

date, received in this city, speaks of the scarcity of provisions there as really of the most alarming character.

THE CROPS.—There appears to be a prospect of abundance of fruit in all the Northern and Western States.

The Wheeling Intelligencer thus speaks of the prospect in Western Virginia:—We learn from all directions that there never before was such ample evidences of an abundant crop.

The Peoria (Illinois) Transcript says:—Farmers with whom we have conversed give the most cheering accounts of the progress of agricultural operations in the rural districts.

An old pear tree in New York, 175 years old, called the Stuyvesant pear tree, is this year profusely filled with blossoms.

OUTRAGE UPON A FOREIGN CONSULATE BY GENERAL BUTLER.—A short time since, General Butler seized upon a large amount of specie at the office of the Consul of the Netherlands.

A PROTEST FROM THE FOREIGN CONSULS.

New Orleans, May 12, 1862. Major General B. F. Butler, U. S. A., commanding Department of the Gulf.

GENERAL: It having come to the knowledge of the undersigned that the consulate of his majesty the King of Netherlands in this city had been forcibly entered by your order by some persons in the uniform of soldiers in the service of the United States government, the person of the consul subjected to indignity and severe ill usage, and kept prisoner for several hours, it becomes the duty of the undersigned, in view of treaties now existing between the governments which we represent and that of the United States government, to formally protest against such action, and against any act authorized by you or any authority of the United States that may be in contravention of such treaties.

MEJAN, Consul of France. LORENZO GALLEGO, Consul of Spain. Consuls of Belgium, Hanover, Brazil, Nassau and Brunswick, Greece, Bremen, Sweden and Norway, Portugal, Vice-Consul of Italy, Consul of England, Austria, Hamburg, Wurtemberg, Russia, Denmark, Switzerland.

Gen. Butler says in his reply:—"The flag of the Netherlands was made to cover and conceal property of an incorporated company of Louisiana, secreted under it from the operation of the laws of the United States.

I have the honour to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant. BENJ. F. BUTLER, Major General Commanding."

Sweet children how short your stay, How soon your journey's o'er, Your spirits fled away, To visit earth no more, Your spirits found a nearer road, Than thousands, to your blest abode.

Also May 2nd, Louisa, youngest daughter of the late Capt. Willis and Jerusha Todd, aged 12 years.

She died trusting in Jesus and manifested great anxiety that all her relatives should prepare to meet her in heaven.

She came to the cross when her young cheek was blooming, And raised to the Lord the bright glance of her eye, And when o'er its beauty death's darkness was gloomy, The same cross upheld her—the Saviour was nigh.

Also May 6th, Olivia P., aged 7 years and 4 months. 9th, Eleanor R., aged 1 year and 7 months. 25th, William, aged 3 years and 9 months. Children of Deacon Joshua and Maria Chadsey.

Bold infidelity turn pale and die, Beneath this sod three children's ashes lie, Say, are they lost, or saved,— If death's by sin, they sinned because they're here, If heaven's by works, in heaven they can't appear, Reason ah! how depraved,— Reverse the sacred page—the knot's untied, They died, for Adam sinned; they live, for Jesus died.

Also May 12th, Robert James, aged 10 years, only son of Stephen and Cynthia Harding. This child's conversation during his last hours astonished all who heard him. He left behind him satisfactory evidence that Heaven was to be his future home.

Oh arise, like the monarch of Judah, repair To the house of the Lord; humbly worship him there, May love of thy lost one instruct thee to learn, To him thou canst go, but he cannot return.

HALIFAX, May 5th, 1862.

Mr. Gordon: Dear Sir.—About eighteen months since my son was taken with a severe pain in the side, which settled down into his hip, from the effects of which he became completely crippled. I procured a bottle of your "Rheumatic Remedy," and by three applications—up to the time I left home (Indian Harbour)—he was so much relieved as to be able to walk; and I hope so by continuing the use of the Liniment he will be entirely cured. He also took a small quantity inwardly. Your, etc. JOHN MCCONNELL, Capt. of the "Laleah" of Indian Harbor.
