

THE POPE PROPHECYING.—The Pope is reported to have said lately to a Catholic who was taking leave of him, and who said he hoped to return to Rome next year (1866). "no, not next year but the one after, when all will be glorious. To another person the Holy Father said, some time ago "There will be two more years of trouble, then all will be well."—Express.

A little screw steamer of only twenty-eight tons burden, drawing less than three feet of water, lately arrived in Matanzas, Cuba, from England. She is called the Shamrock.

Hospital for Insane.

Notice to Medical Men and Magistrates.

BEFORE granting Certificates of Insanity or Warrants of commitment to the Provincial Hospital for the Insane, it is requisite that communication be had with this Office, or the Superintendent, as owing to the crowded condition of the Hospital, admission can only be granted as vacancies shall occur. Previous enquiry will obviate disappointment, trouble and expense, since patients from remote parts of the Province have necessarily been sent back without admission. FRED. BROWN, Chairman. Office of Board of Works, Jan. 26th, 1866. Jan. 31.
