The Messenger for 1860.

Our ten thousand readers may expect to find unusual attractions in the Christian Mes- Spencer, 15th Rev. D. Freeman, 16th. G. senger during the coming year. We are promised

A series of letters on "Christianity and Papacy," in which the allegations of Mr. Maturin and other writers will be examined by a gentleman who has long studied the con-

Also, a new series of letters from MENNO, on "The Baptists of Nova Scotia."

We shall not fail also to adopt such other improvements as we may feel it safe to make before this. We mention this so that if in any so as to keep the paper second to none in the Province, as a depository of religious, political and general intelligence, and a fearless and outspoken advocate of evangelical truth.

THE UNION PRAYER MEETINGS continue to be largely attended, and increasingly interesting. On Monday morning a request was handed in on behalf of three men confined in the Penitentiary, who were convinced of their lost condition, and desired the prayers of God's directions for preparing and using the same, which people, that his mercy might be extended to they will find a sure cure for them.

After a few suitable remarks, on the state of those separated from society for crime, and the efficacy of intercession, prayer was offered, the hymn:-

"Plunged in a gulf of dark despair We wrethed sinners lay, &c." was read, and the congregation joined in singing the two latter verses,-

"O for this love let rocks and hills Their lasting silence break! And all harmonious human tongues The Saviours praises speak," &c.

An excellent spirit pervaded the meeting. Earnest prayers were offered, and very brief semarks made by eight or ten persons.

THE CHRISTIAN REVIEW : October,-This well-filled quarterly contains some papers of They deserve more than a passing notice. We may at another time be able to do them more justice than we can at present. The following list of subjects will shew that the christian student may here enjoy a fine treat: 1. Dr. Carson and the Romish controversy. 2. The Philosophy of history. 3. The Qld Testament in the discourses of Jesus. 4. Ministerial success. 5. The Angel of Jehovah, 6. Remarks on Matt. xi. 2-14. 7. The relation of Christ's death to the law or righteousness of God. 8. Book notices.

Supreme Court .- The Trial of Preeper was not proceeded with on Wednesday last, as expected, in consequence of only eleven jurymen answering to their names. It was therefore put off till Friday, when proceedings were commenced, by the Hon. Attorney General introducing the case. Three witnesses were examined on that day. There were, we understand, near fifty witnesses summoned. Counsel for the prisoner the Hon. W. Young, Hon. J. McCully, and W. Sawers; for the prosecution, Hon. Attorney General and W. Johnston. At the close of each day the jury were taken in charge by a constable and kept together, much against their desire. The jury consisted of Charles C. Tropolet, Thomas Morris, Archibald Morton, E. W. Chipman, David Shepherd, John Parker, Junr., Evan McPhee, W. M. McCulloch, Alex, Dow, John McNob, H. G. Laurilliard, John Geldert. Mr. Tropolet was chosen Foreman.

The following Jurors were challenged by the prisoner: Owen Donohoe, P. S. Kelly, George E. Morton, John Dunphy, Richard, Phelan, Dennis Shea, John Murphy, Wm.

The receiving of evidence was brought to a close yesterday morning and the Hon. Mr. Young occupied the afternoon in his address to the Jury. It is likely to be brought to a close to-day.

A GOLDEN HOPE-How the afflicted soul exults in prospect of immediate relief as it listen to the wonderful story of the success of "G. W Stone's Liquid Cathartie and Family " Physic," which is indeed an heavenly argosy, frought with remedical blessings for the sick. We feel that we cannot do a better service than to recommend it to every family in the land .- Bos-
