"If life be not in length of days, In silvered locks and furrowed brow; But living to the Saviour's praise, How few have lived as long as thou."

From the first of her final sickness, Hattie seemed to be impressed with the idea that she would die at 3 o'clock in the morning, and "just as the clock was striking the hour," her pure spirit fled from the fair but frail tenement of clay, to return to its native Heaven. Her funeral sermon was preached by her beloved pastor Rev. N. Vidito, from a text of her own se ection-those sub ime words of Job-" I know that my Redeemer liveth."-Com. E. M. F.

I have been afficted with a very troublesome humor in my face for six years and have tried many prescriptions to little or no avail; but having heard of J. B. Fitch's Golden Ointment, I was induced to try a box, by the use of which I am cured; and believe it my duty to recommend it to the public. DAVID MCLELLAN,
