by the importers of tobacco, I mean). The exports are given in the Returns for the same year, as amounting to 23.456 dollars, leaving the amount of $87,120, (eighty seven thousand one hundred aud twenty dollars) worth, to be used in the country. A gentleman well skilled in mercantile affairs, had the kindness to go over these figures with me the other day, and to add the probable profits, costs and charges, all the way down till the article reaches the mouth or nose of the consumer. We added the probable amount smuggled, and the probable amount spent in cigars and snuff. As we could not get the exact returns from the smugglers or cigar-smokers, and snuffers, we had to guess at it, and the estimate of the whole cost amounted to the en ormous sum of three hundred and sixty seven thousand four hundred and fifty dollars ! ($367,-450).

Now we claim that the tobacco consumers, (for it comes out of their pockets after all,) ought to be able to show that they get the worth of their money. Theard a respectable merchant in Halifax say last winter, that having had occasion to investigate the matter, he had learned that there are three articles of agriculture and commerce, which the world over take the lead by a long distance, of all others The first is corn, the second is cotton, the third is tobacco. Over thirty million pounds are destroyed in Great Britain in one year, yielding a revenue of over twenty five millions of dollars, and amounting, as in Nova Scotia, to nearly a dollar for every individual of the population. Verily such an enormous sum ought to do great good to the country. The good done by corn and cotton is manifest. They feed the hungry, and clothe the naked. But tobacco does neither. Corn and cotton increase the happiness and the means of usefulness to the consumer. There are no tangible, plain, undeniable facts, to prove that tobacco makes the consumer either happier, wiser, or better. The facts are all on the other side. But even admitting that it does the country at large some good, still unless that advantage corresponds in some good degree with the cost, there is waste ; the coat for which we paid twenty dollars, is not worth ten ; the horse for which we paid five and thirty pounds, turns out to be an old broken down ring-boned and spavened affair, and has got the heaves terribly. We have paid two dear for our whistle. We

OVER THE FALLS - We hear that two men went over Niagara Falls last Friday evening. It is stated that at eight o'clock in the evening, just after dark, a party of gentlemen crossing the bridge from Goat Island, saw a boat containing two men, coming down the rapids. It passed beneath the bridge, and soon disappeared. It was supposed that the unfortunate men attempted to cross from Chippewa, and that the current proved too strong for them as they reached this side of the river.-Lockport Journal.

COMMON SCHOOL EDUCATION .- The whole number of educational institutions of every kind in Upper Canada was, according to Dr. Ryerson's report for 1862, 4,554, being an increase of 95. The amount available for educational purposes, was, $1,703,216, an increase of $33,192. The whole number of pupils was, 343,733, being an increase of 13,815. The number of children of school age, reported as not attending any school, was, 42,314, being a decrease of 5,457.

You have suggested that in an army-our army-drunkenness is a great evil, and one which, while it exists to a very great extent, we cannot expect to overcome so entirely as to leave such successes in our arms as we might have without it. ### ITALY.

The Italian correspondent of The Star at Turin gives an interesting analysis of a measure which the Minister of Public Worship is shortly about to submit to the Parliament of Italy. The bill has for its object to suppress a great numher of the monastic corporations in Italy, and to bring the remaining ecclesiastical institutions into a more direct connection with the State by requiring them within a given time to convert their revenues into national rente.

And as young Franklin began in mediately to reflect how many other good things he could have bought with his money had he not foolishly wasted it on the whis: le; so let us look for a moment at what might be done for our country by the money we waste in tobacco. We will drop the $67,450 dollars, the remaining three hundred thousand would pay the interest on five million dollars ($5,000,000.00). This sum would build one hundred and twentyfive miles of railroad, at a cost of forty thousand dollars per mile. Thus the tobacco used in Nova Scotia in one year, would extend our railroad from Windsor to Victoria Beach. The next year it would put it on to Yarmouth ; and to Liverpool around the shore the next. People grumble about our little piece of a railroad costing so much. Bah! it is the tobacco that costs so much, and that keeps everybody so poor.

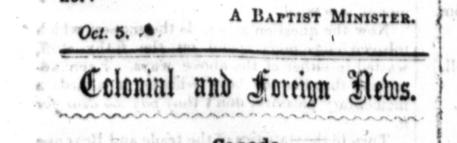

But let us look once more at what might be done with this money. And now lest we may have done smugglers, cigar and souff-users, injustice, we will drop the odd hundred thousand, and call it two hundred thousand dollars ($200, 000). This sum would sustain, say

Telegraphic intelligence from Réunion, by way of Suez, reports that M M. The Queen wishes to have the treaty modified, but the French agents demand a full ratification, and threatens if that is not done to break off all relations with the Government of Madagascar. Meanwhile the Hermione has not saluted the Malagasy flag.
