THE HISTORY

OF THE RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS OF THE WORLD.

COMPRISING a General View of the Origin, History and Condition of the various Sects of Christians, the Jews and Mahometan as well as Pagan forms of Religion, existing in the different countries of the East, with Sketches of the Founders of various Religious Sects.

From the best Authorities, BY VINCENT S. MILNER.

Milner's Views of the Religious Denominations of the World is a work I never saw before. I have however examined descriptions given of some of the bodies with whose principles and history I am pretty well acquainted and have found them generally correct and conveying much valuable information.

It supplies a vast amount of information not easily obtained from other books - Christian Messenger.

There are no fewer than one hundred and fifty one sects described. So far as we have been able to examine this work we have found it impartial, accurate and concise - Presbyterian Witness.

The work is destined to a high place in popular favor, and to have an extensive circulation - Yarmouth Tribune.

It is a most valuable reference book and meets a want which almost every person has often felt. REV. JAMES B. BONAR-Montreal, Canada East April 9, 1861.

The volume is an instance of the multum in parvo for nearly everything regarding these various sects which one desires to know without going minutely into their history or character may here be found. Bishop White, George Fox, John Calvin and Wesley add very much to the attractiveness of the volume. HENRY WILKS, D. D. Montreal, April 10th, 1861.

I have examined carefully the book of Religious Denominations and up to the whole highly approve of it: - 1st - It is beautifully gotten up; 2nd - it supplies a want I have often heard expressed; 3rd - So far as I can judge it is (with some exceptions) a correct description, 4th - I presume that its price is as low as other of your publications. REV WM BOND. Montreal, May 9, 1861.

This is a handsome octavo volume of more than 500 pages, beautifully printed and elegantly bound. It comprises succinct, satisfactory and so far as I can judge correct and impartial statements of the origin and distinguishing tenets of about one hundred and fifty different denominations of religionists. W. ORMESTON, D. D. Hamilton, C. W.

The Book will be sold exclusively by subscription, and every book delivered by my Agent (as a perfect book) that is not equal to the sample will be exchanged on its presentation at my Office. It contains over 500 pages octavo. It is illustrated with fine steel portraits of distinguished Divines of the various Sects, and is gotten up in every respect in a superior style and will be furnished at a lower price than any book ever offered to the public of the same style and worth. Agents wanted in every Town. Address. W. J. HOLLAND, Windsor, N. S.

PROSPECTUS

A NEW SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL.

WITH the beginning of the year 1862, the undersigned proposes commencing the publication of a new Semi-weekly newspaper, to be devoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Commercial, and General Intelligence.

As to its political tone, the undersigned will only say to those who have been in the habit of reading the Acadian Recorder, that the new journal will conform in its general tone to that which characterized the Recorder during the eight years - nearly - in which the latter was under his editorial management.

In the management of the new journal he will, however, be more free to act in accordance with his own ideas of editorial judiciousness. On this head, he will only say further, and for the information of the general public, that the substantial interests of the British American Colonies, rather than the petty squabbles of local factions, in which the public welfare is not materially involved, will receive the most constant consideration and careful discussion; and that whilst, in what relates to disputes between rival political parties, it is not promised that neutrality will ever be the policy pursued, every effort will be made to maintain always an attitude of strict independence and impartiality; and that, whilst no party will receive a blind support, towards none will there be exhibited a factious opposition.

In the other departments of the projected journal, every possible pains will be taken to make it combine instruction with amusement for both the town and country reader; to furnish the latest news, both foreign and domestic, down to the hour of publication; to make the paper a reliable medium for commercial intelligence; and to render it worthy the commendation and support of the general reader.

It is proposed to issue the paper every Wednesday and Saturday evening. It will be printed on a sheet somewhat larger than that of any of the tri-weekly papers published in Halifax; and will contain more reading matter per week than is now furnished by any journal published in Nova Scotia. The subscription money will be fifteen shillings a year, if paid in advance, or within three months from the commencement of the year; twenty shillings, if not paid until after the expiration of three months.

Subscribers' names may be forwarded to the undersigned, at his office, Granville street, third door south of the post office.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION. 1862.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS OF NOVA SCOTIA. HALIFAX, Nov. 11, 1861.

THE following additions to the list of Premiums, &c., already published, have been made:

The best assortment of furniture, which need not be made of Native Wood, £25 0 0
Best assortment of Flax, viz: (if practicable at this date) not less than 14 lbs of the Stalk and not less than 4 lbs of the Flax, in each of the different stages of preparation; also 1 bushel of Flax Seed, 5 0 0

All articles contributed must be left at the Exhibition Office (the Speaker's Room), Province Building, where J. Outram, Esq., will be in attendance from 10 until 4 p. m., each day. In his absence, Mr. Venables, the Keeper of the Building, residing in the Upper Story, will take charge of all articles.

It is important that all persons intending to send things to the Exhibition should communicate as soon as possible to the Secretary, the nature, number, and size of the articles which they intend to contribute, so that the Commissioners may make the necessary arrangements as to space, &c.

All articles must positively be in possession of the Commissioners by January 8th, or they will be too late to compete for premiums.

Printed lists of premiums, with full instructions to contributors, may be seen at every Post-office and Way-office in the Province, and on application to the County Committees.

R. H. HALLIBURTON, Secretary. Nov. 20. 41.

Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

Has been for thirty years the Standard Remedy. RECENT COUGHS AND COLDS, Pleuritic pains, &c., are quickly and effectually cured by its diaphoretic, soothing and Expectorant power.

Asthma it always cures. It overcomes the spasmodic contraction of the air vessels, and by producing free expectoration, at once removes all difficulty of breathing.

Bronchitis readily yields to the Expectorant. It subdues the inflammation which extends through the wind tubes, produces free expectoration, and suppresses at once the Cough and Pain.

Consumption - For this insidious and fatal disease, no remedy on earth has ever been found so effectual. It subdues the inflammation, - relieves the Cough and Pain, - removes the difficulty of breathing, and produces an easy expectoration, whereby all irritating and obstructing matters are removed from the lungs.

Whooping Cough is promptly relieved by this Expectorant. It shortens the duration of the disease one-half, and greatly mitigates the sufferings of the patient.

In all Pulmonary Complaints, in Pleurisy, &c., it will be found to be prompt, safe, pleasant and reliable, and may be especially commended to Ministers, Teachers, and Singers, for the relief of Hoarseness, and for strengthening the organs of the voice. Here is a portion of the testimony:

Rev. John Dowling, D. D., Pastor of the Berean Baptist Church, N. Y., writes: "I have long known the virtues of Jayne's Expectorant, and frequently tested them on myself and family, when afflicted with Coughs or Colds. I believe it to be one of the best remedies ever discovered for these maladies."

Mr. Reading Doty, of Twenty-Mile Stand, Warren county, Ohio, says: "Recently I had an attack of Asthma, the most distressing of all diseases, and yesterday afternoon, after taking a short ride, I returned home almost unable to breathe. Through the persuasion of my wife, I was led to try Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant. The first dose gave instant relief, and after the fourth dose I enjoyed a refreshing sleep, and the next morning arose in better health than for two years past."

Rev. N. M. Jones, Rector of the Church of St. Bartholomew, (Protestant Episcopal,) Philadelphia, writes: "In all cases resembling Consumption, I recommend Jayne's Expectorant, having in so many cases witnessed its beneficial effects."

Mr. Preston B. Ewing, Laconie, Harrison county Ind., writes: "Being afflicted with Bronchitis for the space of three years, to such an extent that I was obliged to relinquish the teaching of the Vocal Music, and fails to obtain any relief from the Physician whom I consulted, I gave Jayne's Expectorant a trial. After using it for a few weeks I was very much relieved, and by its continued use my throat is now entirely clear of any disease."

Mr. John Henry, of Burlington, Bradford, Co. Pa., says: "For two years my son was afflicted with a disease resembling Consumption, and during this period was unable to labor. Being finally induced to try Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, he was completely cured after taking ten bottles, and he is now able to work every day."

Rev. Valentine Gray, of the Methodist Church, writes from Centerville, Pa. "Having experienced the beneficial effects of your Family Medicine, I would give it as my opinion that they are the very best I ever had occasion to use, and most cheerfully recommend them to the afflicted. Your Expectorant, especially, I have found to be a sure cure for Coughs and Colds."

Mr. Larkin Dehart, Pleasant Point, Illinois, writes: "On our youngest child, 11 months old, is subject to the Croup. At each attack of the disease we give it your Expectorant, according to directions, and it always affords immediate relief. I have just recovered from a severe Cough, which had settled on my lungs, and attribute my cure to Providence and the use of the Expectorant."

This Expectorant, and all of Jayne's Family Medicines are sold by Brown Brothers & Co., Ordinance Square, Halifax, and by Agents throughout the country. Nov. 15.
