FRANCE.

The Emperor of the French has been very ill if the accounts we have received from all quarters are to be relied on.

The eagerness of the French people to lend their money to the Government is shown by the subscription to the "300,000 Obligations Trentenaires."

ITALY.

General Cialdini has arrived in Naples, and his first step was to issue an order of the day, expressing his determination to reestablish tranquility by purging the country of the "bands of assassins" which infest it.

The people do not go with the ex-King of Naples, though he finds plenty of men who will do the reactionary work.

ROME, July 21.—A Consistory will be held to-morrow, at which the Pope will pronounce an Allocution, proclaiming fifteen new bishops—namely, six French, two Spanish, and seven South American.

His holiness is enjoying perfect health. The French Government has lodged a complaint with the Papal Government against the Bishop of Poitiers for having, in the Allocution which he pronounced in his church on St. Peter's day, made offensive allusions to the Emperor Napoleon, designating him Herod III.

The Pope has received fresh assurances that the French army will remain at Rome. General Goyon has broken official relations with Monsignor de Merode.

It is said that Ricasoli is continually urging on the French Government the necessity of driving the ex-King of Naples away from Rome by some means; and that Louis Napoleon replied to one request of this nature, "that Francis the Second would shortly be as glad to quit Rome as he was now obstinate in remaining there."

RUSSIA.

From a paragraph published in the Czas of Cracow, it would appear that the intelligence we have lately had of the popular movements in Russia is little if at all overcharged.

PRUSSIA.

A letter from Baden in the Debats, on the attempt to assassinate the King of Prussia, says: the following declaration was found in Becker's portfolio:—

"My motive for proposing to kill the King of Prussia is that he is unable to bring about the unity of Germany; he must then die, in order that the work may be accomplished by another. They will make sport of me when they take me for a madman on account of this action; but I must accomplish it to render happy the German fatherland.—OSCAR BECKER, Student of Law at Leipzig."

The coronation of the King and Queen of Prussia is fixed to take place at Königsberg in October next.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Spain has, like England, just taken stock of her population, which is found to number only fifteen millions.

ABDUL AZIZ AND HIS CHRISTIAN SUBJECTS.—Two Christians have just been placed at the head of important services at Constantinople. One of them, Franco-Poassa Effendi, has been appointed director of the telegraphs, as already announced in place of Danod Pacha, the new governor of the Lebanon.

HOW GARIBALDI EMPLOYS HIMSELF.—By a steamer from Maddena (Caprera) to Genoa, we have news of General Garibaldi. He is in good health, and devotes his whole time to agriculture of the most practical description, and to political theories,—which will, probably, also become practical under his hands.

A CRINOLINE RIOT.—Many of the rabbis of Cracow and the neighbourhood have condemned the use of crinoline, and interdicted females so attired from appearing at the synagogue. At Tarnow, however, a few days ago, Jewesses, leaning on the arms of their male friends, boldly presented themselves at the synagogue in the proscribed garment.

LORD JOHN RUSSELL'S FAREWELL TO THE CITY OF LONDON.—Lord John Russell took his farewell of London on the 23rd ult. There was a great crowd in the Guildhall, including many of the most influential of his lordship's supporters. Mr. Thomson Hankey presided. Lord John's speech was chiefly a retrospect of the great triumphs in the cause of civil and religious liberty which have been achieved since his entrance into public life, and with most of which his name is prominently associated.

Two candidates have offered themselves: one Mr. Cubitt, M. P. for Andover, and at present Lord Mayor of London (Conservative); the other Mr. Western Wood, a son of the late Alderman Wood (Liberal). The only question in respect to which Mr. Wood is objected to by any portion of the Liberal party, is the question of Church-rates.

BOOKS

BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS.

ANDREW F. GRAVES, 24 Cornhill, Boston, Mass., has a large variety of which are adapted for clergymen and Baptist Sabbath Schools, including the publications of the American Baptist Publication Society, American S. S. Union, Gould & Lincoln, Sheldon & Co., Henry Hoytt, Mass. Sabbath School Society, Methodist Tract Society, New York Tract Society, Methodist Book Concern, Robert Carter & Bro., and other publishing Societies and booksellers.

These Books coming from doubtful sources are all examined, and none recommended which are not adapted to BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Having been engaged for many years in selecting libraries for Sabbath Schools, I am confident I can give good satisfaction.

All orders will be thankfully received, and such a selection of books sent as is deemed best, giving the purchaser the privilege of exchanging any not desired. Bundles can be sent by any packet or steamer from Boston.

Question Books, Reward Cards, Music Books, &c., &c., of every kind constantly on hand.

Pastors, Superintendents, and Teachers are specially invited to send their orders direct to me, as it will save them much trouble in selecting from several places. Catalogues forwarded if desired.

VALUABLE

Question Books.

SABBATH SCHOOL STUDIES ON THE LIFE OF CHRIST, First and Second Grade, by Rev. W. S. McKenzie—Price 10 Cents each.

The object of the Author in preparing these Books was to have a book where his whole Sabbath School could have the same subject before them. He therefore prepared two sets of Questions, one for the smaller portion of the School, and one for the older. After using them in his own school and proving them a perfect success, he corrected them, and now they are presented to the public.

The subject is also continued in a second volume making a complete History of Christ.

The Watchman and Reflector says, in announcing the work:

"The books are original in their theme and design; their subject being the Biography of Christ, presented in an attractive, connected chronological history. The design is to have the same subject studied by the whole School at the same time. Hence, there are two books, of the first and second grade, containing the same number of lessons. Each lesson in each book is on precisely the same portion of scripture; so that scholars in the primary department are got over the same ground as the advanced classes. There are evident advantages in having the whole School studying the same topic and portion of scripture.

"With this, teacher's meetings will offer inducements for the attendance of all the teachers; and when the Superintendent questions the School on the lesson, the youngest as well as the oldest feels an interest in the exercise; and also, when at home the lesson is studied, the young as well as the old in the family will be upon the same theme. The conception of the author is a happy one, and his design carried out must be highly acceptable."

By Prof. H. B. Hackett, of Newton Institution.—I have examined some of the pages of Rev. Mr. McKenzie's Question Books on the Life of the Saviour. I regard the plan of the work (which differs quite materially from that of any similar work) as excellent, the questions as eminently judicious and well suited to interest and instruct the learner. It cannot fail to prove a welcome and useful auxiliary to the cause of Sabbath School instruction.

I have also lately issued the COMPREHENSIVE QUESTION BOOK, on Prominent Biblical events, from the Creation to the End of the World, by Rev. J. Bancroft, author of the Topical Question Book, Infant Series, &c.—Price 10 Cents.

The Sabbath School Gems,

JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS.

A Mild, Prompt, and Effective Remedy.

JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS.

A Mild, Prompt, and Effective Remedy.

THERE is scarcely any disease in which purgative medicines are not more or less required; and much sickness and suffering might be prevented were they more generally used.—No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides, it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might be avoided by timely and judicious use of proper Cathartic medicines.

Convinced of the correctness of these views, JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS, are recommended with the greatest confidence, experience having demonstrated them to be far superior to any other in use, being more mild, prompt, safe, and uniform in their operation. While using them no particular care is required, and patient may eat and drink as usual. Age will not impair them, as they are so combined as to always readily dissolve in the stomach. In small doses they are alteratives, and gently laxative, but in large doses are actively cathartic, cleansing the whole alimentary canal from all putrid, irritating, and fecal matters.

Dyspepsia, these Pills are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretions of the Stomach and Liver, and producing healthy action in those important organs. In cases of long standing, a cure will be more speedily effected by using, in conjunction with the Pills, either JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, OR TONIC VERMIFUGE, according to directions.

For Liver Complaint, Gout, Jaundice, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Fevers, Nervousness, Diseases of the Skin, Impurity of the Blood, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Piles, Female Diseases, and all Bilious Affections, these Pills have proved themselves entirely successful.—All that is asked for them is a fair trial.

The SANATIVE PILLS, and all of JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES, are sold by BROWN BROTHERS & CO., ORDNANCE SQUARE, Halifax, and by Agents throughout the Country. Aug. 14.

WATCH THE HEALTH OF YOUR CHILDREN.

IS their sleep disturbed? Do you observe a morbid restlessness; a variable appetite, a fetid breath, grinding of the teeth and itching of the nose? Then be sure your children are troubled with worms. If their presence is even suspected, procure at once

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge.

It effectually destroys worms, is perfectly safe, and so pleasant that children will not refuse to take it. It acts also as a general tonic, and no better remedy can be taken for all derangements of the stomach and digestive organs.

This VERMIFUGE, and all of JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES, are sold by BROWN BROTHERS & CO., ORDNANCE SQUARE, Halifax, and by Agents throughout the Country. Aug. 14.
