

In addition to the address printed above, the Emperor has issued the following proclamation, addressed to the Arabs:—

“THE EMPEROR TO THE ARABS.”

“France came to Algeria in 1830, not to destroy the Arab nationality, but to liberate the people from ages of oppression. Nevertheless, you have fought against your liberators. I honour your sentiment of warlike dignity, but God has decided. Recognise the decrees of Providence. Like yourselves, our ancestors courageously resisted, and yet from their defeat dates their regeneration. Your Prophet says, ‘God gives power to whomsoever he will.’ I come to exercise power in your interest. I have irrevocably assured to you the proprietorship of the land you occupy. I have honoured your chiefs and respected your religion. I wish to increase your well being. Tell your mistaken brethren that 2,000,000 Arabs cannot resist 40,000,000 Frenchmen. I thank the great majority for their fidelity. Great recollections and powerful interests already unite you to the mother country, and a military confraternity has been formed in the Crimea, Italy, China, and Mexico. Place confidence, then, in your destinies, almost united with those of France, and acknowledge, with the Koran, that what God directs is well directed.”

“NAPOLEON.”

The Emperor is still making excursions in the neighbourhood of Algiers, and appears to be much enjoying himself. The Empress at home is hard at work with her official duties, signing decrees and reading State papers. She presided over the Council of State on Saturday.

The Empress of the French has followed the example of Queen Victoria in writing a private letter of condolence to Mrs. Lincoln. The Empress received the American Ambassador and his wife on Monday, and informed them of the step she had taken.

In nearly all the Continental Governments the sad news of Mr. Lincoln's assassination has provoked official addresses of sympathy and condolence. The Italian Chamber of Deputies was next to our Houses of Parliament in its expressions of grief. The Lower House of the Austrian Parliament, the Swiss Federal Council, the Austrian Government, the Emperor of the French, the Journal de St. Petersburg, and the Spanish Council of Ministers, have each given tokens of profound feeling on this melancholy occasion.

GARIBALDI.—The Duke of Sutherland is at the present moment visiting General Garibaldi at Capraera. The General's health is now completely re-established; but the lameness caused by the wound in his ankle has, we regret to say, become permanent.

A Trial Process It.

Words cannot describe the gloss, the silkiness, the luxuriance, the flowing way-beauty of the hair that is dressed with Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S World's Hair Restorer and Zythobalamum, or Hair Dressing. They keep alive the roots of the hair, fill them with nourishment, moisture, and produce a magnificent growth. Every Druggist sells them.

Coughs.

The administration of Medicinal preparations in the form of a Lozenge is of all modes the most eligible and convenient, more especially as regards a Cough Remedy. “Brown's Bronchial Troches,” or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, giving instant relief in Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Influenza, and Consumptive and Asthmatic complaints.

I have been afflicted with acute rheumatism for three months, and have used many things to no purpose, until I applied J. B. Fitch's Golden Ointment which has immediately relieved me, and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public. JOHN CLARK. River John Road.
