THE WEATHER -An immense quantity of more than one half have been already secured. rain has fallen in this neighbourhood for severparts and we doubt not the neighbourhood of bridges will require special attention. This should not be neglected. A heavy thunderstorm passed over the city on Thursday.

THE FRUIT trees are coming out in full blossom. Annapolis County we learn is exhibiting its usual profusion of apple blossoms— a fortnight earlier than usual. We hope that there may be a fair supply of Bishop Pippins this year. We have just finished a barrel of that delicious variety of fruit sent us by Major for no better apples.

The Halifax Chamber of Commerce have resolved to send three delegates to the Commerce its compiler from pecuniary loss in his entered $200. ted $200 towards the expenses of each. It is quired for this purpose having been already secured, suggested that a delegate be also sent from each of the following places: Yarmouth, Picton, and Charlottetown, P. E. I., April, 1865. knoment they would make an end of me.

DRUNK! DRUNK! DRUNK! has been the order of the day, at the Police Court during the past week, and so it will continue to be whilst so many of our citizens get their living by selling rum. " A member of the Liquor Dealer's Association" writing to the Witness a remonstrance against the term "rumsellers" being used to designate the dealers in that article, states that " the separation of the sale of groceries from liquors" " will ruin the business, shut up the shops, and sacrifice the property of at least one half the grocers in the city, and very seriously injure the business of the other; and" he asks "who are those it will benefit?" and himself replies "only the persons who will open low groceries." We would add, All who cease drinking. But such a statement as the above needs no comment.

The Rev. C. W. Vining who has safely returned from a journey in the East, thoughtfully brings us, among other curiosities, some of the newspapers published in Egypt and Turkey. They are in four languages, French, Turkish, Armenian, and Greek. We cannot read them, but he can, and through his patience we have been gratified to learn their contents, and the materials of which newspapers are made up in the land of the Osmanlis. Two of the Nova Scotia Baptist Associations have recommended the Publication of the above work. It will therefore be put to Press as soon as subscriptions have been obtained for five hundred copies; of which

The work will comprise sketches of the religious al weeks past. We hear of freshets in several history of Western Nova Scotia before the days of mask Table Covers. Mr. Harding. It will supply details of Mr. Harding's personal life, labours, and usefulness. Mr. Nutting's Introductory Notice will relate to the religious condition of Nova Scotia generally, to the revival of religion which commenced towards the close of the last century, and to some of the leading agents in that revival. A copious Appendix will be subjoined. This will be illustrative of pe sons and events introduced into the work, and include a selection from Mr. Harding's correspondence; giving letters written by him some seventy years ago. The pictorial embellishments will add to the interest of the work. The whole will be neatly got up; and will Morse Esq., of Paradise last fall and we wish supply, it is hoped, a valuable contribution to the religious history of Nova Scotia, more especially in
