

ments in Baltimore, Trenton and other cities.—Whole of Hooker's army reported occupying line from Dumfries to Bull run, including old battle field. Lee is believed on the other side of Bull Run mountains. Cannonading heard today at Washington in direction of Centreville.—It is also reported that Lee's whole army numbers 150,000, divided into three divisions, with distinct work assigned to each.

JUNE 18.—The latest news from Harrisburg reports that the Confederates under Jenkins evacuated Chambersburg yesterday afternoon. Troops for the defence of the State are rapidly arriving and the panic has considerably subsided.

Montgomery's colored troops made a raid into Georgia, destroying Darien and Bridge on the Savannah and Brunswick R. R.

The Federal gunboats have destroyed Simm's Port on the Atchafalaya River.

JUNE 19.—Excitement throughout Pennsylvania materially abated. Invasion was exaggerated—only Confederate force in Pennsylvania being 35,000 men, under Jenkins and Rhodes, at Hagerstown and Greencastle, and they retreated on Wednesday P. M., it is supposed to Hagerstown. They respected private property and paid for all goods in Confederate scrip.

Harrisburg and Pittsburg are being strongly fortified, as it is still believed it may enter into Lee's plans to attack those places, although belief is general that the capture of Washington is the object of Lee's campaign.

Lee's main army was on Tuesday at Thoroughfare Gap, forty miles west of Washington.

On Wednesday an engagement occurred at Aldie, on Bull Run Mountains, between detachment Federal cavalry and Fitz Hugh Lee's Brigade, in which Federals drove Confederates from several positions for five miles, and captured seventy Confederate prisoners.

Governors of New York, Jersey, and Pennsylvania very active in raising and forwarding militia to points threatened.—Numerous regiments left New York, Philadelphia, and others organizing. New York 7th regt. is stationed at Baltimore.

Popular clamor for re-appointment of McClellan continues. Philadelphia, New York municipalities proposed resolutions urging President to reinstate McClellan.

JUNE 20.—It is considered certain that General Lee is advancing upon Hooker's army.

An attack was apprehended in Baltimore on Wednesday, and the north and north-western roads leading to the city were barricaded with tobacco hogheads.

On Wednesday night the Confederates crossed the Potomac at two points, and drove the Federals from Point of Rocks and Catoctin Station; afterwards capturing a military train running between Harper's Ferry and Baltimore.

JUNE 22.—Confederates reported occupying south bank of Potomac, from Cumberland to Harper's Ferry—Rhodes having 20,000 at Williamsport.

Latest reports state they are 40,000 strong at Hagerstown, and fortifying.

Federals made appearance at Frederick, and four miles this side; supposed enemy has designs on Baltimore. Earthworks and barricades of tobacco hogheads are being erected.

Small Confederate force also raided into Gettysburg.

Confederate iron-clad steamer Atlanta, formerly English steamer Fingal, has been captured off Savannah.

Celebrated blockade runner steamer Herald was sunk in attempting to enter Charleston.

Steamer Calypso has been captured at Wilmington, N. C.

Latest from Europe!

By the Mersey which arrived at this port on Saturday night, the Scotia at New York, and the Bohemia off Cape Race, we have late news from Europe.

The Times in an editorial reviewing the latest incidents of the war, says that the end of the struggle no one now attempts to predict, nor does it seem that any of the incidents which in other countries conduce to peace, have any effect in America except that of adding to the fierceness and fury of the war.

In the House of Commons on the 1st June, Sir R. Peel said Government was aware that Federal agents were in Ireland, but they did not recruit openly. A number of young men had left Ireland for America, and had been induced to enlist. The Government took the matter up, but it was difficult to arrive at the facts.

Palmerston, in moving the second reading of the Slave Treaty Bill, said its objects were new to the liberality of the United States. The present bill contained a supplementary article extending the right of search to the neighborhood of Madagascar.

Subscriptions exceeding £300,000 to the Atlantic Telegraph Company having been received, letters of allotment had been issued.

FRANCE.—Special despatches from Mexico represent the progress of the French at Puebla as vigorous and satisfactory.

PORTUGAL.—The corvette Goa had been sent to cruise in the waters at the Azores, to look after the American vessels of war.

TURKEY.—Faud Pasha has been nominated Grand Vizier. The death of Sultan Achmet Khan, at Herat, is announced.

Negotiations are nearly completed for the transfer of the Hudson Bay Co's rights to the British Government.

The Brazilian Minister had left London for Paris. The protocol settling the succession of the Greek Throne on Prince William of Denmark has been signed by three of the protecting powers, and the Danish minister.

The insurrection in Poland keeps active. It is supposed that the opposition in the French Legislature will have 25 members. The voting in Paris shows a gain to the opposition.

The King of the Belgians is seriously ill. The papers and municipality of Berlin protest against the ordinance gagging the press. The municipality will address the King on the unconstitutional state of affairs. The Crown Prince, in a speech at Dantzig, repudiated the press ordinance, but declared his faith in the King.

The Poles had defeated the Russians at Grochow, with heavy loss. On the following day a portion of the same division of Russians were again defeated.

In the House of Commons Cunningham suggested negotiations with Washington for suppression of Slave trade in the Southern States.

FRANCE.—Reported that the Emperor seriously contemplates introducing before long certain reforms, particularly with respect to liberty of speech and ministerial responsibilities. Bourse heavy, 69.20.

London Money Market heavy. Consols declined on 8th and 10th, but rather firm on 11th. Money Market firm. Nothing done below 4 per cent. for best bills.

Breadstuffs dull. Provisions unchanged.

Dear as thou wert, and justly dear, Why should we weep for thee, One thought should check the falling tear: It is that thou art free.

UPPER SHUBENACADIE, March 10, 1863.

A loaded Trolley passed over the foot of my son, a boy of seven years of age, bruising it severely between the wheel and iron rail of the railroad; it was soon very much swelled and blackened. We tried some remedies, without the appearance of benefit, when we doubted it would lame him for life. We at length applied Graham's Pain Eradicator; it took out the pain and blackness, and soon reduced the swelling and he was able to walk about the next day and was quite well in two days.

JOHN ROSS.

Better than any Other.

REV. MRS. E. C. ANDRUS, for many years Missionary to Haiti, now of Martinsburg, N. Y., (the climate having seriously affected her hair and scalp, writes: "I have derived much benefit from the use of Mrs. S. A. Allyn's Word's Hair Restorer and Zylolbalsam. I have tried various other remedies but never anything that so materially and permanently benefited me."
