THE CHRISTIAN MESSENGER.

50

Christian Messenger. HALIFAX, FEBRUARY 15, 1860.

Government.

RELIGION, POLITICS, AND SOCIAL LIFE.

on these important matters.

The body we represent recognize more the Roman Catholics and the Quakers from secure so much prominence, and in every case clearly than many others, we believe, the their community. Men have a right, as men, promote the good of mankind ; so they may duties we owe to each of those institutions, to participate in the benefits of good govern- be assured that when they become universal McCully, Hon. John H. Anderson, Hon. William Annand, Hon. Benjamin Wier, Hon. John Locke. -the Church, the State, and Voluntary So- ment. They, the Puritans, wished to make the Church of Christ will shine forth more A'so provisionally,-until the signification of cieties, without allowing one to infringe on the laws of a Voluntary Society apply to a gloriously for all the purposes of a church, the domain of the other. Religious bodies, State, and so, although in the main good men, than ever it has done while surrounded by the Her Majesty's pleasure : Hon. Joseph Howe to be Provincial Secretary almost universally, from the Roman Catholic yet in consequence of taking an erroneous pomp of human splendor and invested with of the Province of Nova Scotia, in the place of to the Puritan, when at different periods they view of the province of civil government, State power. Hon. Charles Tupper, resigned. Hon. Adams G. Archibald to be Attorney have exclusively controlled the State, have and because they had the power, became the The meeting on behalf of the HALIFAX CITY General of the Province of Nova Scotia, in the been guilty of infractions, and have in turn persecutors of them that did well, rather than proscribed each other, by which means the their protectors. Each of the three subjects, Mission was attended by a large number of place of Hon. James W. Johnston, resigned. Hon. Jonathan McCully to be Solicitor Generights and liberties which belong to all have -the Christian Church, the State, and Vol- respectable citizens from various religious debeen interfered with. The adoption of the untary Societies,-has its own elements and nominations. P. C. Hill, Esq., occupied the ral of the Province of Nova Scotia, in the place principles of religious liberty by these and all laws; and should occupy very distinct and chair. Several ministers and others ad-Hon. John H. Anderson to be Receiver Geneintermediate denominations, has been rather different positions. Each of these institutions dressed the meeting with good effect. ral of the Province of Nova Scotia, in the place in spite of their acknowledged and cherished has been made to suffer by having had applied of Hon. Stayley Brown, resigned. The lecture by Mr. Garvie on "The lights Hon. William Annand to be Financial S-creviews than in accordance with them. It must to it laws which are not its own. not therefore be a matter of wonder if they It may be well for us to refer briefly to the and the shadows; or Christianity the ideal of tary of the Province of Nova Scotia, in the place do occasionally forget that the principles of foundation of each of these institutious, we our race" is before us. The lecturer carries of Hon. John J. Marshall, To be one of the Members of the Legislative true religious freedom are in advance of the can then more easily describe the cases in his readers through the darkness and shadows Council, Hon. John H. Anderson. prejudices which they may still hold of an which violations of their fundamental laws of Paganism in several of its forms to the To be the Chairman of the Railway Board, opposite tendency. The evidence that are seen, and what pernicious consequences dawning and present development of the light Hon. Jonathan McCully, in the place of Hon. James McNab, resigned. these prejudices do still exist, may be seen result from such violations. by their sometimes seeking either to use the 1. In matters belonging to politics or civil cent. The redundancy of words slightly ob-THE ELECTIONS .- Writs were issued on Friday, power of the State to rule in the Church, government, the people generally are the sub- scures some paragraphs, still there are other last for the election of representatives for Haliand proscribing men on account of the re- jects. All have equal rights and are entitled passages of great beauty. The whole evinces fax East, Colchester South, and Hants South. ligious opinions they hold; or else by their en- to like protection from the encroachments of industry and research in the writer. We Nomination Day, will be on Tuesday, the 28th deavouring to call in the aid of the Church or their fellow-men. The prompt administration have a predelection however, for the terse-Instant. its officers to accomplish political or state ob- of justice without partiality is the inalienable ness and nervous simplicity of composition in FIRE .- Mitchell's Foundry, near Freshwater right of every peaceable subject of the realm. which Saxon chiefly prevails. About two Bridge, was burnt down on Monday morning thirds of the lecture are taken up with shaabout 5 o'clock, Lawson's Breweryladjoining, and On the prevalence of correct views in res- Politics should aim at securing these for all, dows-from the fire-worship of the East to a barn belonging to A. J. Ritchie, were also pect to this subject depends much of our civil and the enactment of such laws from time to the paganism of Greece and Rome, leaving much damaged. Insured for about £4,000 Mr. and religious freedom. Unless clear and dis- time as are found necessary for this purpose. only one third for the Light which was to Mitchell, will however be a loser by the fire of tinct sentiments on the right of private judg- Any party which seeks to pander to any class, chase away the preceding gloom. The latter about a like sum. ment, and the duty of men to "render to God or ignores their rights, or would deprive them part of the subject deserves more ample space | DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTION .- Received the things that are God's and to Cæsar " of their legitimate share in matters of governfor its elucidation. The lecturer has scarcely from Rev. Abraham Stronach, Aylestord, £2,only "the things which are Cæsar's," are ment, violates the first principles of the social done himself justice by closing up his argu- 11s. 1d. collected by him, in aid of the funds. generally, held, we may always consider our compact and forfeits all claim to public confi-JAMES C. COCHRAN, Secretary. ment so briefly. Feb 6th, 1860. privileges in a state of insecurity. dence. It may be said that any attempt to violate 2. Voluntary Societies rest on a very dif-D STRESSING OCCURRENCE.-On Monday the principles of religious or political ferent basis from that of political combinations. News Summary. 30th ult, Charles Potter, aged 17 years, son of equality would soon be put down by common Certain parties unite for the accomplishment the late Franklin Potter, Junr., went out from the Light House for the purpose of shooting London papers to the 28th Jan. have been consent, and that the general voice of the of a given object, for example, the promotion people being in favour of it renders its dis- of Temperance, Science, Home and Foreign received by the English Mail, which arrived ducks, and it is supposed went on to a ledge, cussion quite unnecessary. We reply that Missions, &c., &c. In these cases persons on Friday. very heavy at the time, it is supposed he was genuine soul-liberty is what we contend for, are received who agree on the great object Everything wears a highly pacific appearwashed off and drowned, as the gun was found -not merely the power of acting for our- sought. The Society may consist of parties ance throughout Europe, although there are there. No tidings have been heard of hun since selves, but the recognition of it, without hav- holding various religious or political opinions, abundant elements of change and commotion How mys erious are God's Providences, as viewed ing to submit to molestation, or being charged so long as they act in accordance with the lying almost on the surface of society in some by us. His father was first removed, leaving a with ineligibility to occupy any position in constitution of such Society. Mutual agree- of the Continental Governments. The matter wile and six children. Shortly after, two children were taken by death, then the mother, and the state on account of religious views. Any ment is the only power which holds them to- which at present appears chiefly to engross now the eldest of the children, leaving three orreference to such opinions in matters of legis- gether. A man may unite with or stand aloof the minds both of England and France is the phan girls, separated from each other, with no lation, either by way of favor or otherwise, from such society, but not so in his political conclusion of a new commercial treaty bekind mother's hand to soothe them amidst life's is, we conceive, an infraction of equal rights relation to society. In the body politic he tween the two nations. By this treaty, many troubles .- Communicated by H. E. Payson, Esq. must be subject to the laws, whether he likes of the high duties on articles of common use, We have no desire to enter the arena of them or not. Any attempt then to exclude brought from France into England are to be to all. New Brunswick. party strife, still we feel bound to bring to the parties holding certain sentiments from par- greatly reduced, and many prohibited articles The Courier presents a glowing picture of the attention of our readers any and every sub- ticipation in matters of legislation, and so are to be admitted upon the payment of dupresent condition and future prospects of our ject which affects the well being of our con- apply the rules of private societies to matters ties. There can be no doubt that the measure sister, province : stituents. The representatives of the people, of State, shews plainly that those who do so will most materially and favourably affect the The Government will be able to render a chosen according to law may meet and com- have yet to learn the first laws of human social and financial relations of the two counfaithful and pleasing account of their stewardship tries towards each other, and cannot but rento the country. We do not remember a period bine into parties for the purpose of enacting government. laws, as they believe, "for their country's 3. The formation and government of der the prospects of collision between them when the political horizon of New Brunswick good"; but the Fourth Estate of the realm- Churches differs from that of the State or of much less probable. It is supposed that this reflected so clear and calm an aspect. The finances of the Province are flourishing, the public the press, especially the religious press,- Voluntary Societies in some very important new arrangement must necessarily lead to the undertakings are progressing favorably, the popshould stand far above the influence of these particulars. Whilst in the former all men removal, very shortly, of many other restriculation are prosperous and contented, the season parties, and communicate facts and principles have equal rights and privileges, and in the tions which have long existed on the trade of which will enable the people, especially re- latter only such as adopt the sentiments of France, as the French Emperor is known to is all that can be desired for the success ul proseligious men, so to deal with parties as to ren- the body are eligible for membership, in be thoroughly a Free Trader in his commercial cution of the labours of our lumberman; and commercial men look forward with well founded der them the means of securing the end of all Churches the members have no option of re- views. He has, however, to contend with a expectations that the ensuing season will be one good government-the good of the governed. ceiving or rejecting such as have the charac- large class in France who have long enjoyed of activity and prosperity. Politics, or the science of government, be- teristics of true believers in Christ and a wil- extensive protection under the existing high longs to civilized man, and demands attention lingness to obey his commands. They must duties or absolute prohibitions of the present United States. from every member of the community. Aris- receive them if convinced that their piety is system. The treaty, as regards France, will A tract of land in Baton Rough parish. La., totle called man "a political animal;" and in genuine, whatever may be their age, mental not come into full operation until July, 1861. recently sunk to the depth of seventy-five or eighty fee', swallowing up a barn, from which all ages and conditions he has had, and must capacity or circumstances in life. A christian The meeting of the European Congress is still indefinitely postponed, owing to the dif- the people had barely time to escape. The catas-Church properly consists only of Christians,ferences of opinion existing among several of troph was produced by the action of subterhave, more or less to do with government. Many of the precepts of the gospel cannot those who make profession of faith in Christ. be carried out without giving some attention The restrictions of money contribution, &c., the Catholic Powers, and the refusal of the Southern Legislatures are everywhere called to this subject. Civil government is an ordi- which regulate other Societies do not hold in Pope to submit to any interference with the on by the plantation press to make stringent. nance of Divine appointment. Protec- Churches. A church cannot comprehend a integrity of his temporal dominions. laws against Northern pedlars and travelling tion afforded to the life and property of each whole nation or people, except as they are Louis Napoleon's letter referred to in our agents of every description. individual demands from him an effort to seek combined in bodies of individuals. Attempts be "for the punishment of evil doers and for tional institution. They have failed however mean time the Emperor is doing all he can to the praise of them that do well." The spirit in doing more than persecuting some of their renew his friendly relations with England. of contention and selfishness which frequently best subjects and sacrificing the interests of characterizes party politicians and the acri- religion at the shrine of Mammon, and Ambimony of their discussions, has thrown upon tion. Hypocrites have invariably been exaltthis subject a degree of opprobrium which ed at the expense of good honest men. The does not necessarily belong to it, and has idea of a State shutting out any class of induced many of the most godly men to ab- Christians or even Jews or Infidels is now pretty it may appear to some unnecessary to discuss stain from exercising their elective franchise. well exploded, yet some politicians, with what a matter so trite as the distinction between Mere politicians know that by personal con- amount of sincerity we will not venture to afwhat should exist in the government of Church- tention they can secure more attention than firm, pretend to raise the cry of establishing a es, the State, and Voluntary Societies. Here by sound argument. The contentions of men Protestant government. No greater injury Church-and-Stateism is anexotic which can often command more interest than the ablest is done to Protestantism than by such meanever take root, and all parties have on their address of the most profound speaker, free sures. Nothing gives Roman Catholics so hips the demand for, and the praises of, liberty. from such characteristics. Men should dis- much importance as to oppose them by an Even here, however, it seems difficult for some tinguish between what too often influences unjust exclusion from undoubted right. An parties to draw a clear distinction between the them in the use of the elective franchise- Anti-Presbyterian, or Anti-Methodist, or Anduties they owe to one and those which belong blindly adhering to a party, and acting at ti-Baptist combination would be no less a vioto the other, so as to prevent them from com- the dictation of certain prominent men; and lation of Civil and Religious liberty. The ing into contact one with the other. This that of exercising ones own judgment, and effort to do this is an attempt to make the being the case we think it well to endeavonr making choice of such men as should be en- laws of a Voluntary Society or church apply if possible to throw a little light upon the trusted with the making of laws for the to the government of a State, just as the subject, and thus try to remove wrong im- whole people, by which they and their de- Roman Catholic Church itself has done and is pressions where they may exist. We shall scendants may be governed, to the remotest now doing in countries where it is predominot attempt a homily or essay on Moral Phi- period of time. For the use of this trust nant. losophy, but shall give our readers a few gen- every man is responsible to the Great Ruler. eral principles which may produce examina- It is not for man to choose any particular ever done the broad distinction which should tion of the subject, and awaken interest and classes for whom he will, or will not, levislate, exist between human and Divine government, enquiry as to the views they should entertain as was attempted by the Puritans we were or the government of the world and that of the

the good of the whole, by the exercise of a have been made from time to time from the last has provoked the bitter opposition of the wise choice of rulers such as he believes will days of Constantine to make the church a na- warm friends of the Papacy, while in the

It is for Baptists to maintain as they have England when they shut out the Baptists, Church; and as they have seen these principles

FEBRUARY 15,

B

aga

Hal

Bio

Wa

ren

sen

Sto

aft

Vis

$10

M

Parliament met on the 24th ult., and was opened by the Queen in person. She speaks strongly of her intentions to afford her utmost countenance and support to the cause of freedom in Italy, and of the moral resistance which England will offer to any attempt to impose a Government on the Italians contrary to their own wishes. A measure of Parliamentary Reform is to be introduced by Lord Palmerston early in the Session. The general state of the country, both in a political and commercial view, is stated in the Royal Speech to be highly prosperous and satisfactory.

Domestic and Foreign.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT .- The following are the contents of a Royal Gazette Extraordinary, published on Friday, the 10th inst. :

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Halifax, February 10th, 1860.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to make the following appointments. To be the Executive Council of the Province of Nova Scotia :

Hon. William Young, President ; Hon Joseph Howe, Hon. Adams G Archibald, Hon. Jonathan