

on the 18th inst. General La Marmara has been entrusted with the military re-organisation.

Garibaldi, in his farewell proclamation, tells his companions in arms to be ready to follow him again, as it is likely that a fresh conflict will break out in Italy in March, 1860. Garibaldi says that one million of men and arms will be wanted.

The King, it is said, intends mobilising 20,000 national guards of the city of Naples.

The King has visited the hospital for wounded volunteers, and distributed relief.

Garibaldi has been appointed a General of the army.

The siege works against Gaeta are being actively carried on.

It is still hoped to secure the submission of Gaeta without any serious fighting; but, in case the garrison do not capitulate, the bombardment will commence in few days.

MARSELLLES, Nov. 13.—Letters from Gaeta dated Sunday last, state that Francis II. had rejected the proposal to evacuate the town.

General Boscio had arrived and would take the command of the troops, who still number 13,000 men. He relies on the strength of the fortress. A Prussian General had arrived on a mission. A Portuguese and two Spanish frigates had arrived off Gaeta.

LORD JOHN RUSSELL'S LECTURE TO THE GREAT POWERS.

Lord John Russell is once more himself We could but express our sorrow for his very ill-advised lecture to the King of Sardinia, but now we much more willingly express our pleasure in his well-timed lecture to the three potentates of Warsaw and the French Emperor.

His formal despatch of the 27th ult. is all that Englishmen would wish their Foreign Secretary should say for Italians, and all that Italians can wish our Minister to say.

The letter commences with specifying the several ways in which the Emperors of France and Russia and the King of Prussia had expressed their displeasure with the King of Sardinia; it boldly takes this misbehaviour of the monarchs for its text; it shows they are wrong; and ends with declaring their Royal censures, including that of Austria, to be without sufficient ground; and adds, "Her Majesty's Government will turn their eyes rather to the gratifying prospect of a people building up the edifice of their liberties and consolidating the work of their independence amid their sympathies and good wishes of Europe."

Then the arguments by which this conclusion is reached are so un-diplomatic, so direct; every Jack Tar on board Admiral Mundy's fleet, every volunteer in Garibaldi's army, and every soldier in Victor Emmanuel's can appreciate them. Our Foreign Secretary declares that he will not enter into some of the petty technical questions he mentions; he will only discuss the "large questions—were the people of Italy justified in asking the assistance of the King of Sardinia to relieve them from Governments with which they were discontented, and was the King of Sardinia justified in furnishing the assistance of his arms to the Roman and Neapolitan States?" His Lordship mentions two reasons assigned by them:—First. That their Governments did not administer justice and secure personal liberty; next, that only by union could they escape from foreign control and intermeddling. He quotes Vattel to excellent purpose, as showing that in the parallel case of our asking the aid of William of Orange, no injustice was done by the States-General in furnishing aid. When "a people for good reasons took up arms against the oppressor, it is but an act of justice and generosity to assist brave men in the defence of liberties." And on the question whether the people in this case had good reasons, Lord John, with a pertinacity which must be very provoking to Baron Schleinitz, and Counts Gorischakoff and Rechberg, says "Upon this grave matter Her Majesty's Government hold that the people in question are the best judges of their own affairs." Would that this sentence could be placarded on every wall of every capital and every town of despotically governed Europe! It is an Armstrong shell among the staff autoeratic of Warsaw!

The only particulars Lord John condescends to notice are, the assertions that the people of Rome and Naples were attached to the rulers, but that Sardinian intrigues debauched them. But Lord John points to the two unanswerable facts, that the Pope was forced to rely on foreign mercenaries, and that Garibaldi conquered Sicily with 20,000 men, and marched on to Naples with 5,000. He reminds the Powers also that forty years ago, and twelve years ago, the Neapolitans made two vain efforts to secure liberty under the Bourbon dynasty; the former being put down by foreign intervention, the latter ending in the base and cruel imprisonment of her best patriots. What wonder, therefore, that now, mistrustful and resentful, they should throw off the Bourbons as we did the Stuarts in 1688.

40 Years JOHNSON'S NERVE ANODYNE LINIMENT Has stood the test!!!

It has been found by experience to be the best INTERNAL and EXTERNAL remedy ever presented to the public. It has no superior for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, and all diseases of the Lungs. For Cramp and Pain in the Stomach, Bowels or Side. Diarrhoea and Dysentery. As an external application it is decidedly superior to any other Liniment or Pain Killer. At all seasons of the year this Liniment is found useful, especially in the autumn, winter and spring, and many colds and coughs, which might prove fatal, are cured by a timely use of this Anodyne Liniment. It should be kept in every family, and thus avoid the dangerous delays occasioned by sending out for medicine or a Physician. RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction. Never did we know an instance of disaffection by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years experience AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS IN Thousands of Cases. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic and overcome convulsions which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST and SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHOEA in CHILDREN, whether it arise from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your prejudice, nor the prejudices of others, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief that will be SURE—YES, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used.
