124

" Mrs. Ross, may Luther go home with me and stay to-night?" said little Alice Bell to the minister's wife, who was visiting, with her hus band and children, among the members of his congregation.

The family, of which Alice was the youngest, made no profession of religion. Mr. Bell was a good man in his way; that is, he was bonest and kind, but he had never become a child of God.

Luther went home with Alice and a pleasant romp they had. At last the children's bed-time came. Now Luther had been taught to kreel down by his papa's knee, and to repeat his prayer before going to bed. So the artless child, in the absence of his parents, walked confidently up to Mr. Bell and knelt down, folded his little bands, and in a clear voice repeated :

> "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep,

If I should die before I wake,

I pray the Lord my soul to take, And this I ask for Jesus' sake. Amen."

So quietly did the child act, that the old man was not aware of his intention until saying "Amen." He arose, and going to each, he kissed them good night. Little Alice stood in childish astonishment, wondering what the strange proceeding meant. When the children were asleep, the family sat long and thoughtfully. Each seemed to be pursuing an absorbing train of thought. At length Mrs. Bell broke the silence, as a tear sparkled on her cheek, saying, " What a sweet Mr. Bell took no part in the conversation thus started, but, leaving the family circle, retired to his bed room.

THE CHRISTIAN

A Column for Sunday-school Teachers.

THE UNCERTAIN SUNDAY-SCHOOL .-- It is recorded that, once upon a time, a backwcods preacher discoursed to his flock from the text, "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho." He said, " My brithren, take notice that this was a certain man. He wasn't none of your unsartin critters that you can't count on. My brithren, he wasn't no such man as some of you are. You are the unsartinest set I ever preached the Gospel to, you are. The thieves wouldn't have troubled you if they were looking tor certain men."

Well might our rustic friends take his stand on the platform of many a Sunday-school in town, eity, or country, and utter his blast against the "uncertainty" of a majority of the workmen before him. Uncertain in aims and purposes; uncertain as to the ways and means of accomplishing what purposes they have; uncertain as to what the result will be, or, indeed, as to whether there is to be any result or not. The wonder is, not that the Sunday-school work has accomplished so little, but that, with the random, aimless, purposeless style of labor too often bestowed upon it, it has accomplished anything at all. We find the aimless, uncertain school, into which we look, composed of a clever, comfortable set of teachers, and superintendent to match, who all get along well togeth er, think very much alike, do nobody any violent harm, never make a disturbance, and do not put themselves particularly out of the way to perform their full duties as teachers of the young. They know that it is right to have a Sunday school, and they feel that they are in some way doing good by teaching in it. But ask them how that good is being done, and you find that the details of the plan have escaped their attention, and that they are teaching more from force of habit than from stern con victions of duty. The great end of teaching, the conversion of the scholars, is not clearly and habitually kept in view. Great success in this most important respect is seldom, if ever,

MESSENGER.

Correspondence.

For the Christian Messenger.

Our Sabbath Schools.

In Address delivered by REV. W. G. GOUCHER, to the Baptist Sabbath School Convention of Yarmouth County, held at Deerfield, on March 15th, 1865. And published by request of the Convention.

(Concluded.)

and lamentable than in religion.

Add to piety and knowledge : 3rd An ability are not the only class excessively fond of this to communicate. And you have, we think the weak food, but even persons older than they, important qualifications in the efficiency of a members of christian society. And it is not Sabbath School teacher. An aptitude to read that they occasionally look over a work of this son, to illustrate, to make the lesson plain ; to kind, merely as a relaxation from more onerous present it in all its connections, bearings and engagements. If it were, no interest would relations, and impressively present it to the suffer by it. But our fear, arising from observayouthful mind, is a quality exceedingly neces tion, is, that the young members of our churches sary and desirable. As respects these qualifica tions where shall we find them in a more eminent but a few noble exceptions make this the sum degree than in the Sabbath School. The best and substance of their reading. Hence their of the christian community are usually connect piety is not intelligent. Their knowledge of ed with it. Not that icy, misnamed bantling of the bible is vague and limited. For their readbereditary and traditional birth, called piety- ing is a mere pastime, an idle exercise, rather that clings for its life to usages and customs than a crusade for wisdom; an earnest desire to that were produced by ignorance, and stero increase in knowledge, that they may increase should animate the labors of every teacher, typed by prejudice; that does more reverence in usefulness and happiness. From this class of that the Word of God, taught lovingly and to man than to God, at the audacity of which, persons our staff of Sabbath School teachers is the devil blushes, but never complains. But frequently supplied, for want of more efficient the piety that seeks out opportuni ies to do good ones; and from this stock of reading, many of and is constantly making wider the channel S. S. Libraries are annually replenished. Obthrough which it flows. by the earnest loving viously there is deficiency in the religious trainmanner of its movement. This is piety heaven- log of our youth. None will attempt to ignore ly in its origin and nature. It seeks not to live the fact, that the home training is rot what it alone, but is constantly attracting new objects to should be. And we are constrained to believe, that instruct in the weighty matters of the law and gospel, but light reading, tales of romance, that are flooding society. Not that light reading only which is issued by those who profess no friendship for christianity. But our religious society is like a sea, sailed by ships, registered at religious ports, and chartered by religious compacts, having all their papers made out in christianity's name, and carrying full cargoes, that very largely consist of romantic and fictitious works, that are stored in every community and Sabbath School in our land. With piety we associate : 2nd Knowledge, What are many of our Sabbath School Libraries Knowledge is exceedingly necessary in the of- but collections of this stock ? and of what real ficers and teachers of a Sabbath School. We value are they to piety and truth? They bewould not have knowledge without piety, but witch the mind, but dont elevate it; they fascipiety without knowledge, cannot do much. The nate but don't establish ; they occupy but don't Sabbath School teacher must not be a dwarf in purify; they amuse but cannot inform. So far the knowledge of scripture truth. Piety-intel- as it is our business to amuse the children they ligent piety is demanded for this service. The may be of service. But so far as it is our duty person who does not correctly understand a mat- to purify, to elevate, to inform, to establish, they ter, cannot correctly teach it to another. The are of but little use. The children who are naeffects of ignorance are no where more serious turally fond of toys and rattles, and whom we think it right to allow their childish amusement, and older members of our Sablath School, with that our public instruction is not as thorough and efficient as it ought to be. We are not semunity is connected with the S. S. proves that curing to our youth the advantages they need. We have all the organization, and order, and method, and expense, and time, and action that are necessary to constitute an efficient school-But after all there is evidently a lack. We seem to accomplish but little. It is often said that our youth have greater advantages in this direction than their fathers had, and yet the The Sabbath School is termed by some the lact is, the old have in many instances more We will not, however, write " Ichabod" upon our Sabbath Schools. Our object is not to destroy, but to reform. We would not annul, but elevate. We believe the Sabbath School in capable of being improved. But it is always necessary in order to reform to be conscious of its necessity. We are conscious that in moral power, the Sabbath School is not what it should be. That the instruction there given is too indenite and too scanty, and that as a nursery of the church it does not furnish the vigorous, beauteous, fruitful and ornamental trees that it ought. What then are the remedies we propose. We will now note them :

April 19, 1865.

teachers their pie their res with tru sary adv belp to mands; their er of their 1 by the r 2nd ministry all thore truth, a bor, as ministry teacher of much claim to and rev holds ti in hold structs form yo has vo instruct either t his ano succeed enclosu would cupied it wou nothing be exp appoin çause ( pride, that al an int I direc as a so many the in Many teache was t which ly a fa 3rd quent teach the t proac ed; a contr and a purpe ple a instru schoo be ga each pare aged knov tary acter 41 Con regu Sabl to b relig the pres Its a und 8.5 W to r piet revi ing ben dur rela

the

tell

the

Ve

Sal

WO

of

COL

the

wh

W

DQ2

re

ni pr

bı

A

He passed a resiless night, and to the off-repeated question of his wife, "if he was ill?" he only replied, "no," prepared, the cheerful "good morning' of the children, and their playfulness seemed to drive away the singular gloom of kind Mr. Bell teacher to make it smooth for him. He loses have all that the present state of society affords. The chairs were placed, and they sat down to much Biblical knowledge, simply because the break last.

worship, looked from one to the other as they out what the child does know, because he and began to eat without the "grace," they always the child are comparative strangers to each had at home. Thinking, no doubt, that they other, and he has not studied the character of forgot, he turned his eyes to Mr. Bell, and said, the child sufficiently to know how to get at almos in a whisper, "We didn't pray." It him, was too much. The old man left the table. Going to his room, he felt upon his knees, he seeds sown and roots planted; an absence of both naturalists and divines, that early training wept and prayed.

ed and loved.

" Feed my lambs," said Christ, and it may be sheep into the fold.-Lutheran Observer.

Where are we to knock? "I am the Door," passages, without taking the trouble to study says the Saviour. " No man cometh to the the connection of these passages with the rest Father but by me."

morning, and at noon," says king David, " will " Question Book!' on a lesson which has not I pray and cry aloud;" and David knew.

For what are a eknock ? " Seek ye first the the way to school. Such instruction amounts kingdom of God and his righteousness." Heaven to very little. A child of ordinary intelligence in the soul, that is what we want; for heaven is smart enough to see throught it, and despise must first come to us before we can go to heav- it. en.

How must we knock? We must knock in ear day school ! Aimless and unsatisfactory teachnest. We cannot knock too loud. Good Jacob er ! please not to be discouraged. Neither be said, " I will not let thee go except thou bless angry at what is plainly told you. The educame; ' and he got a blessing. We must knock tion of a soul for God is the most solemn and 'rust, to this statement, both as respects loca'j. tion. This we conclude may be secured by, perseveringly, too. The Lord does not always important business on earth. It is not to be ties and individuals, but the general aspect of come immediately. " I waited patiently for the trifled with. It is not to be performed as you Lord," says David, " and he inclined unto me perform a piece of work for which you care and heard my cry. Here is the command, "Knock." Here is the reform. If you intend to continue trifling, you cases those who have attained the age of manpremise, ... It shall be opened."- Child's Paper. are not fit to be trusted with such a work. If you are constitutionally incompetent to teach, GOOD READING-, A rkeptic visited the late you had better stop teaching. But do not stop Rev. Dr. William E. Chauning, and told him till you have made an honest effort in the right that he could not reconcile the terrible denunciadirection. Try in God's strength, and you tions in the twenty-third chapter of Matthew may do much better. Aim directly at the with the meekness and compassion of the Sayouthful heart; with patience and prayer folviour. " Let us know," said the Doctor, " what low the work from its very beginning, and in particular troubles you ;" and taking up the God will lead it on to a completion which will New Testament, he began to read the passages astonish and gratify you beyond all your ex-attained.

There is a lack of the firm conviction which truthfully, is mighty and effectual as the means of subduing the rebellion of the natural heart against God's law. The teaching is done in teebleness, because it is not done with a belief that God will bless it to the ends which teaching should accomplish. It is very apt to be poor teaching.

There is a want of that close sympathy which should exist between teacher and scholar The child does not feel that he has in his teach-litself. er a triend to whom he may confide his troubles. Morning came, and while breakfast was being and of whom he may ask advice. When he comes to a knotty point in his lessons, he jumps over it, or goes round it, rather than ask the idea of asking for it does not occur to him. Luther, wondering why they did not have The teacher loses many an opportunity to draw

Mr. Bell and most of his family now stand at which spring up to choke the word, causing it the Lord's table with their neighbors, showing to become untruitful. The good gardener many sermons and exhortations tailed to do, flowers on which he spends his labours. The and now he and Alice may both repeat their aimless teacher takes a great deal for granied little prayers by Mr. Bell's knee, while, with about soil, cultivation, and harvest; too often will te a harvest at all.

And there is a fearful absence of diligent and that the tender lamb may lead the straying prayerful study of the Word of God. Too of* of the Sacred Word. Too often the instruction

When are we to knock? " Evening, and consists in asking the hungry questions in the been studied, but only hastily thought of on

Friend and neighbor of the uncertain Sun-

The fact that the best of the christian comif we have not all the efficiency desireable, we We pass to enquire :

4. HAVE WE ALL THE EFFICIENCY IN OUR SABBATH SCHOOLS POSSIBLE FOR US TO HAVE? AND ARE WE SECURING TO OUR YOUTH THE ADVANTAGES CONTEMPLATED?

There is, too, a want of careful cultivation of nursery of the church, and it is admitted by bible knowledge than the young. watering the soil, and of plucking out the weeds influences, more or less, the future character and habits. So we may form some idea of the how God "out the mouths of babes and suck knows his soil, every inch of it, and carefully efficiency of Sabbath Schools, by considering lings hath perfected praise." Luther did what watches each stage of growth of the plants and the case of those who upon a profession of religion come into our churches from the S. S. What is their ordinary attachment to the spirit, his hands upon their heads, he smiles and echoes resigning the latter to the Lord so entirely as the doctrines, and the ritual of the gospel? By heartily the Amen ; and the family altar is crect- to have little or no care as to whether there what love for the truth of the Kingdom of Christ are they distinguished from the world of mankind, or from the religionist who are ten teachers themselves are miserably ignorant antagonistic to us in religious conviction and about the Bible. They teach the children, in observances? Alas! Alas! There is is mentable "KNOCK, AND IT SHALL BE OPENED."- an imperfect sort of way, lessons from isolated deficiency on these points. Very many of them seemingly neither know nor care much about these things. Their addition to the church is no realstrength to it, neither in devotion or knowledge. Their connection with it is scarcely noticeable at social meetings, nor in any position where christian steadfastness, intelligence and piety are eminently required. We fear that not a few would be unable to give an intelligifaith they espouse.

True there are honourable exceptions, we 1st. Making the bible a constant study. Using such authenticated help as throws light upon any affairs convinces us of a sad detect in the reparticular passages that seem obscure. Comnothing. It you have been trifling, you must ligious education of our youth. In too many mentaries I value in most instances more for hood and womanhood, apparently care but little their suggestions than exposition. Many of the to inform themselves, or be informed, on quespublished Notes on the Scriptures are like friends tions of religious moment and interest. Their that are with you in prosperity, but in your adprofession is evidently more the product of cir- versity forsake you. They preffer help to you cumstances, than intelligent conviction. The on scripture, where you do not much need it, Bible has less influence over them in their re- but when you do need help they are minus. ligious attachments and preferences than the The bible very largely explains itself. The more 1 study it, the more an I convinced of this, social compact. We will not say they do not read, for much and the more am I attached to it. I have heard money is annually expended to supply them some persons boast of the number of times they with books. But we ask, what do they read? had read through the bib'e, while their know-Do they give the bible a prominent place in ledge of bible truth argued that they had not their selection of books ? Is it the staple of studied it much. The study of the bible is the their religious reading ? We are constrained first means we propose to promote efficiency. to answer, No. Neither the bible, nor books would not say reject young persons from being

5. THE REMEDIES.

The teachers should qualify themselves for the work. And at the outset the teacher must be conscious of the magnitude of the work. Unless he hold the work in high estimation he will not seek a very high grade of qualification ; for lofty conceptions only are accompanied with lofty efforts. While slothful efforts are the meable reason for the hope they cherish; and the sure of groveling ideas, the teacher having obtained a noble conviction of the grandeur of the work will seek the corresponding qualificawith the aweet solemnity of his voice. He had pectations. not proceeded far, before his critic said, "Ab, if the Saviour denounced in a tone like that, I have nothing more to say."

Man prays, and so confesses his dependence plied, "Where mother is !" Was ever a question and helplessness and sin. Prayer is the path more truthfully, beautifully, or fouchingly ans-God made, on which man travels back to him. wered ?

HOME .- A child, speaking of his home to a fr end, was asked, " Where is your home?" Looking with loving eyes at his c o her, he re-