FIRE AT LIVERPOOL .- On Sunday, the 29th ult., a fire broke out in the dwelling house of Mr. W. Godfray. The fire made considerable progress before it was discovered; Mr. G. and family being | Liquid Cathartic. It is particularly recommended out at the time. The Fire Engine was soon on for rheumatism, neuralgia, pains in the head, side, the spot, and did good execution, by the aid of stomach, and the various prevalent diseases of the willing hands of ladies and citizens. The former are spoken highly of in supplying the engine with water and the latter in working it. The adjoining property was saved, which, in all probability, but for the engine, would have been destroyed.

A WINDFALL AT SEA -A LaHave craft on her return trip from the Labrador, not very well fished, had the good fortune to fall in with a large speedily made fast to and commenced stripping off and trying out the oil. By this time the whole of one side Killer, although myself and several members of my of the Leviathan was used up. At this period a family were attacked by it severely, and I am happy Frenchman hove in sight and soon came along- to say that the Pain Killer was equal to every emerside, but the united efforts of the hands on board the three vessels had failed to capsize the carcase, and the remainder was finally disposed of by the original discoverer to Johnny Crapaud for the only remedy I would use. I have thoroughly tested it sum of £7, to do with the whale what he best could. The LaHave men left the Frenchman who had taken his prize in tow, making for the nearest land .- Journal.

TEMPERANCE. - We perceive, by the Liverpool Transcript, that the Total Abstinence Society in that town is accustomed to engage monthly lecturers on this great subject. On the last monthly night "the President congratulated the Society and the public on the improved appearance and accommodation of the Hall.

"The Rev. Mr. Hurd, from Chester, was then introduced, who, in a highly argumentative and eloquent address, instructed and charmed an unusually large and intelligent audience for the space of nearly two hours. The process of fermentation and the properties of alcohol were explained, and the effect of the latter upon the haman system as ascertained from scientific examinations shewn with the consequent physical, intellectual, and moral degradation and ultimate death, arising from an indulgence in strong drinks. An eloquent and stirring appeal to all the friends of suffering humanity, and especially of the poor drunkard, concluded this very able address.

The Rev. Mr. Brown was announced as the lecturer for the next meeting, and the young people particularly are requested to attend on that occasion.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Some idea may be formed of the quantity of canvas required for a ship of the line, from the fact that her entire spread of sail considerably exceeds an acre and a half in surface.

A German naturalist has described six hundred species of flies collected by him within a district of six miles. The same writer affirms that 30,000 different kinds of insects have been collected, which prey upon wheat alone.

A project is said to be on foot for cutting through the Malayan peninsula, to furnish a ship canal from Calcutta to China. Should the plan be carried out, the distance will be shortened by nearly two thousand miles.

The friends of the late Horace Mann held a meeting in Boston to pay a tribute of respect to his memory, and to take measures for the erection of a monument at Mount Auburn, to carr out which latter a Committee was appointed. was announced that a fund of twenty thousand dollars had already been invested for the benefit of Mr. Mann's children.

A month ago a company of eleven ladies and gentlemen of Buffalo, N. Y., started upon a plea sure trip to the South, taking a novel mode of travelling. They have a large coach like an omnibus, in which they travel, and carry with them a tent sufficiently large for the whole company, and camp out much after the Gispy fashior though in better style. They arrived nea Bladensburg, Va., a few days since, and pitched their tent. It is the plan of the company to spend ten months in this trip.

DR. STONE'S LIQUID CATHABTIC.—Somebody says that the Americans "consume" more medicine than any other nation in the world, and the assertion is undoubtedly true; for, besides supporting an army of physicians-"regulars" and "quacks"-we swallow every kind of nostrum that is put into the market, no matter whether it comes from a wise man or a fool. There are, however, several standard medicines, which, the longer they are used the more popular they become; and among this number, we know of none that so well enjoys the confidence of the public as Dr. Stone's summer and autumn months; and especially is it used for the eradication of humors from the blood .-American Citizen, Lowell.

Great Tribute to the Memory of the Poet Burns.—The Sons and Daughters of Scotland may now possess themselves of the Burns' Centenary Poems, one volume, 8s. stg., with portrait, being a collection of fifty of the best out of many hundreds written on the occasion of the Centenary celebration, including the six recommended for publication by the Judges at the Crystal Palace competitionmany of the highly commended-and several prize Poems.

A London Reviewer says, "this is the noblest monu-ment ever raised to the memory of Burns. It is a chaplet woven for his tomb by whatever there is of kindred genius in the kingdom. We will not take upon us to decide upon the respective merits of these beautiful offerings. There is not one of them that does not exhibit a high degree of poetic power, and some of them might be owned without derogation by the Bard of Ayr himself. It is a handsome memorial of the centenary, and shows in a very striking manner how wide-spread and enduring is the renown of Burns.

Messrs. Anderson & Finlay, (the Editors,) are entitled to the thanks of the public, for the loving reverence with which they have collected this brilliant bouquet of immorrances for the grave of their illustrious countryman."
