London dates by the last mail, which arrived last Wednesday, are to the 27th August. Nothing had yet been done at Zurich on the subject of Italy, and it was every day becoming more improbable that anything could be done to restore the Dukes of Tuscany and Modena to their lost power.

Parliament was prorogued on the 13th ult. by Commission, and will not probably meet again for business until near the close of the year.

There appears to have arisen some difficulty on account of the forcible occupation, by American troops, of a small island situated in the straits of Fuca or Puget Sound, on the southern end of Vancouver's Island.

Great efforts are being made by the Bible and other Protestant Societies both in England and Switzerland, to take advantage of the present state of things, to disseminate the Scriptures and other religious publications in those parts of Italy which have just been freed from Papal oppression.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—On Tuesday the 23rd ult., a young lad about 9 years old, son of Mr. Cantelo, of Bay Fortune, went to amuse himself where his father was putting up a new barrack, and unfortunately fell on a chisel which had been fixed in a mortice, making an opening of about five inches across the stomach, and cutting three inches through the parietes of the abdomen.

In justice to Davis' Pain Killer, I must say I never sold an article which gave such universal satisfaction to all who used it. I never kept a medicine which met with such a rapid sale; its virtues are the topic of conversation in many places in this vicinity.

P. K.

TO PERRY DAVIS & SON.—Dear Sirs—I feel happy to add one more testimonial of the value of your Pain Killer to the thousands sent you from nearly all parts of the world. On the 8th of this month I fell from a second story doorway to the pavement, striking on my feet, and bruising them severely; also straining the ligaments of the ankles.

The stain on linen from the use of the Pain Killer is easily removed by washing it in alcohol.

Sold at Wholesale by GEORGE E. MORTON & CO., AVERY, BROWN & CO., and by Druggists generally.

PARK'S PRICKLY PLASTERS.

They soothe pain; protect the chest; they extract the coagulated impurities and soreness from the system, and impart strength. They are divided into sections, and yield to the motion of the body. Being porous, all impure excretions pass off, and they cannot become offensive, hence can be worn four times longer than any other plasters, and are cheaper at 25 cents than others at 10.

Great Tribute to the Memory of the Post Burns.—The Sons and Daughters of Scotland may now possess themselves of the Burns' Centenary Poems, one volume, 8s. stg., with portrait, being a collection of fifty of the best out of many hundreds written on the occasion of the Centenary celebration, including the six recommended for publication by the Judges at the Crystal Palace competition—many of the highly commended—and several prize Poems.

A London Reviewer says, "this is the noblest monument ever raised to the memory of Burns. It is a chaplet woven for his tomb by whatever there is of kindred genius in the kingdom. We will not take upon us to decide upon the respective merits of these beautiful offerings. There is not one of them that does not exhibit a high degree of poetic power, and some of them might be owned without derogation by the Bard of Ayr himself."
