one of their ordinary discourses delivered in the midst of the present great awakening, for the purpose of making

A MEMORIAL VOLUME of this work of God. These Sermons are the earnest, pungent expressions of their heart and mind at a time when God is doing great things in their churches, whereof they are glad. And although they would not have consented these Sermons to the press had they looked merely to the praise of men, they are willing that we should send them forth to be read in public and private, in city and country, in the remotest regions where our language is spoken, as their testimony to the truth, and its simple power under the Holy Spirit in turning men from the error of their ways to the love and service of God.
