THE TORONTO, MONTREAL, AND KINGSTON POLICE forces have all been served with seven-barrelled revolvers. Some of the Canadian papers condemn the proceeding.

THE HON. FERGUSON BLAIR ON CONFEDERATION.—At his re-election for Brock, C. W., on the 25th ult., Hon. Mr. Blair said:—"I hope and believe that whatever may be the result of the efforts for continued reciprocity and for confederation, the Province is about entering upon a great sphere of usefulness, enterprise and prosperity, and that the bond of union between us and the parent country will be very materially strengthened."

WE ARE INFORMED BY THOSE IN CHARGE OF THE prisoners in the Penitentiary that the above, "It was stated &c.," is untrue.

THE TEMPERANCE BALANCE SHEET.—Dr. Cramp's lecture on Temperance in the vestry of the Baptist Chapel on Monday evening, was listened to with evident satisfaction by a large and attentive audience.

TEMPERANCE PROGRESS IN WEST CORNWALLIS.—There is a Temperance revival in progress here. A new Division of the Sons of Temperance has been organized lately, called "Fenwick."

The Aurora Division has been re-constituted, and about 30 persons will be proposed for membership at the next meeting.

Prince Edward Island.

A HEAVY SNOW STORM has been experienced in Prince Edward Island. The Charlottetown Examiner of the 29th says:—"There have been no Mails from abroad for several days—"

The Summerside Journal says that the submarine cable between P. E. Island and the Main-land, has been so much injured, probably by the drifting ice, that telegraphic communication is most likely suspended for the winter.

The railway agitation is spreading in Prince Edward Island. A large meeting at Summerside decided last week by a majority of two hundred in favour of an immediate inauguration of a railway measure by the Government.

New Brunswick.

The St. John Ragged School has the names of one hundred and thirty-six children on its register, between ninety and a hundred of whom on an average, attend daily.

If the St. John Schools were free, there need be no "Ragged" Schools.

Dr. Sinclair, the Medical Superintendent of the St. John Public Hospital, died of typhoid fever a few days ago. There are upwards of forty cases of that malady in the hospital at present.

On the night of the 24th ult., the house of Mr. John Leslie, at Grand Falls, N. B., was destroyed by fire, and Mr. Leslie perished in the flames.

Canada.

A few days ago the river below Niagara Falls froze over and formed an ice bridge extending three miles down the rapids. It is the largest bridge formed for many years.

On the night of the 25th ult. a fire occurred in London, C. W., by which a block of stores on Dundas street, the property of the Matthew estate was burned.
