THEOLOGICAL

SABBATH SCHOOL BOOKS.

which are adapted for clergymen and Baptist Sabbath Schools, including the publications of the American Baptist Publication Society, America's S. S. Union, Gould & Lincoln, Sheldon & Co., Henry Hoyt, Mass. Sabbath School Society, American Tract Society, New York Tract Society, Methodist Book Concern, Robert Carter & Bro., and other publishing Societies and booksellers.

Those Books coming from doubtful sources are all examined, and none recommended which are not adapted to BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Having been engaged for many years in selecting libraries for Sabbath Schools, I am confident I can give good satisfaction.

All orders will be thankfully received, and such a selection of books sent as is deemed best, giving the purchaser the privilege of exchanging any not desired. Bundles can be sent by any packet or steamer from Boston.

Question Books, Reward Cards, Music Books, &c., &c. of every kind constantly on hand.

Pastors, Superintendents, and Teachers are specially invited to send their orders direct to me, as it will save them much trouble in selecting from several places. Catalogues forwarded if desired.

VALUABLE

Question Books.

SABBATH SCHOOL STUDIES ON THE LIFE OF CHRIST, First and Second Grade, by Rev. W. S. McKenzie.—Price 10 Cents each.

The object of the Author in preparing these Books was to have a book where his whole Sabbath School could have the same subject before them. He therefore prepared two sets of Questions, one for the smaller portion of the School, and one for the older. After using them in his own School and proving them a perfect success, he corrected them, and now they are presented to the public.

The subject is also continued in a second volume making a complete History of Christ.

The Watchman and Reflector says, in announcing the work:

"The books are original in their theme and design; their subject being the Biography of Christ, presented in an attractive, connected chronological history. The design is to have the same subject studied by the whole School at the same time. Hence, there are two books, of the first and second grade containing the same number of lessons. Each lesson in each book is on precisely the same portion of scripture; so that scholars in the primary department are going over the same ground as the advanced classes. There are evident advantages in having the whole School studying the same topic and portion of scripture.

"With this, teacher's meetings will offer inducements for the attendance of all the teachers; and when the Superintendent questions the School on the lesson, the youngest as well as the oldest feels an interest in the exercise; and also, when at home the lesson is studied, the young as well as the old in the family will be upon the same theme. The conception of the author is a happy one, and his design carried out must be highly acceptable."

From Prof. H. B. Hackett, of Newton Institution.—I have examined some of the pages of Rev. Mr. McKenzie's Question Books on the Life of the Saviour. I regard the plan of the work (which differs quite materially from that of any similar work) as excellent, the questions as eminently judicious and well suited to interest and instruct the learner. It cannot fail to prove a welcome and useful auxiliary to the cause of Sabbath School instruction.

I have also lately issued the COMPREHENSIVE QUESTION BOOK, on Prominent Biblical events, from the Creation to the End of the World, by Rev. J. Barnard, author of the Topical Question Book, Infant Series, &c.—Price 10 Cents.

The Sabbath School Gems,

By Rev. J. M. GRAVES.

Price in paper cover, $1.00 per dozen; cloth, $1.75.

This book contains more than 200 hymns with appropriate music on the same page. The selection of hymns is believed the best ever before published for children. It contains many of the most popular tunes. Several thousand copies have been sold within a short time.

Sample copies of the above sent free of expense, at the above price.

Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

Has been for thirty years the Standard Remedy.

RECENT COUGHS AND COLDS, Pleuritic Pains, &c., are quickly and effectually cured by its diaphoretic, soothing and Expectorant power.

Asthma it always cures. It overcomes the spasmodic contraction of the air vessels, and by producing free expectoration, at once removes all difficulty of breathing.

Bronchitis readily yields to the Expectorant. It subdues the inflammation which extends through the wind tubes, produces free expectoration, and suppresses at once the Cough and Pain.

Consumption—For this insidious and fatal disease, no remedy on earth has ever been found so effectual. It subdues the inflammation,—relieves the Cough and Pain,—removes the difficulty of breathing, and produces an easy expectoration, whereby all irritating and obstructing matters are removed from the lungs.

Whooping Cough is promptly relieved by this Expectorant. It shortens the duration of the disease one-half, and greatly mitigates the sufferings of the patient.

In all Pulmonary Complaints, in Pleurisy, &c., it will be found to be prompt, safe, pleasant and reliable, and may be especially commended to Ministers, Teachers, and Singers, for the relief of Hoarseness, and for strengthening the organs of the voice. Here is a portion of the testimony:

Rev. John Dowling, D. D., Pastor of the Berean, Baptist Church, N. Y., writes:

"I have long known the virtues of Jayne's Expectorant, and frequently tested them on myself and family, when afflicted with Coughs or Colds. I believe it to be one of the best remedies ever discovered for these maladies."

Mr. Reading Doty, of Twenty-Mile Stand, Warren county, Ohio, says:

"Recently I had an attack of Asthma, the most distressing of all diseases, and yesterday afternoon; after taking a short ride, I returned home almost unable to breathe. Through the persuasion of my wife, I was led to try Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant. The first dose gave instant relief, and after the fourth dose I enjoyed a refreshing sleep, and the next morning arose in better health than for two years past."

Rev. N. M. Jones, Rector of the Church of St. Bartholomew, (Protestant Episcopal,) Philadelphia, writes:

"In all cases resembling Consumption, I recommend Jayne's Expectorant, having in so many cases witnessed its beneficial effects."

Mr. Preston B. Ewing, Lacon, Harrison county Ind., writes:

"Being afflicted with Bronchitis for the space of three years, to such an extent that I was obliged to relinquish the teaching of the Vocal Music, and fail to obtain any relief from the Physician whom I consulted, I gave Jayne's Expectorant a trial. After using it for a few weeks I was very much relieved, and by its continued use my throat is now entirely clear of any disease."

Mr. John Henry, of Burlington, Bradford, Co. Pa., says:—

"For two years my son was afflicted with a disease resembling Consumption, and during this period was unable to labor. Being finally induced to try Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, he was completely cured after taking ten bottles, and he is now able to work every day."

Rev. Valentine Gray, of the Methodist Church, writes from Centerville, Pa.

"Having experienced the beneficial effects of your Family Medicine. I would give it as my opinion that they are the very best I ever had occasion to use, and most cheerfully recommend them to the afflicted. Your Expectorant, especially, I have found to be a sure cure for Coughs and Colds."

Mr. Larkin Dehart, Pleasant Point, Illinois, writes:

"On our youngest child, 11 months old, is subject to the Croup. At each attack of the disease we give it your Expectorant, according to directions, and it always affords immediate relief. I have just recovered from a severe Cough, which had settled on my lungs, and attribute my cure to Providence and the use of the Expectorant."

This Expectorant, and all of Jayne's Family Medicines are sold by Brown Brothers & Co., Ordinance Square, Halifax, and by Agents throughout the country. Nov. 13.
