REPOSITORY OF RELIGIOUS, POLITICAL & GENERAL INTELLIGENCE. "Not slothful in business : fervent in spirit." VOL. XXX. No. 11. HALIFAX, N. S., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1866. NEW SERIES. } Vol. XI. No. 11. 5 poses. God's way of working out the great markable. It is just the difference between and would enjoin observances at variance with Poetry. problem of inspiration must unquestionably mature thought and childish triviality-be- the laws and arrangements of God. At the tween a golden and a leaden age-between time of his writing the letters no one could be the best. have anticipated such a lamentable result. The brevity of the sacred historians is very heaven and earth. remarkable. How much of our Lord's his- Look also at the antecedents of these wri- All probability was against it. But history Nothing is lost. tory, for instance, has been suppressed ! Have ters. They were all Jews, original'y narrow- has interpreted the prophecy; and Paul takes we not often longed for more of His discour- minded, bigoted, proud of their exclusive his place among the prophets. Peter stands Where is the snow? ses and for a fuller narrative of His life? privileges, holding the Gentiles in contempt. by his side. (See 2 Peter iii.) And there, 'Tis not long ago "Many other signs, truly," says the Apostle In all these respects the Apostle Paul stood too, enshrouded in mysterious glory, is the John, "did Jesus in the presence of His dis- pre-eminent. Judaism was intensified in him. beloved disciple. It covered the earth with a veil of white; We heard not its footsteps soft and light, Yet there it was in the morning bright; ciples which are not written in this book." Examine now the system of Christian truth Although many facts and arguments remain Now it hath vanished away from sight. (John xx. 30.) Why were they not written ? as set forth in the apostolic epistles, What unnoticed, the space already occupied warns Not a trace remains The historians must have known a great deal spirit-stirring, benign revelations are before me to bring these remarks to a close. I trust In fields or lanes. more than they have told; and besides, it was us ! Earthly distinctions are lost sight of. that those who peruse them will be convinced promised that the Hely Spirit would "bring The writers think no more of Jews and Gen- that we are not only justified but imperative-Where is the frost? They are gone and lostall things to their remembrance." Why, then, tiles. Greeks and Barbarians. It is man- ly required to regard the Bible as the pro-The forms of beauty last night it made. have they not been recorded ? Did not the simple man-ruined man-and all alike duction of inspired men, and therefore claim-With pictures rare were windows arrayed; writers desire to record them? Were they ruined. And the Church, as they view and ing our submission and obedience. Besides " Be silent," it said ; the brook obeyed. not anxious that all the "gracious words" describe it, is one body, composed of believ- this-every Christian "hath the witness in Yet silence and pictures all did fade. and benevolent, holy deeds of the Lord Jesus ers of all nations and classes, baptized into himself." The Word of God speaks to his At the smile of the sun should be amply detailed and set forth ? How the same Spirit, all possessing equal rights, heart. Its soothing, consoling, sactifying All was undone. was it that they used such compression, and and " members one of another." Is there not power proclaims the heavenly source from omitted so much? There is only one way, it here an utter abnegation of Jewish exclusive- which it flows. It is his light in darkness, Where is the rain? Patting it came, seems to me, of accounting for this strange ness? Whence, too, did these men derive his guide in perplexity, his preservative in Dancing along with a merry sound. phenomenon. They wrote under restraint those wonderful truths, which they discuss peril, his solace in tribulation. What could A grassy bed in the fields it found ; As on one occasion Paul and his companions with so much ease and familiarity? Who he do without his Bible? Each drop came on the roof with a bound. " ascayed to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit unveiled to them God's predestination-the Where is the rain? It hath left the ground. "What is the world ?- A wildering maze, suffered them not" (Acts xvi. 7.) so, when justifying righteousness of the Lord Jesus-What good hath it done, Where sin hath track'd ten thousand ways, the authors of the New Testament sat down the glorious privileges of the adoption-the Gone away so soon ? Her victims to ensnare : to commit to writing the wonderful story of operation of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of All broad, and winding and aslope, Ever, ever redemption, they were supernaturally prevent- believers-the mediatorial kingdom of the All tempting with perfidious hope,

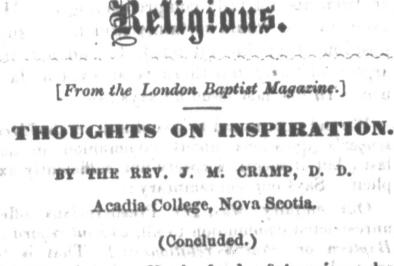

Our best endeavor Seemeth to fall like the melted snow. We work out our thoughts wisely and slow; The seed we sow, but it will not grow. Our hopes, our resolves-where do they go? What doth remain ? Memory and pain.

Nothing is lost-No snow nor frost That come to enrich the earth again. We thank them when the ripening grain Is waving over the hill and plain, And the pleasant rain springs from earth again. All endeth in good-Water and food.

Never despair : Dissappointment bear. Though hope seemeth vain, be patient st.ll;

Thy good intents God doth fulfil. Thy hand is weak ; His powerful will Is finishing thy life work still. The good endeavor Is lost-ah! never.

- Christian Treasury.

Man is exceedingly fond of traming plans ble ?" In a moment, and by a way transfor God, and prescribing to Him modes of the external proofs of the inspiration of the ed liturgies were prepared-gaudy procescending all your thoughts and conceptious, he action. He even affects to wonder that his Scriptures. The internal proofs are no less sions passed along the streets-new offices can mpluck your feet out of the net," and were created, new orders instituted-and fasts methods of procedure have not been adopted. strikingly convincing. Aresby weriam. bring you into a "large place where there is The construction of the divine law-book of a there is a peculiarity in the style of the and feasts appointed in abundance. What no straitness." Pore not despondingly over Christianity does not please him. He would sacred writers which it is difficult to charac- followed? Withering decay corruptionyour obstacles faint not under your adversihave shaped it differently. It would have tense. Perhaps we cannot do better than death. Something has been done in the way ty; sit not down stunned and parslyzed come forth in all the regular, formal propor- say again that they wrote as men who were of reform during the last three hundred upon the stone of difficulty, asking, "Who tions of a system, wherein each topic might moved by the lloly Ghost." Under that years, but the majority of professing Chriswill roll it away ?" Here is your effectual be found in its own place, and nowhere else; influence even their historical memorials as times still adhere to unscriptural polities. remady ; adopt it in faith, and you shall be. history, doctrine, discipline, morals, prophecy, sumed a more than human form. No others Were is Christianity now seen in its most delivered-Go and tell Jesus. each occupying its several niche. It is very would have written of miracles as they did. vigorous development? Is it not in those strange to him that we should have four No wonder is expressed. There is no effort communities which approach most nearly to separate narratives of the Saviour's life-a to direct the attention of the reader. A mi- the apostolic pattern? And must it not be MANY members of temperance societies act: as if they had discharged their whole duty by tragmentary account of the first planting of raculous cure is parrated with the same calm- regarded as a most marvellous thing that Christianity-twenty-one epistles, some to ness and precision as a journey from one place those Christian Jews should be able to devise agreeing to abstain from the use of intoxicatchurches, some to individuals and one book to another. And if from the historical we a scheme which, though at variance with all ing liquors, whereas they have taken but one of obscure visions and prophecies. He is proceed to the epistolary, we meet with still the forms of religion theu in vogue, and pos- step. We protest against such a view of confounded at the apparent want of order, more marked manifestations of what may be sessed of outward attractions, should supplant duty in this matter. and doems it very extraordinary that it called the heavenly style of writing. Those them all, and should be found, at the lapse of ... It is too selfish too contracted too harshould be necessary to go through such a letters were written by men who were consci- eighteen hundred years, to require no change, row, savors too much of the spirit of gain to process of comparison and disentanglement ous of power. There is a majesty, a con- but to be still the best adapted means of se-of passages in order to exhibit separately and densed riches of thought, a fulness of mean- curing the great spiritual purposes of Chris-tess to have the world's reformation for their of passages in order to exhibit separately and distinctly the various parts of the divine sys-tem. Oh, how often has it proved that "the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God." It has pleased Him that the truths of Chris-tianity should be interworen with exhorta-tions and precepts rather than systematically discussed, and that they should sometimes seem to be but incidentally introduced; but we ought not to deabt that this is the most useful manuer in which they could be pre-seened, and that there is great advantage in the discussed, and that there is great advantage in the first two centres, their immediate suc-seenered, and that there is great advantage in the discussed, and that there is great advantage in the first two centres, their immediate suc-seenered, and that there is great advantage in the discussed. sented, and that there is great advantage in The descent from Paul, Peter, and John, to from the Christian taith, and by demoralising brighter and brighter, till it shall reach the seeing how they are applied to practical pur- Clemens Romanus, Ignatius, &c., is most re- tendencies ; would establish creature worship, maturity of perfect day, ed from giving the copious details which they Redeemer, extending to all worlds, all beings, possessed. The book would have been much and ull time-and the sublime, dread realities larger it man had his will in compiling it. of the future state? Verily, these are " the But it is of God's making. We have the things of the Spirit," which "eye hath not amount of information which it has pleased seen, nor ear heard, neither have they entered Him to communicate. And thus the very into the heart of man;" but God revealed tact that so much has been left out serves to them unto these His servants, and they are show that the writers were "moved by the now inscribed on the immortal page. Holy Ghost."

Another extraordinary circumstance may moment. The system of the truth contained be mentioned. Peter was chosen to introduce in the apostolic writings is unsusceptible of be the head of Christianity it is not Peter, but Paul. No one but Paul ventured say, "So ordain L in all Churches." (See 1 Cor. iv. 17 ai Mile 17 : 2 Corsizil 28. of Anibrood

There is another consideration of no small the gospel both to the Jews and the Gentiles. improvement or addition. There have been He stood high among his brethren, as he had no discoveries in religion since that time. All been the first of the " first three" in the days philosophy has suffered change. Science alof the Saviour. But after the meeting at ters every year; the theories of one age are Jerusalem (Acts xv.), improperly called a exploded in the next; the text books of fifty " Council," we hear no more of him, save years ago are uscless now. But Christianity that he wrote one of his letters from "Baby- is the same as when it came forth from its lon." And when the divine, book was to be Founder. It was complete at the very first, prepared, his share in it did not amount to Subsequent writers have expounded the works one-twelith part of the Apostle Paul's. What of the apostles, but they have added nothing shall we say to this? There may be various to them. So also of worship, government. methods of explaining it; but for my part I and discipline. The example of the apostolic cannot help supposing that it is to be traced Churches and the directions given in the to the divine foreknowledge of the power and apostolic letters are all sufficient. Churches authority which could be in later ages ascribed constituted and governed according to these to Peter. It was determined beforehand that examples and directions can exist in all counthe sacred book should contain nothing which tries, and flourish under every form of eivil could warrant such assumptions. Those who polity, and in every state of society. And plead for Peter's supremacy cannot find it in the the usefulness attending christian enterpr ses New Testament. If any Apostle appears to is always found to be proportioned to their conformity with New Testament patterns. Meddlesome men have intertered in this matters 1@The simplicity of a postolic arrangements displeased them. They must have more cere-The preceding observations relate chiefly to mony, more pomp, more power. Complicat-

All ending in despair.

" Millions of pilgrims throng those roads, Bearing their baubles, or their loads.

Down to eternal night ;---One humble path, that never bends, Narrow, and rough, and steep, ascenda From darkness into light.

" Is there a Guide to shew that path? The Bible ;- he alone, who hath The Bible need not stray :

Yet he who hath, and will not give That heavenly Guide to all that live, Himself shalt lose the way."

Are you in a strait !

It is possible that you are entangled in the meshes of a present difficulty, to the unravelment of which no clue presents itself, and from which there appears no way of escape. Human ingenuity is baffled, creature strength fails, all earthly means are exhausted, and you are at your wit's end. Behold your remedy; how near, how simple-Go and tell Jesus. Take your difficulty, and spread it before the Lord. Your appeal to his compassion, and your believing reliance upon his promise, will secure on your behalf infinite wisdom and omnipotent strength. Listen to the divine declaration, simple faith in which will raise you above your circumstances, "Bebold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh ; is anything too hard for me?" Then what is your present entanglement, great though it be, to Him, " with whom nothing is impossi-