

ITALY.

The Italian Parliament was opened at Florence, by the King Victor Emmanuel in person. His Majesty's speech is a highly important declaration. He tells the Chambers "that nothing will destroy the national work."

The Italian Cabinet has addressed an order to the civil and military authorities who, in consequence of the withdrawal of the French troops, will be brought into contact with the Pontifical fanatics.

NEW ZEALAND.

In New Zealand, Mr. Fitzgerald has pronounced the new native policy; and the Governor has expressed his intention to convene a meeting of the principal chiefs, to devise measures of security and improvement for the native race.

EGYPT.

The Viceroy of Egypt is credited with a very magnificent act. He has cleared the debts, and burdens under which the fellahs of Upper Egypt have been labouring for years, and to that extent he has made them free men.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Swiss Pardon.—The Government of the canton of Basle-Compagne recently adopted the strange resolution of pardoning a man named Martin Bader, who had been condemned to twenty-four years' hard labor for having poisoned his wife, mother, and sister, on the sole condition that he should emigrate to the United States.

The French Government, after long deliberation, has resolved to permit the public sale of horseflesh, subject to the same regulations as ordinary butchers' shops. A special slaughter-house must, however be provided.

THE INSURRECTION IN JAMAICA.—Messrs. Lee and Nightingale, Newspaper correspondents of Liverpool, have despatched one of the most experienced members of their reporting staff to Jamaica, in order to procure impartial and unexaggerated information as to the present serious political crisis in that island.

A monument to Melancthon, the reformer and friend of Luther, has just been inaugurated at Wittemberg in Saxony, in presence of the King of Prussia.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE IN NEW SOUTH WALES.—The first anniversary of the Good Samaritan Division No. 3 was celebrated by a soiree and public meeting on Thursday, 14th, at the Congregational School room, Newtown, when a large and respectable company assembled of about five hundred persons.

The meeting was brought to a close past 10 o'clock, by the National Anthem and a vote of thanks to the Rev. Mr. Kempf for the use of the building, and to the choir for their splendid performances.—Empire.
