6. In any section where, previous to the passing of this act, the amount provided either by subscription or assessment for the support of the school or schools therein for the current year, or for the purchase of lands whereon to erect school houses, or for the purchasing, building, renting, or repairing of school houses, is insufficient for all or either, or any of the required purposes, the Trustees, with the approval of the Inspector, shall have power to supplement the amount assessed or subscribed therefor by an assessment on the inhabitants of the section.

7. In cases where at meetings under the said chapter provision has been made for the support of schools, or for any other of the purposes in the next preceding section mentioned, by assessment, and the assessment has not been made, or the subscription has failed, the Trustees shall have power to assess and collect the amount thereof under the terms and provisions of section three of this Act. But this section, as regards assessment for the support of schools, shall only apply to cases where schools have been established and put into operation.

8. All future assessments under the chapter hereby amended, for the support of schools, or for the purchase of lands, or the purchase, erection, or repairing of school houses, shall be made, levied, and collected under the provision of the third section of this act; and such assessment shall be made on the assessment roll last made up before the meeting authorizing the same; and where subscription shall be adopted by any meeting as the means of support, assessment shall in no case be resorted to. 9. It shall be the duty of Trustees, in addition to the duties imposed by the said chapter: (1.) To determine the sites of school houses, subect to the sanction of the three nearest Commission ers residing out of the section. (2.) To provide school accommodation, when authorized, and school privileges, free of charge, for all persons resident in the section five years of age and upwards, who may wish to attend school; such accommodation to be provided as far as possible in accordance with the following:

(3.) For any section having fifty pupils or under,

(4.) For any section having from fifty to eighty pupils, a house with comfortable sittings for the same, and a good class-room, with one Teacher and (5.) For any section having from eighty to one hundred pupils, a house with comfortable sittings for the same, and two good class-rooms, with one

16. Whenever any meeting or adjourned meeting has taken place at which a majority of the ratepayers present have decided to raise funds for the support of schools, for the purchase of buildings and erecting and reparing of school houses by assessments or subscriptions, such meetings, and all proceedings, appointments and elections made thereat, and all assessments authorized thereby, and made under the authority of Trustees appointed at such meetings, whether made on the rate rolls of the year 1863 or 1864, and all other meetings, appointments and elections held to carry into effect the said act, are hereby ratified and confirmed, though the provisions of the said act may not in all respects have been complied with, and the meetings may not have been called or taken place at the time and in the manner directed by the said act; but this section, as regards assessment for the support of the school, shall only apply to cases where schools have been established and put into operation.

17. The preceding section shall not apply to assessments made upon persons not resident within the section at the time of such assessment, or upon persons otherwise not liable to assessment.

18. Incorporated and Joint Stock Companies doing business in any section and owning property on the assessment roll of the County, shall be deemed inhabitants under section 26 of the chapter hereby amended, and shall be liable to assessment for the support of the schools of the section.

19. The appointment of Boards of Commissioners for the Districts of North Queens and of South Queens, and of Colchester and Sterling, and the division of the school money of the Counties of Queens and Colchester among those districts respectively as now made, and all proceedings consequent thereon, are confirmed.

20. The existing boundaries of school sections, as laid out and sanctioned by the Council of Public Instruction, are confirmed, and shall so continue until altered, under the provisions of the chapter hereby amended, or any subsequent act.
