

ITALY.

The Pope has taken another opportunity of expressing his views upon the present aspect of affairs. On the 26th ult., his holiness received the Cardinals, and delivered to them an allocution pretty much in the old strain, denouncing the robbery which wicked men commit under the pretext of nationality.

MADAGASCAR.

Advices have been received via Suez from Réunion to the 7th ult. Intelligence had been received by a vessel arrived from Tamatave, that the greatest anarchy prevailed at Madagascar.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The following advertisement has appeared for the last two weeks: "The daughter of a peer in B-shire, being thrown on her own resources for a shelter and maintenance, is seeking a situation as governess."

RAILWAY MANAGEMENT AND GOVERNMENT CONTROL IN GREAT BRITAIN.—We understand that the appointment of a select committee of the House of Commons will be moved for immediately after the assembling of Parliament, for the purpose of inquiring into the who's question of railway management, and for considering whether any and what steps are necessary with a view to their being made more conducive to the interests of the public.

THE "TIMES" ON CONFEDERATION.—If we may trust Mr. Cardwell, better prospects are before us in relation to our present colonies. We believe he is justified in saying that "there is no subject of the Queen of England who wishes now to depart from the British Constitution; and we believe also that it is in a spirit of loyalty to the British Throne, in a close attachment to the British Crown, and devotion to the British institutions that the Canadians have desired to form all the northern provinces of the eastern coast into one great confederation."
