

European & Foreign News.

FRANCE.

The Moniteur publishes a report of the review held by the Emperor on the Champ de Mars on Sunday. 15,000 infantry and 6,000 cavalry and artillery were on the ground.

The French papers appear much impressed with the proceedings taken in England in respect of its navy; at the magnitude of our resources, and at the extent of the operations which these resources permit us to undertake.

ITALY.

The Neapolitan police have been warned that cases of explosive materials and fulminating powder, concealed under layers of tobacco, have been sent from Genoa, and are en route to Naples.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE NEAPOLITAN EXILES.—Several of the Neapolitan exiles have arrived in London. They were visited at the Bath Hotel on Monday by Mr. Gladstone and several other distinguished persons; and a committee for their aid has also been formed.

Mr. Charles Dickens will bring out on the 30th of April a new periodical to be entitled "All Round the Year." "Household Words" will cease to appear on the last Saturday in May.

It is understood that their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess Frederick William of Prussia, accompanied by their infant son, will arrive in this country early in May, on a visit to her Majesty and the Prince Consort.

The Emperor Soulouque is positively going to Paris, not, perhaps, to reside there permanently, but to stay some time. His aide-de-camp, General Dessalines, has taken apartments for his sable Majesty at the Hotel du Louvre.

AFRICA.—The Daily News reports the death of Gezo, the slave-king of Dahomey. Eight hundred slaves were massacred at a sacrifice on the occasion.

The Prince Imperial, son of the Emperor Napoleon, has entered his fourth year.

LORD CLYDE.—The Friend of India of the 10th ult. says:—"Several of our contemporaries are amusing their readers with speculations as to the date of the Commander-in-Chief's departure, and the name of his successor. All such speculations are, to say the least, premature.

The Earl of Devon died on Saturday, at the advanced age of eighty-two. It may be remembered that a suit is pending in the Divorce Court, in which the Earl prayed for a divorce from his Countess on the ground of cruelty.

Earl Ferrers died on Sunday week, of congestion of the lungs, at the age of thirty eight His successor is a boy of twelve.

The foundation-stone of a statue to the memory of the late Daniel O'Connell was laid at Ennis, on the 17th, in the presence of a great concourse of persons.

There had been a great number of accidents at Sepastopol from the bursting of shells; some twenty men and women have been killed the past year.

Queen Victoria has in a single ring a gallery of family portraits, each a mere photographic speck, but under the magnifying glass, displaying the finish and all the delicacy of a large portrait.
