The Miracles of Christ,

AS ATTESTED BY THE EVANGELISTS.

By Rev. Alvah Hovey, D. D. Professor in Newton Theological Seminary. 1 Vol 12 mo.

These lectures delivered before the Students of the Institution, are now submitted by the Putilishers, to the public, with the belief that they will be an invaluable contribution to our religious literature, and will be ranked as a standard in this department.

The following selections from the authors preface will give the general idea of the work.

"To exhibit the testimony of the evangelists to the mfracles of Christ, is the chief purpose of the work. a careful survey of this testimony-noticing points of agreement and difference be ween the several writers, the fairness and minuteness with which they mate to the events in question, and the abortive at tempts which have been made to impeach their veracity-must be acceptable to those who are seeking

This survey is preceded by an introduction pointag out the fallacy of scientific and philosophical obections to miracles, and followed by a conclusion characterizing the evangelical.

"Attention has also been directed to the eccasion ad import of particu ar miracles wrought by Christ.

"Although the following examination rests every where upon the original text of the Gospels the use of Greek terms has with a very few exceptions been evolded, and the entire argument has been put within the reach of every thoughtful person."
