THE HISTORY OF THE RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS. OF THE WORLD.

COMPRISING a General View of the Origin, History and Condition of the various Sects of Christians, the Jews and Mahometan as well as Pagan forms of Religion, existing in the different countries of the East, with Sketches of the Founders of various Religious Sects.

From the best Authorities, BY VINCENT S. MILNER.

Milner's Views of the Religious Denominations of the World is a work I never saw before. I have however examined descriptions given of some of the bodies with whose principles and history I am pretty well acquainted and have found them generally correct and conveying much valuable information.

It supplies a vast amount of information not easily obtained from other books—Christian Messenger.

There are no fewer than one hundred and fifty one sects described. So far as we have been able to examine this work we have found it impartial, accurate and concise—Presbyterian Witness.

The work is destined to a high place in popular favor, and to have an extensive circulation—Yarmouth Tribune.

It is a most valuable reference book and meets a want which almost every person has often felt.

REV. JAMES B. BONAR, Montreal, Canada East April 9, 1861.

The volume is an instance of the multum in parvo for nearly everything regarding these various sects which one desires to know without going minutely into their history or character may here be found.—Bishop White, George Fox, John Calvin and Wesley add very much to the attractiveness of the volume.

HENRY WILKS, D. D. Montreal, April 10th, 1861

I have examined carefully the book of Religious Denominations and upon the whole highly approve of it—1st—It is beautifully gotten up; 2nd—it supplies a want I have often heard expressed; 3rd—So far as I can judge it is (with some exceptions) a correct description, 4th—I presume that its price is as low as other of your publications.

REV WM BOND. Montreal, May 9, 1861

This is a handsome octavo volume of more than 500 pages, beautifully printed and elegantly bound. It comprises succinct, satisfactory and so far as I can judge correct and impartial statements of the origin and distinguishing tenets of about one hundred and fifty different denominations of religionists.

W. ORMESTON, D. D. Hamilton, C. W.

The Book will be sold exclusively by subscription, and every book delivered by my Agent (as a perfect book) that is not equal to the sample will be exchanged on its presentation at my Office. It contains over 500 pages octavo, is illustrated with fine steel portraits of distinguished Divines of the various Sects, and is gotten up in every respect in a superior style and will be furnished at a lower price than any book ever offered to the public of the same style and worth.

Agents wanted in every Town. Address: W. J. HOLLAND, Windsor, N. S. nov. 27.

PROSPECTUS

A NEW SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL.

WITH the beginning of the year 1862, the undersigned purposes commencing the publication of a new Semi-weekly newspaper, to be devoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Commercial, and General Intelligence.

As to its political tone, the undersigned will only say to those who have been in the habit of reading the Acadian Recorder, that the new journal will conform in its general tone to that which characterized the Recorder during the eight years—nearly—in which the latter was under his editorial management. In the management of the new journal he will, however, be more free to act in accordance with his own ideas of editorial judiciousness.

In the other departments of the projected journal, every possible pains will be taken to make it combine instruction with amusement for both the town and country reader; to furnish the latest news, both foreign and domestic, down to the hour of publication; to make the paper a reliable medium for commercial intelligence; and to render it worthy the commendation and support of the general reader.

It is proposed to issue the paper every Wednesday and Saturday evening. It will be printed on a sheet somewhat larger than that of any of the tri-weekly papers published in Halifax; and will contain more reading matter per week than is now furnished by any journal published in Nova Scotia.

Subscribers names may be forwarded to the undersigned, at his office, Granville street, third door south of Prince street.

New kind of Teeth.

COMPLETE DENTAL ESTABLISHMENT. No. 54 Granville Street.

DR. MACALLASTER is now using a new kind of Artificial Teeth, which surpass any that have ever been used in this Province. They differ from those formerly used in many respects—they are more natural, have none of that glossy artificial appearance which is so readily detected. He would respectfully inform those desirous of having Dentistry done that he never was better prepared to do good work than now.

FILLING TEETH.

This part of Dentistry is too much neglected by the public. In almost all cases persons wait until their teeth ache, which they should not do, but should have their teeth examined every six months if possible, and filled while the cavities are small; by so doing the teeth are restored to health, and made equally as good as before decayed.
