

that event the balance of power they fear will be against them, and to remedy that difficulty they propose to annex Canada and carve it up into whatever number of States may be necessary to enable them to retain the political preponderance.

The London Times city article says:—The news of the rapid progress of the Prussian army has created an impression on change as to the early possibility of negotiations for peace.

There was a great reform meeting on the night of the 2nd inst., from 30,000 to 50,000 were present.

The Prince of Wales while riding along "Rotten Row" on the 2nd inst., was run against by a runaway horse; the Prince's horse was thrown down, rolling over and over, but the Prince escaped not much hurt.

The Paris Moniteur of the 5th makes the following announcement:—An important event has just occurred. After having maintained the honor of his arms in Italy, the Emperor of Austria, concurring in the ideas expressed in the Emperor Napoleon's letter of June 11th to his Minister of Foreign Affairs, cedes Venetia to the French Emperor, and accepts his mediation for conclusion of a peace.

The Austrian Field Marshal Von Gablenz arrived at the Prussian headquarters at Horitz near Gutzlein on the evening of the 4th inst., with a flag of truce. The battle of July 3d was a great affair. It resulted in the complete defeat of the Austrians. The Prussians were commanded by the king in person. They met the Austrians under Benedek between Horitz and Komgratz. The battle lasted 12 hours. Until 10 o'clock, the battle was favorable to the Austrians, but after that hour the advantages were with the Prussians. At 2 o'clock, after an obstinate defence, the Prussians carried, by storm, the strong positions of the Austrians, after which the Austrians were quickly driven out of other positions, and by 7 o'clock, p. m., the Austrians were in full retreat to Comgratz, pursued by the Prussian cavalry. The Austrians were in complete route.

The road was strewn with baggage which they had thrown away. The number of killed and wounded on both sides was great, but owing to the extent of the battle field it had not yet been ascertained. The Prussians claim to have captured, up to the evening of the 4th, 14,000 men, wounded prisoners, 119 cannon and several flags. Three Austrian Archdukes are reported wounded. Prince Sichtenstin and Prince Uchitsch were taken prisoners. Gen. Frishniez, commander of an Austrian corps, lost a leg. Gen. Count Hume was shot in the head, and Col. Rander and another staff officer were killed.

Garribaldi, on the 3rd, attacked the Austrians at Montasuello. The Austrians made a strong resistance. The volunteers finally fell back in good order. Garribaldi was slightly wounded in the thigh. The ammunition of the volunteers was rendered useless by a heavy rain.

Intense enthusiasm prevailed at Berlin, where the Prussian victories were announced by salutes of artillery.

For the first time the anniversary of American independence was celebrated on the 4th of July conjointly by British and American war vessels in an English port. In Liverpool the Americans had a banquet at the Washington Hotel, and there was a good display of flags on the shipping.

The second boat race between Hamill, the American, and Kelly, the Englishman, on the River Tyne, took place on the 5th, and again resulted in an easy victory for Kelly.

LONDON, July 5.—The Prussian and Italian reply to the proposed armistice has not transpired. There are rumors that the Prussian reply is not favorable. The Morning Post thinks that a Congress will shortly assemble, and that the French will propose a general disarmament. In the commercial circles of London, peace is regarded as virtually concluded.

The Prince Imperial was present at the fete in Paris in celebration of American independence.

LIVERPOOL, 5th Evening.—A great battle took place on the 3rd near Sudorra, resulting in the Prussians obtaining a great and complete victory. The Prussians took fourteen thousand prisoners. There were great losses in killed and wounded, but no estimate is given of the numbers. The Austrians sent in a flag of truce. Austria has agreed to cede Venetia to the Emperor Napoleon, and accepted his mediation. Napoleon immediately communicated with the belligerents.

For Children Teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and RELIEF & HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter of WHAT WE DO KNOW, after thirty years' experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING success in

Thousands of Cases. It not only relieves the child from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

CRISES IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome constipations, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the most AND MOST EFFECTIVE in the world, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, OR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—YES, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used.
