WE observe in an American paper an account of a serious insurrection of the peasantry in one of the Western Provinces of Russia, formerly a German possession, and which, with Courland and other neighboring territories, was some years since appended by Russia to her own dominions. The serfs in this part of the Empire, although in a superior position, both as to condition and civilization to most others are yet wholly in the power of the great landholders, none of them being above the rank of mere labourers on the soil, or being possessed of any interest in it. The Churches in the Central and Eastern Association to present movement, we may venture to foretel, is but the commencement of others which must necessarily follow the increased intelligence and power, which is being yearly acquired by the millions of serfs throughout the vast Russian domains. The Emperor is making great and praiseworthy efforts, to release this large portion of his subjects from an abject and degrading state of Slavery, but it can hardly be expected that millions of human beings, once awakened to any just sense of their rights as such, and with the feeling of their having been so long robbed of them, will consent to wait the slow motions of those who still at two o'clock, P. M. view them as their goods and chattels.

From all accounts their is no cessation of the rush of emigration to Fraser's River and the new Gold diggins. It is stated in a late California paper, that from fifteen to eighteen thousand persons had left that state alone, for the new land of promise. Many others from different parts of the Union, as well as from the British Provinces, will no doubt follow their steps very shortly.

WE copy from the Brantford Christian ledged. Messenger the following notice of the "Letters to a Young Christian" which have for some time past appeared every alternate week on our first page.

We presume from the initials of the writer it comes from the pen of the Rev. Mr. Fife, of Toronto.

DR. CRAMP AND BAPTIST HISTORY.

Messenger that Dr. Cramp, of Acadia College, is preparing a work on Baptist History, similar, in some respects, to Orchard's history. In two respects, however, we feel confident Dr. Cramp's Table, and would take it as a great favour from production will have capital advantages over friends abroad to receive articles for that purpose: Mr. Orchard's work.

1. In regard to accuracy and reliability as a work of reference Mr. Orchard is certainly not always to be relied on. He too often takes conjecture for fact throughout, but especially in regard to Waldensian history. This arose from the fact that Mr. Orchard did not explore for himself the sources of history, but relied upon second hand testimony. Robinson's History of Baptism, although an able and learned work, is a controversial book written to establish a point, and it unquestionably strains many of the testimonies on which it relies. Mr. Orchard, who quotes largely from this author. has fallen into the same error. Dr. Cramp, on the other hand, has long been accustomed 'to examine for himself the original documents from which our history must be learned, and his patience of investigation, will, we are sure, produce a work that may be safely quoted as authority.

2. Dr. Cramp's plan will permit him to give us a better view of English Baptists than that embraced in the plan of Mr. Orchard. The letters which are now appearing in the Nova Scotia Messenger, are to be re-written and published in a neat 12mo. volume, for about one dollar. We hope many Canadians will be ready to secure for themselves so valuable a book, when it makes its appearance. Dr. Cramp's object is to prepare at once a popular and a reliable work.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF THE CITY OF HALIFAX FOR 1858-9. Published by Richard P. Nugent.

This is quite a nice little hand-book for reference to firms in the city, the Corporation, the Post Office, Packets, List of Wharves, the Tariff, Railroad, Cab and Truckmen's Regulations, &c. &c., with a brief history and description of Halifax.

The R. Catholic Archbishop of Halifax has for some time past been lying in a very precarious state. We learn that he died shortly after one o'clock this morning.

We learn from the C. B. News that "The Charles Tupper " is the name of a new small steam ferry-boat to ply at the Little Bras d'or C. B. Miss Caldwell officiated at the ceremony of giving her the name.
