Our readers will be interested to know what punishment is likely to be inflicted on local or Provincial Governments will adjust the Fenian prisoners. The Waterbury American, a Connecticut paper gives an indication of the feeling in the Canadian Cabinet in the form of a letter from the Hon. T. D. McGee. The few prefatory remarks from the same paper will explain the matter:

Gee, in behalt of a captured Fenian, of this place, explains itself, and coming from such a high source-a prominent cabinet minister, and one writing from Octawa, where the Cabinet is speedy communication between the differnow in session-may be deemed semi-official, ont members of the Confederation by means and as embouying the views of the Canadian of rail roads, seroes and as to ment edit herosay Government as to the course it will pursue in the trial of the unfortunate Fenian prisoners now in its custody. It is evident that the whole Fenian movement is viewed with abhorence in Canada, will be thoroughly investigated, and that the rigid laws of that Province will be made to bear upon the offenders. It is not Church." We fully believe all you say, but anonyprobable that the penalty of death will be inflicted, but rather that the example of 1837 will be followed, and those of the prisoners who are found guilty will be sentenced to transporta-In this subject a correspondence of

There are few things you could ask me to do. which I would not cheerfully do for auld lang syne. My recollections of Waterbury, its pastor and its people, are all most pleasing and graff But, my dear old friend, this thing you ask cannot be done. Terence McDonald, like the rest of his comrades, left his home, his family duties, if he had any, his honest employment, if he followed one, to come severa! hundreds of miles to murder our border peoplefor this Fenian fillibustering was murder, not What had Canada or Canadians done to deserve such an assault? What had the widow of our brave McEachern done to Terance Mc-Donald, that he and his comrades should leave her with her five fatherless little ones to invoke the wrath of Heaven upon the destroyers of her husband? What had our gallant countryman, Ensign Fahey, done to them, that he should be crippled for life, at their hands ?- What did our eight young Canadians the darlings of mothers, and sisters, and wives the flower of our College corps, -do to deserve their bloody tate in the Fort Eric affair? HAIR DRESSING 18

A dressing for Children's Hair, which can be used without fear of injury to its growth of texture; has hitherto been unattainable. Most, if not all, of the Hair Dressing heretofore sold at the drug stores are composed chiefly of oil and alcohol-ingredients which are antagonistic to the life of the hair. KNIGHT'S Hair Diessing contains neither oil north alcohol, is purely vegetable in his composition, and is the most perfect hair renewever and invigorator hat has ever been made available to the public.
