United States.

The Governors of Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, New York, and Kentucky have appointed Thursday, the 24th of November next, to be observed as a day of public Thanksgiving in their respective States.

The powder mills at Wilmington, Del., exploded on Friday with a fearful crash, killing seven men and a horse.

A canal boat called the Elephant, recently passed through Rochester on her way east, with seventeen hundred barrels of flour.

The prairies along the river in Nebraska were on fire a short time since. The flames extended as far as the eye could reach, presenting a magnificent spectacle, and the smoke was so thick on the river that boats could scarcely make their way.

Great excitement was treated in N. York on Friday last by the bursting of the main Croton water supply pipe between the receiving and distributing reservoir in 76th street.

CALIFORNIA.—Judge Terry had been placed under $10,000 bail to stand his trial for the killing of Senator Broderick.

The town of Monte Christo was nearly destroyed by fire, and Diamond Springs was also damaged.

In the Pitt River Valley, sixty of the Pitt Indians had been slaughtered by the citizens. THE CHOCTAW NATION now numbers about 18,000. It has diminished since leaving Alabama.

FRANCE.

A telegram, received on Monday night from Paris, informs us that the Treaty of Peace was positively signed at Zurich on Monday.

The report of France demanding an indemnity for the expenses of the Italian war from Sardinia is generally disbelieved.

The Cardinal-Archbishop of Bordeaux gave you an enthusiastic reception, the walls of our ancient cathedral re-echoed the shouts of the multitude; we were there, my priests and myself, assisting joyfully at what we supposed to be the baptism of the new empire.

SPEECH OF THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP.

The Cardinal-Archbishop in addressing His Majesty said:— "Sire, when eight years ago the city of Bordeaux gave you an enthusiastic reception, the walls of our ancient cathedral re-echoed the shouts of the multitude; we were there, my priests and myself, assisting joyfully at what we supposed to be the baptism of the new empire.

his great destinies by restoring to the Vicar of Jesus Christ his city, his people, and the integrity of his temporal power.

"We now, Sire, pray with more fervour, if possible, that God may give you the means, as he has given you the desire, to remain faithful to that Christian policy which has called down a blessing upon your name, and which is, perhaps, the secret of the prosperity and the source of the glories of your reign.

"We pray with unswerving confidence, with a hope which deplorable events and sacrilegious acts of violence have not been able to shake, and the motive of this hope, the realization of which appears now so difficult, is, after God you, Sire, who have been, and still wish to be, the eldest son of the Church; you, who spoke these memorable words:— "The temporal sovereignty of the venerable head of the Church is intimately connected with the firmness of Catholicism and the liberty and independence of Italy;—a noble idea, conformable to the sentiments professed by the august head of your dynasty, when, speaking of the temporal power of the Popes, he said, "Centuries have established this, and they have done well."

"Yesterday, when your Majesty for the first time entered the elegant city which has arisen, as if by enchantment, on a once solitary strand; when you were seen kneeling in an unfinished sanctuary, a blessed asylum shut out from the noise of the world, and open heavenwards to receive the falling dews, it appeared to all that the immaculate patroness of the spot shielded you, your august wife, and your beloved son under her maternal protection. You will acquire a debt of gratitude to her by preparing a triumph for her Son in the person of the Vicar. Such triumph is worthy of you, Sire; it will put an end to the anxieties of the Catholic world, who will hail it with transports."

THE EMPEROR'S REPLY.

"The Emperor replied as follows:— "I thank your Eminence for the sentiments you have just expressed. You render justice to my intentions, without, however, overlooking the difficulties which obstruct them, and I believe you understand your high mission in endeavouring to strengthen confidence rather than to spread useless alarm.

"I thank you for having recalled my words, for I entertain the firm hope that a new era of glory will arise for the Church on the day when the temporal power of the Holy Father is notopposed to the liberty and independence of Italy.

"I cannot now enter into details which the grave question you have touched upon would give rise to, and I confine myself to reminding you that the Government which replaced the Holy Father on his throne can only give him counsel inspired by a respectful and sincere devotion to his interests. But he is anxious, and with good cause, as regards the day, which must soon come, when Rome will be evacuated by our troops; for Europe cannot allow that the occupation which has lasted for ten years shall be indefinitely prolonged; and when our army withdraws, what will it leave behind it? Anarchy, terror, or peace? This is a question the importance of which no one can deny. But, believe me, in the times in which we live, to resolve it, we must, instead of appealing to ardent passions, endeavour calmly to fathom the truth and pray to Providence to enlighten people and kings on the wise exercise of their rights and extent of their duties.

"I do not doubt that the prayers of your Eminence and those of your clergy will continue to call down the blessings of Heaven upon the Empress, my son, and myself."

ITALY.

"ROME, Oct. (via Marseilles).—It is said that his Holiness the Pope, acting in concert with the Emperor of the French, will address a manifesto to the inhabitants of the States of the Church."

A little misunderstanding has taken place between the authorities of the city of Leghorn and the American consul. An explanatory despatch had been sent to the President of the United States, and the disagreement will doubtless be quickly arranged.

M. Mazzini's letter to King Victor Emmanuel, has been published in several of the daily papers.

SPAIN.

"MADRID, Oct. 17.—Government has declared to the Cortes that, before the time granted to Morocco to satisfy the demands of Spain had expired, it had received information that Morocco would give the satisfaction demanded. Spain immediately demanded guarantees from Morocco that peace should not in future be disturbed; an immediate answer is expected from Morocco."

INDIA.

ADEN, Oct. 6.—The authorities at Pekin are said to be ready to receive our Minister in a friendly manner. Meanwhile the Indian Government had been applied to for 15,000 troops. Her Majesty's 67th and 99th are under orders for China.

Central India is still unsettled. The frontier districts of Nepal are still occupied by the Nana and his followers.

The Wahgahs are still in insurrection. A force is to be sent against them.

There had been a disturbance in Central India, at Mundeseer, which is said to have been caused by the rebel chief, the Dilli Prince, Feroze Shah. He is reported to have made an attack on the station, releasing not less than 700 men confined in the goal at that station. Captain Hayes, the recently appointed political agent, was killed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE MORTARA ABDUCTION.—All the efforts of Sir Moses Montefiore and the deputies of the British Jews having proved ineffectual in obtaining the restoration of the child Mortara to its parents, a protest on behalf of British Christians, has been most extensively signed, and a copy of it has been forwarded to the French Ambassador.

Amongst the names attached to the Protest are those of the three Archbishops, 4 Dukes, the Marquis of Cholmeley, 12 Earls, 9 Lords, 20 Bishops, a large number of Members of the House of Commons, and some hundreds of other persons of note.

It is stated that Major General Sir C. F. Havelock, only surviving brother of the gallant defender of Lucknow, will be shortly appointed an aide-de-camp to her Majesty.—Court Jour.

Steps are being taken to promote the erection of a monument to the late Sir John Franklin at Spilsby, Lincolnshire, where the gallant Arctic hero was born.
