

va Scotia, as well as in Sydney, there will be some persons so unreasonable as to think that such wholesale massacres are not only inconsistent with the faith of which Bishop Pateson is a minister, but with the honour of the country under whose flag they were perpetrated."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

THERE has been no one of the leading political characters of the day, who have so thoroughly falsified almost every prediction of his probable conduct in a most difficult position, than President Johnson. Certain deficiencies reported in his moral habits, highly inconsistent with what ought to distinguish the Ruler of a great nation, even under the most ordinary circumstances, seemed at the time of his unexpected advancement to the Presidential chair, to forbode little good to the country. He has, however, thus far, and under difficulties of the most grave and trying nature, administered the high trust committed to him with a prudence and energy which, in our view, implies high ability and an enlightened zeal for the good of his country. Two great questions at present engage the thoughts and tax the resources of American statesmen. The one is the reconstruction of the Union and the terms on which the Southern States shall be re-admitted to a share in privileges and power; and the other more difficult still,—what measures are to be finally adopted for the management of the Four Millions of emancipated slaves, or Freedmen as they are now termed. Contrary views and interests involve the question in much perplexity. The leading abolitionists of the North are calling loudly for thorough emancipation and the admission of the freedmen to all the rights and immunities of citizens. A middle party are for keeping them in a state of pupilage, as it were, until they shall be better fitted by education and intelligence for the enjoyment of such privileges, while the Southern proprietors and many who sympathize with them, are very naturally desirous of conceding the smallest possible portion of rights or of power to their late slaves. Amid these contending elements, Mr. Johnson has no pleasant or easy task upon his hands. He is evidently desirous of steering some middle course by which to shun the rocks and breakers which seem to threaten on either hand. His steps are marked so far with caution, and an entire absence of that rashness by which most thought they would have been characterized. His conduct also as regards the relations of the Union with foreign Powers, appears to be wise and conciliatory, and we sincerely trust that our neighbours may find in him a Pilot well qualified to conduct them to a safe and honorable termination of their difficulties.

The Week of Prayer was observed in several of the towns and villages of our province by Union Prayer-meetings being held. We trust the blessings sought may be received, and that we shall shortly hear of a revived state of religion. Let it not be forgotten that prayer has been offered; there should be now a waiting for the answer.

WANTS IN THE CHURCHES.—A paragraph in one of our exchanges says:—

"The one thing which our churches and our country now needs more than any other, is such an outpouring of the Holy Spirit as will bring Christians within the influences of a quickened spiritual life, and sinners to the acknowledging of Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Lord."

Another one adds:

"Next to the coming of the Spirit as the reviver and sanctifier of the churches, we know of nothing more urgently needed in our denomination than a universal increase of the salaries of our pastors. The thing has been done, wisely and nobly done, in many churches. But in many other churches, as we have reason to fear, there is a distressing discrepancy between the advanced cost of living, and what pastors receive to live upon. No such discrepancy should be suffered to exist, if it be possible for a church to remove it. A half supported pastor is not more than half a man, in the pulpit or out of it—especially when he knows that his support might be adequate. Pecuniary embarrassment is a consumer of physical, intellectual and spiritual strength; and no man can preach so well with bills in his pocket that he knows not how to pay, as with the same amount of greenbacks in his purse out of which to 'pay as he goes.'"

PRINCELY BENEVOLENCE.—At the late annual dinner of the Alumni Association of Amherst College, the Treasurer of the college, stated that he had just signed a receipt for $100,000 from the estate of the late Dr. Walker, and expects soon to receive another $100,000. He estimated the college property to be worth one million of dollars.

DECLINE OF INFANT BAPTISM.—The Minutes of the Congregational Association of Connecticut contain some suggestive statistics. In 1864, the number of children sprinkled was 123 less than in 1863, and a smaller number than has been reported since 1857; 82 churches, with 7,421 members, sprinkled no child.

The Archbishop of Halifax has written a significant letter to the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, which has been published in most of the papers in the two provinces, expressive of the loyalty of the Roman Catholics, and their desire for Confederation. He denounces Annexation with the United States, and pronounces it madness to entertain such a thought. He shows that the Roman Catholics have their fair share in government affairs in the Provinces, but has yet to "learn that one President, Vice President, or any member of the General Government, at Washington, was a Catholic; and not more than two or three of that faith (as far as I could ascertain) have reached the Senatorial dignity, since the days of Charles Carroll of Carrollton." He adds:

"Our people, therefore, have nothing to expect from change of any kind but increased taxation, diminished incomes, a decided fall in the social scale, the scathing contempt of their new rulers, as was ever the case in New England, and with these, perhaps, the horrors of a devastating war. The great Government of the United States has nothing more tempting to offer; and what have we to expect from the so called Fenians, that pitiable knot of knaves and fools, who, unable to degrade themselves, are doing all in their power to add another Balinagarry to the history of Ireland, and to make the condition of our poor country more deplorable than before."

CONFEDERATION OR ANNEXATION.—A late number of the Evening Express contained a letter from a Boston correspondent which places in strong contrast what we might expect to gain and lose by going into Union with the great Republic. He says:

"Well then, you would gain

1. Free trade for your fish, coal, minerals, and other produce in all parts of the Union.
2. A Republican form of Government.
3. Two Senators and about as many Members of Congress as the State of Delaware.
4. Perhaps a half a dozen of Federal offices.
5. A paper currency, worth, just now, about two-thirds of your own.
6. A liberal share of our national debt, which, on the authority of our great Financier, Mr. Jay Cook, would confer upon you a great public benefit.

Now for these inestimable blessings of Self-government, Yankee Free Trade, and paper money, what would you have to pay? Well, you would have to pay:—

- From five to ten times higher duties on all imported articles than you now pay.
- Three times as much for clothing, and the necessaries of life as you now pay.
- Three per cent. on everything you manufacture.

Ten dollars a year to keep store, or to sell Spruce beer.

- A dollar a year for a gold watch.
- Two dollars a year for a piano.
- A dollar a year for a carriage.
- A stamp duty on all receipts, notes of hand, bills of Exchange, contracts, Deeds of Sale, Will, &c., according to amount or value.
- Five per cent. on all incomes exceeding six hundred dollars a year.

Every dollar of import duties and "Internal Revenue" would find its way, not into your, but into Uncle Sam's Treasury.

All the revenue that you raise at present to pay expenses of government, interest of public debt, public works, schools, roads and bridges, and what not, you would have to raise in addition to the above, by direct taxation.

Your share of the public debt of the United States, could not possibly fall short of fifty millions of dollars, the interest of which you would have to pay in gold, derived from imports."

HALIFAX AND DARTMOUTH SABBATH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.—A public meeting in connection with the above Association, will be held in the Gratton Street Wesleyan Church, on Monday evening 22nd inst. Chair to be taken at 7½ P. M..

An address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Pryor, and several other ministers are expected to take part in the exercises.

Officers and Teachers of Sabbath Schools, and friends of Sabbath School instruction generally, are invited to attend.

A collection will be made to defray necessary expenses.
