BOOKS

BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS.

ANDREW F. GRAVES, 24 Cornhill, Boston, Mass., has a large variety of THEOLOGICAL AND SABBATH SCHOOL BOOKS, which are adapted for clergymen and Baptist Sabbath Schools, including the publications of the American Baptist Publication Society, American S. S. Union, Gould & Lincoln, Sheldon & Co., Henry Hoyt, Mass. Sabbath School Society, American Tract Society, New York Tract Society, Methodist Book Concern, Robert Carter & Bro., and other publishing Societies and booksellers.

Those Books coming from doubtful sources are all examined, and none recommended which are not adapted to BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS. Having been engaged for many years in selecting libraries for Sabbath Schools, I am confident I can give good satisfaction.

All orders will be thankfully received, and such a selection of books sent as is deemed best, giving the purchaser the privilege of exchanging any not desired. Bundles can be sent by any packet or steamer from Boston.

Question Books, Reward Cards, Music Books, &c. &c., of every kind constantly on hand. Pastors, Superintendents, and Teachers are specially invited to send their orders direct to me, as it will save them much trouble in selecting from several places. Catalogues forwarded if desired.

VALUABLE

Question Books.

SABBATH SCHOOL STUDIES ON THE LIFE OF CHRIST, First and Second Grade, by Rev. W. S. McKENZIE.—Price 10 Cents each.

The object of the Author in preparing these Books was to have a book where his whole Sabbath School could have the same subject before them. He therefore prepared two sets of Questions, one for the smaller portion of the School, and one for the older. After using them in his own School and proving them a perfect success, he corrected them, and now they are presented to the public.

The subject is also continued in a second volume making a complete History of Christ.

The Watchman and Reflector says, in announcing the work: "The books are original in their theme and design; their subject being the Biography of Christ, presented in an attractive, connected chronological history. The design is to have the same subject studied by the whole School at the same time. Hence, there are two books, of the first and second grade containing the same number of lessons. Each lesson in each book is on precisely the same portion of scripture; so that scholars in the primary department are going over the same ground as the advanced classes. There are evident advantages in having the whole School studying the same topic and portion of scripture.

"With this, teacher's meetings will offer inducements for the attendance of all the teachers; and when the Superintendent questions the School on the lesson, the youngest as well as the oldest feels an interest in the exercise; and also, when at home the lesson is studied, the young as well as the old in the family will be upon the same theme. The conception of the author is a happy one, and his design carried out must be highly acceptable."

From Prof. H. B. Hackett, of Newton Institution.—I have examined some of the pages of Rev. Mr. McKenzie's Question Books on the Life of the Saviour. I regard the plan of the work (which differs quite materially from that of any similar work) as excellent, the questions as eminently judicious and well suited to interest and instruct the learner. It cannot fail to prove a welcome and useful auxiliary to the cause of Sabbath School instruction.

I have also lately issued the COMPREHENSIVE QUESTION BOOK, on Prominent Biblical events, from the Creation to the End of the World, by Rev. J. Barnard, author of the Topical Question Book, Infant Series, &c.—Price 10 Cents.

The Sabbath School Gems,

By Rev. J. M. GRAVES.

Price in paper cover, $1.00 per dozen; cloth, $1.75. This book contains more than 200 hymns with appropriate music on the same page. The selection of hymns is believed the best ever before published for children. It contains many of the most popular tunes. Several thousand copies have been sold within a short time.

Sample copies of the above sent free of expense, at the above price. ANDREW F. GRAVES, 24 Cornhill, Boston, Mass.

REMOVAL.

DR. MACALLASTER, SURGEON DENTIST.

HAS REMOVED into Granville street, one door north of Dr. Black's, and near the Baptist Church, where he respectfully solicits the continued favour of his many patrons and friends. Dr. M., with much regret, would announce to the public of Nova Scotia that he is obliged to do without that favourite sign the Golden Tooth, but hopes those that desire to have good work done, will seek to find his new and complete Dental Establishment.
