

Montreal, Nov. 7.—B. Develin, an eminent lawyer, has been requested by the United States Government to defend the Fenian prisoners here, whose trial will commence in December next.

Quebec, Nov. 9.—New Brunswick has given $6000 to the Quebec sufferers. The total subscription from England is $35,000, and those from the United States over $10,000.

THE QUEBEC FIRE.—It is said that the wind carried firebrands and leaves of books from the great fire in Quebec fifteen miles into the interior.

LATEST FROM THE U. STATES.

THE ELECTIONS.—The following is a telegram from New York, Nov. 9:

Elections passed off quietly. Republicans carried New York State. Fenton's majority for Governor, about 10,000. Hoffman's majority in New York City about 55,000. New Jersey, Vermont, Michigan, Massachusetts, all Republican. Democrats carried Maryland and Delaware.

Boston has returned Mr. Charles Mitchell a colored man as one of its representatives.

BLAST FROM A FENIAN TRUMPET.—The following is from the N. Y. Times.—At the Fenian mass meeting last night, resolutions were adopted declaring that the Fenians of America defiantly assert the conviction of Col. Lynch and Rev Mr. McMahon will be made the bugle-note which will lead our army of Irishmen; that will drive the last vestige of British power from the American continent; and if further convictions and sentence of Fenians now held by Canadian authorities be continued, we pledge our lives, liberties and sacred honor to avenge them, not alone upon the valiant Queen's Own, but to die or see the last vestige of tyrannous English power swept from the earth.

WONDERFUL.—At Troy, New York, where they have been digging a very deep well, the earth from a hundred feet beneath the surface of the ground produced plants after it had been exposed to the sun for a few days, which proved to be red raspberries. All these phenomena go to show, most conclusively, that there has been a wonderful upheaval and overturning in nature; and this is among the things that finite minds are not able to solve.

MEXICO.—New York, Nov. 6.—Late news from Mexico announces the abdication of Maximilian in favor of General Bazaine and his arrival at Orezala, en route to Vera Cruz, to embark for Europe on Austrian Frigate Danaote.

SOUTH AMERICA.—Rio Janeiro, Oct. 10, via London, Nov. 5th.—There was a great battle at Cungeeraty, Paraguay, on the 22nd ult. The gunboats engaged the Fort there and the Allied storming columns amid showers of musketry and grape nobly took the first line, but failed at the second, and retired with a loss of nearly 5000 men. Several gunboats were disabled in the fight. Flores had gone back to Montevideo with the rest of the Army. There was a great excitement. Operations are suspended for the present.

Fourteen bears have been killed at Albany, N. H., this fall. Bruin climbs trees and shakes down the apples for himself.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By Atlantic Telegraph.

GREAT BRITAIN.—London, Nov. 6.—The Times, to day in an editorial, exposes the New York State and city governments, and closes with a warning against the extension of political power. A telegram from Tien Tein, China, says the French have declared war against Corea.

The rumor of an alliance of Spain with Brazil, against Paraguay, is denied. The American vessel General Sherman, got ashore at Corea, and forty persons on board were murdered by the natives.

Lord Derby has encouraged a deputation on the subject of the Nicaraguan Railway.

Nov. 7.—It is stated that the insurrection in Candia has ended.

Great Britain has withdrawn her Legation from Saxony, thereby recognizing the incorporation of Saxony with the Kingdom of Prussia. It is said that preparations are quietly in progress in Ireland to meet a possible rising.

The Bank of England received into its vaults during the month ending Friday, gold to the value of £949,960. The increase in the week after deducting payments was £243,995. In the reserve notes there was also an increase of £656,970.

Nov. 8.—The case of the rebel steamer seized at Liverpool, which was before the Admiralty Court, has been allowed, by the consent of all parties, to stand over. It is believed that the matter will be privately adjusted.

Drafts of Rent & Co. of China have been refused acceptance. Their engagements are heavy.

The Bank rate has been reduced to four per cent.

Nov. 10.—At the recent Banquet to Lord Derby, the English Premier made a friendly allusion to America, and expressed a hope that any question between the two Governments might be approached in a forbearing and conciliatory spirit, which might remove all bitterness, and cement the friendship of the two nations.

The great reform meeting is appointed to take place in London on the 3rd of December next.

Nov. 11.—News has been received of the arrival of the barque Nellie Chapin at Jaffa, from Jonesport, Maine, with one hundred and fifty Americans to colonize in Palestine.

The American brig Luba was boarded by pirates on the coast of China. No date. The captain and two mates were killed, and several of the crew wounded.

The United States company has got the consent of the Emperor of China to lay a cable from the Western Union Extension Company's lines on the North to Shanghai.

A fearful typhoon had occurred between Japan and Shanghai. No disasters to shipping, however have been reported.

The French Admiral was awaiting the arrival of his squadron at Shanghai in order to proceed to Corea.

It was proposed at Sydney, Australia, to lay a duty of one shilling an ounce on gold exports. The crops were not extraordinarily good on the Island. Of some articles only half of last year's crops were exported.

FRANCE.—Paris, Nov. 7.—The ships to bring back the French troops from Mexico are ready. Maximilian, the Moniteur says, will remain in Mexico.

ITALY.—Venice, Nov. 8.—The King of Italy entered Venice yesterday, and met with a grand reception.

TURKEY.—Nov. 8.—A special Cable despatch to New York from Constantinople, yesterday, states that the Candian Christian insurgents had sustained heavy losses in three successive battles with the Turks. Thirty three Sphatist chiefs lately in revolution had submitted. It was expected that the Sultan would grant further concessions to the Christians of the Islands.

Constantinople, Nov. 5.—The United States squadron is expected in Turkish waters.

Nov. 8.—The trouble between Turkey and the U. States, caused at Cyprus, is settled.

RUSSIA.—St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—War is renewed in Bokhara, and the Prussian forces have besieged and taken the city of Murbs.

Nov. 7.—The Czar of Russia has formally recognized the Hospodar.

Nov. 10.—The Czaritch and Princess Dagmar were married yesterday with great festivities. The Czar commuted the sentence of prisoners, and remitted arrears of taxes.

PRUSSIA.—Berlin, Nov. 7.—It is said that the Prussian troops in Saxony have been ordered to be demobilized.

Nov. 7.—Prussia sees in the appointment of Baron Von Buest to the Prime Ministership at Austria an attempt on the part of that country to interfere with settled questions, which would impel Prussia to complete more quickly and surely the national work of Germany.

AUSTRIA.—Vienna, Nov. 6.—The project for military reform in Austria includes liability to serve in the army, the use of trench-loading arms, and other measures.

Nov. 7.—It is reported that the Emperor of Russia has resolved to appoint an Hungarian Ministry.

Nov. 7.—The King of Italy entered this city at 10 a. m. The Patriarch of Venice received him at the Church of St. Mark, where a Te Deum was sung. His reception in the city was magnificent. There was great joy, and the crowd was so immense that the troops were unable to defile before the King. The National Guard was mobilized.
