

Latest from the States!

[From Telegrams to Morning and Evening papers.]

JULY 28th.—Charleston bombardment was progressing on the 24th and 25th. The Yankees have two batteries in Morris Island and a strengthened position.

Returned prisoners from Richmond report wholesale conscription commenced there, twenty-four hours after Jeff Davis's proclamation.

Grant's entire army gone to Vicksburg, having destroyed all machine shops, rolling stock, and railroad track between Jackson and Vicksburg.

Paroled rebel officers from Vicksburg have been taken in arms in Virginia.

Rebel prisoners are unanimous in stating that the morale of the army in Virginia is broken, and that great despondency prevails in all Southern circles, particularly in the army.

JULY 29.—Martial Law has been proclaimed in Lexington, and all able bodied citizens are being ordered to report for duty.

JULY 31.—Colonel Pegram crossed Cumberland River a day or two since, with nearly 2,000 men moving north to Richmond. Supposed he was not aware of Morgan's capture, and intended to assist his escape.

Army of Potomac occupies practically same line as two months ago, comparatively inactive. Recruiting and recuperating the order of the day.

Battery of heavy siege guns have been erected within a hundred yards of Fort Wagner. Whole Federal loss on Morris Island, since commencement of operation, about 1100.—Confederate loss heavy in last action. Women and children are leaving Charleston. Free negroes are being impressed into service.

Herald reports that ere this Earl Russell has been informed that United States will not permit fitting out of pirates in British ports, and will not hesitate to enter such ports and seize them, &c. (Oh!)

Herald's Jackson correspondence says the defensive works there are very strong, one line being constructed of 200 bales of cotton two miles in extent and covered with earth.

Evening.—Tribune has letter from Richmond stating that Vice President Stephens' mission to the Federal Government was to induce it to desist from arming negroes, or Confederacy would retaliate by arming slaves against Federals under their masters as officers.

New Orleans letter reports the Confederates retreating beyond Atchafalaya.

The Tribune correspondent says the Federal loss during the late assault at Fort Wagner was 1571. The Confederates claim to have buried 650.

Judge Betts has decided to condemn the Peterhoff, Springbok, and C. Hart for constructive violation of the blockade.

The Herald's Washington despatch says that both wings of the democratic party are about organizing for the next Presidential organization on a war platform, ignoring the slavery question and administration, and denouncing copperheadism, with a view of uniting democracy of all the loyal States.

AUGUST 1.—Officers from Grant's army, calculated on occupying Mobile about the middle of August.

Of 117 conscripts and substitutes from Connecticut, 40 escaped upon landing at New York yesterday.

A Confederate force of 500 took Stanford, Ky, but were driven out, and at last advices were hastily retreating towards Cumberland river.

Information from the front says that Lee was moving nearer the South bank of the Rappahannock. Meade was close at hand, rendering Lee's retreat to Fredericksburg no easy matter.

A despatch to the New York Times says, that an order will be issued to commence the draft again in New York on next Monday.

AUG. 3.—President Lincoln proclaims that the colored soldiers shall be protected in their rights as prisoners of war, the same as white soldiers; and if they are executed or sold into slavery retaliation will follow by execution of Confederate prisoners, or putting them to hard labor on public works.

General Buford, on reconnaissance across the Rappahannock, had several engagements near Culpeper on Saturday last.

General Lee's force are supposed to be concentrated near Culpeper.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard denounces President Davis, threatening him with a revolution should he attempt to override State authorities by physical force.

Several 200 pound Parrot guns have been planted within a mile of Fort Sumter. The idea of reducing Fort Wagner by bombardment has been quite abandoned.

A Washington despatch to the New York Times intimates that General Meade is about making an important movement.

SAD.—One day last week a lady living a few miles from Indianapolis, brought a parcel to one of the express offices in that city, to forward to her husband in the army. It contained some articles that she had carefully prepared with her own hands. Her two little children were with her. The clerk looked at the name and address, and turned away to hide his emotion. That very morning one of those ominous boxes which crowd our trains from the South had arrived, with the name upon the parcel. The remains of the husband and father were at that moment at the depot. The shock to the poor lady was terrible.

The Rochester Democrat says that from one hundred to one hundred and fifty persons were prevented on Saturday and Sunday last from escaping to Canada, at Suspension Bridge, to avoid the draft. The Federal officers at that place refuse passage across the lines to all persons who are supposed to be escaping from the country to avoid the conscription.
