The Protestantism of Baptists goes a little too far for some of our political protestants. Because we are unwilling to commit ourselves to the cause of the politico-religious Protestant Alliance, and fight under that banner, forsooth the protestantism of Baptists must be suspected. If we were disposed to lend ourselves to grace the triumphs (?) of that doubtful organization we might probably save ourselves from such

Wonders.-The Recorder gives the following extract from a private letter from Antigonish. dated April 18th. Our contemporary does not vouch for its correctness, although he says it comes from a respectable source:

EXPLOSION.—A somewhat mysterious explosion occurred at the residence of Mr. C. F A. Margraf, one of the Professors of McGill College, Montreal. The servant-girl had just made the fire, when the cooking stove was shattered in innumerable fragments, windows, doors, and furniture were entirely destroyed. A large piece of the stove was carried through a partition into a brick wall, at least a foot deep. The girl was much injured, her recovery is doubtful. It is supposed that a charge of powder had been, by some person, put into the wood.

They consume a barrel of solid Pills, about 50,000 doses, and 3 barrels of Cherry Pectoral, 120,000 doses, per diem. To what an inconceivable amount of human suffering does this point! 170,000 doses a day!! Fifty millions of doses per year!!! What acres and thousands of acres of sick beds does this spread before the imagination! And what sympathies and woe! True, not all of this is taken by the very sick, but alas, much of it is. This Cherry Drop and this Sugared Pill are to be the companion of pain and anguish and sinking sorrow-the inheritance our mother Eve bequeathed to the whole family of man. Here the infant darling has been touched too early by the blight that withers half our race. Its little lungs are affected, and only watching and waiting shall tell which way its breath shall turn. The strong man has, planted in his vitals this same disease. This red Drop by his side is helpin sick sorrow and fear lest the rod on which they lean in this world, be broken.
