

be known by comparing it with the following extract :

Mr. R. stated that Mr. Elder "had—this is the substance of the charge—first 'doubted' then 'investigated'—then 'decided'—and was preparing to make his 'public profession' in the way and manner which he supposed would be wisest and most effectual, while as yet no mortal, save his wife, knew anything of it. The good woman, true to the instincts and reputation of her sex, "let the cat out of the bag." Two leading brethren in the Church immediately waited upon Mr. Elder and asked if the statement was true. He replied, without equivocation, that it was."

Whether "mistakes" have been made, and if so, by whom, may be left to the intelligent reader. There may have been misapprehension on one or both sides as to what the other intended by the language employed, but not much as to what was said. It is not unusual for this to be the case where difference of opinion exists.—Ed. C. M.]

News Summary.

The English Steamer, which arrived on Wednesday last, brought London dates to the 2nd inst. The posture of European affairs in general is unchanged. Although a restless and uneasy feeling, as if the precursor of coming war, seems to pervade Europe, there is nothing so distinct in political movements, as to warrant any certain anticipation of so dire a calamity. The French Emperor and his immense, and apparently needless, warlike armaments, are naturally the source of this fear, and as there is a prospect of extensive scarcity in France, owing to very limited crops, it is thought, by many, that Louis Napoleon, in accordance with a policy not unusual with the rulers of that restless nation, may hatch up some foreign war to divert the minds of the discontented, and fix them on what is always the summum bonum of a Frenchman—glory.

Speculation as to the withdrawal from Rome of the French troops, is still at fault, and hard feelings against France, on this account, are daily increasing in Italy. Both Hungary and Poland are still in the same state of virtual hostility to their respective Governments.

An unaccountable inactivity still prevails in the movements of the hostile armies on the Potomac. The great naval and military expedition which sailed from New York for the South, has effected its landing at Port Royal, an inlet of the sea a little to the South of Charleston, with little loss. It is reported that their object is to invest that City, and Gen. Beauregard is reported to have left the command of the Army of the Potomac, to take charge of the forces on the coast. As usual, however, almost all that we hear, is vague and uncertain.

General Intelligence.

DOMESTIC.

SUPREME COURT.—Trial for Murder.—Thursday and Friday last were occupied by the application on behalf of Edgar Burdell and Frederick Lane for a jury de mediate lingua—composed of half belonging to the same country as the prisoners. Hon. J. W. Johnston and J. W. Ritchie on behalf of the defence and the Attorney General and the Solicitor General for the prosecution. The arguments of counsel were heard and on Saturday morning the decision of the Judges was given against such jury. It will therefore proceed as usual.

On Monday, when the trial was about to commence, J. W. Ritchie, the counsel for the prisoners, called the attention of the court to an imperfection in the summoning of the jury—that 33 only had been summoned, whereas 36 should have been called. Sixteen of the number answered to their names. The Attorney General then moved that the writ be quashed, and another writ issued for Tuesday next, which was granted.—The Court then adjourned till Tuesday next at 10 o'clock. The Court was densely crowded.

A LIGHT-HOUSE has been erected on the extreme Southern point of Cape Sable Island, lat. 43° 24' N. long. 65° 36' W.—the scene of the unfortunate wreck of the Hungarian.

On Thursday last several ripe White Raspberries were gathered by Mr. A. McLeod, in his garden in Morris Street. This is another proof of the extreme mildness of the season.

We understand about fifty varieties of apples from one orchard in Cornwallis, and about thirty from another, have been sent in to the Commissioners, for the International Exhibition. Some of them, it is said weigh fourteen ounces. Sun.

Mr. George McDonald of the Garden of Eden, and his son, aged about 7 years, were drowned at McLellan's Brook, Pictou, on Thursday last.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—Sudden death of Mr. Joseph Eaton.—We have been visited by a mournful Providence, in the death by drowning, of our much esteemed Brother Joseph Eaton, of Lower Canard.

On the afternoon of the 5th inst., the deceased was engaged in removing a small raft of boards to the Picket wharf, when at a short distance from the place of landing, he accidentally, it is supposed, fell into the river. Being an expert swimmer, he probably preferred swimming to the shore, which he evidently reached, but from fatigue and cold was unable to land, and no assistance being at hand, slid from the mud bank and was drowned. The body was soon recovered but the spirit had gone to God who gave it.—His little son from a distance saw his father in the water, gave the alarm, but assistance came too late.

Seldom in this community, have we had an event, that so deeply impressed the public mind. Our dear departed brother has been a member of the Canard Baptist Church nearly fifteen years, and ever sustained a consistent christian walk. In the community generally he was esteemed and respected for his integrity and amiable deportment.

A widow and one son ten years of age, also an aged mother and several brothers and sisters, mourn an irreparable loss. We all mourn as for a brother beloved. There is, however, great consolation, and joy mingles with the grief. Our brother's well grounded hope, we doubt not, was an anchor cast within the veil. We trust, the Providence, so painful to us all, will constrain the thoughtless and impenitent to remember that Death often comes as a thief in the night.

The deceased was 33 years of age and the youngest son of the late Deacon William Eaton.—Com. for the Christian Messenger. Canard, November 9th, 1861.

[We perceive that some of our contemporaries have mistaken the name in their report of the above, and printed it "Master Eaton." Ed. C.M.]

TRURO.—The Inaugural Lecture for the present season of the Young Men's Christian Association was delivered on Friday evening last, by Rev. Dr. Cramp. Subject, "Mysteries and their teachings." The Presbyterian Church, in which the lecture was delivered, was well filled by a numerous and respectable audience. The Rev. Dr. Forrester, the President of the Society, occupied the chair, and at the close made some remarks highly complimentary, particularly with regard to the adaptation of the lecture to the occasion.

DIGBY.—The schr. Fair Play, McKay, carried away her flying jib-boom, while beating from Bear Island over to Digby.

The schr. Jim, of Cornwallis, put into this port to-day, having had some 66 sheep washed from her deck during the North-Easter of to-day.

During the severe gale of to-day, the abutment of the breakwater, building at this place, was again carried away from its moorings; but was not injured.

A young woman, named Pooley, living at Bear River, was unfortunately burned to death on Monday last, by her clothes accidentally igniting. After suffering about twenty-four hours after the fire was extinguished, she breathed her last.—Acadian, 7th.

RUN THE BLOCKADE.—The Schr. Emery belonging to Mr. Simon Barss of this city, arrived here last evening from Savannah. The Emery left the latter port on the 7th inst., at right, and passed several of the ships composing the great Naval Expedition off the harbor. She has a cargo of Turpentine and Rosin, the value of which, we are told, is about $27,000. This is the second vessel, belonging to Mr. Barss, which has succeeded in running the blockade. The former one, however, in making another attempt, was captured by the gun-boat Gemsbok and taken into Baltimore.—Recorder.
